Introductory Note.

THE title "Journals of the House of Burgesses" has been retained for the present volume, which is the 13th and last of the series of Journals in the publication of which the Virginia State Library has been engaged since the year 1904, though, so far as the contents of this book are concerned, it is not entirely accurate. The material found in this volume is not made up altogether, or even in the main, of entire Journals of the House of Burgesses or of excerpts from these Journals, but of a few such excerpts, it is true, and of such papers of the House and of the General or Grand Assembly as a whole as are extant and have been found by the editor of the volume. These papers include petitions, letters, and statements sent by the House or by the Assembly to the authorities in England, and communications made to the Assembly, as well as such portions of the Journals as have been preserved, the latter being, unfortunately, distressingly meagre, though, even at that, of the very highest importance historically. It was thought by the editor that the "papers" of the House and of the Assembly should, in the absence of the Journals, be printed, because they are closely associated with the Journals, which have been lost, and with the laws, the majority of which for this period have been printed in Hening's "Statutes at Large," though, unfortunately, many of these, too, have been lost. It was thought that all the material which would be of help in the reconstruction of the activities of the House and of the Assembly for the earliest period should be presented in one place. The material in this volume is similar to that in the first 118 pages of the preceding volume, and not similar, except in places, to the material making up the bulk of that volume, namely, the complete Journals from 1680 through 1693, printed from contemporary copies of these Journals sent to England at the close of each session and there, with one or two exceptions, preserved. The book contains, also, the orders of the Assembly for the period covered. These orders are of the nature of laws rather than of journal material, being the actual judgments of the Assembly in regard to a multitude of local and private matters, in reference to which it was not deemed suitable to enact a law. They, however, frequently contain much of what in later times would appear in the Journals, and not by any means all of them have been printed by Hening.¹

It was thought best, however, to retain for this volume the title given to the series, rather than attempt to give it a title more truly descriptive of its contents, because, first, it actually does contain all the journal entries that have come down from those early days, and, secondly, it is only one volume of a series, and any change in the title would probably lead to confusion in the use of the volumes and in references to be made to them.

In collecting the material which will be found in the body of this book, a few papers have been obtained which are of such value as supplementing and illustrating that material as to call for publication in an Appendix.² This material, none of it having been printed before, so far as is known to the editor of this volume, except one small item, will be found more particularly described in the Preface.

The Preface to the present volume is unlike the prefaces to former volumes in the series, in that it confines itself almost altogether to a treatment of the sources of the text and of the dates of the sessions, and pays only the most general attention to the contents of the text, whereas in former volumes a setting forth in a connected way of some of the more important transactions of the House was the main object of the prefaces. So far as the present volume is concerned, such a preface could not be written except for those few assemblies for which the excerpts from the original Journals are of some length, and in these cases the excerpts tell the story clearly enough to make a retelling of it superfluous. As for the papers of the various assemblies, it has been felt by the editor that an attempt to give in this Preface an adequate discussion of their contents would, if it were to be carried to a successful conclusion, result in the writing of a history of the period covered, which would scarcely be advisable in a preface. If advisable, it would not be possible to add much to what has already been done along this line.³

This volume contains, also, a general index to the series, made up of the indexes of the respective volumes, thrown together after having been somewhat revised. The series has been printed in an inverted chronological order, and no volume number has been put on any volume, but in place of this the inclusive dates of the material to be found therein. Consequently, in the general index the references to the volumes are made by means of these inclusive dates, they being printed in heavy type.

When the volumes of the series are collected on a shelf, it is suggested that they be put in their chronological order, rather than in the order in which they have been published. This will throw the index volume first, but will remedy the impression bound to be made by the other arrangement of moving in an unnatural way backwards. It is believed that this arrangement will reduce to a minimum the awkwardness resulting from the method of publishing, a method chosen because it was known at the start what Journals of the later period could be found for publication, but not known what Journals of the earlier period were in existence, and it was deemed desirable to begin the work at once. It may be added that this method has increased to no small extent the labor of the editors,⁴ and has caused the commission of a few mistakes in statement which otherwise might not have been made.

Much of the material appearing in this book has been printed before, and wherever a paper has appeared in a publication having a good reputation for accuracy, such, for instance, as Hening's "Statutes at Large" or the "Virginia Magazine of History and Biography," the editor has not thought it necessary to go beyond these to their sources in securing his text, but has entered cheerfully into the labors of others. He has, however, very frequently gone to the originals themselves, as a reading of the Preface will indicate.

In the text "copy" has been followed very closely, and in order to do this in the case of original manuscripts a few special characters have been used, as follows:

č, indicating ti (menčoned, for example, for mentioned).

ϕ, indicating -leman or -lemen (gentϕ, standing for gentleman or gentlemen, usually the latter).

ϕ, indicating pre (ϕvent, prevent).

q₃, indicating que (annoq₃, for annoque)

m̄, indicating mm (sum̄on, for summon).

In general, a curve over a letter indicates the omission of a letter or letters either preceding or following the marked letter.

² The user of this book need hardly be told, however, that the material here given is but a small part of the material still unprinted in the British Public Record Office and other depositories which would throw strong light on the questions treated in the papers and parts of Journals appearing in the body of the book.

⁴ The first four volumes were edited by Jno. P. Kennedy, who when they were going through the press was librarian of the Virginia State Library; the remaining volumes have been edited by the present librarian.

Preface.

The General Assembly of 1619.

THIS Assembly is of peculiar interest as being the first legislative body that ever met in America. The account of its proceedings printed in the present volume is not the journal kept by the clerk of the General Assembly—no such journal has been preserved, if written from day to day, though a clerk was appointed—but it is the report sent home to the authorities of the London Company in England by the speaker of the Assembly, John Pory, who was also secretary of the Colony. Pory's position as secretary carried with it membership in the Council and consequently membership in the Assembly, since this first Assembly was composed, as was the case in later times, both of members elected by the people and of members of the Council appointed by the authorities in England. Pory seems to have been appointed to the position of speaker, as were John Twine and Thomas Pierse to the positions of clerk of the General Assembly and sergeant-at-arms, respectively, by the governor or by the governor and Council, for the selection took place before the Burgesses had become, by taking the oath of supremacy, fully competent to perform their duties.

At this first meeting of the General Assembly the Burgesses—two from each plantation—and the members of the Council, with the governor, sat together as one body, in which each member had one vote, and questions were decided by the vote of the majority, the governor, however, having the power to veto any measure whatever. All this was in accordance with the London Company's commission to Governor Yeadley establishing the General Assembly; and the body continued to consist of only one chamber for the few years of the further existence of the London Company and possibly to a later time still. By an extension of usage the Company applied the term “borough” to each area, whether town, hundred, or plantation, from which representatives were to come, and the term “burgess” to each voter in one of these areas. The representatives in the Assembly were called “burgesses” at the start, not because they were representatives, but because they were citizens and voters in these “boroughs,” but very soon the idea of representation became attached to the word “burgess,” and then, the boroughs of the company having gone out of existence, the word came to mean, so far as Virginia was concerned, a representative in the elective branch of the General Assembly and nothing else. Its use in the sense of a voter did not persist. But as meaning a representative it continued in use till the Revolutionary War, though there was only one town in the Colony. The reason for this was, of course, that the term was used in the official documents of the later period and that these followed the usage set by the Company.⁵

Unfortunately, the records handed down do not permit us to say at exactly what time the two classes of members began to sit as separate chambers; certainly, however, it was much before the year 1680, the date given by Beverley, and adopted on his authority by many later historians. Some of the evidence leading to this conclusion has been presented in the Preface to the volume of the Journals of the House of Burgesses immediately preceding the present one.⁶ Additional evidence will be presented further on in this Preface.

⁵ See the commission given to Sir Francis Wyatt in 1621, printed in Hening, I, 113, 114, which was almost certainly exactly similar to the commission given to Sir George Yeadley in 1618, by virtue of which the first General Assembly in Virginia was held. Unfortunately, this paper has been lost. The first paper mentioning the General Assembly that has come down to us is dated July 24, 1621. It has the title “An Ordinance and Constitution of the Treasurer, Council, and Company in England, for a Council of State and General Assembly.” It is printed in Hening I, 110-113.

The speaker's account of the proceedings of this General Assembly was first printed in 1857, in the "Collections of the New York Historical Society," with a preface by George Bancroft. It was again printed in the "Colonial Records of Virginia" (State Senate Document, Extra, Richmond, 1874), pp. 1-32. The original is in the British Public Record Office, London. The several transcripts which have been made of this very interesting document differ from each other slightly in unimportant details. Two of these transcripts are at present in the Virginia State Library, one in the collection known as the "McDonald Transcripts" and the other in the collection known as the "De Jarnette Transcripts."⁷ The former of these has been used as the source of the text printed in this volume, as it appears to be slightly more accurate than the De Jarnette transcript and at least as accurate as the one used by Bancroft.⁸

The sessions of this Assembly began on July 30, and ended on August 4. The last paragraph of the report shows that the Assembly was not finally dissolved, but was prorogued to the first of March, 1619/20. Probably it met at that time or a little later, but no account of the session has been handed down, though Robert Beverley, indeed, does say in his "History of Virginia" that an Assembly met in May, 1620, and in this statement he is followed by the more reliable Stith.⁹

The General Assembly of 1621.

THE next Assembly of which there is an account met in November and December, 1621—probably for only a few days—and the account is found in a letter of the governor and Council of Virginia to the London Company written in January, 1621/22. This letter is printed in full in Edward D. Neill's "Virginia Company of London," pp. 274-286. In the absence of the Journal of this Assembly, of all documents emanating from it, and of such a special report relating to it as Speaker Pory's report of the proceedings of the Assembly of 1619, it was thought advisable to insert in this volume such parts of the letter as refer to the proceedings of the Assembly. These are printed from the text as given by Neill, who copied from a manuscript in the Library of Congress, which is evidently a contemporary copy of the original—almost certainly, indeed, the official copy kept by the governor and Council. It found its way to the Library of Congress with the library of Thomas Jefferson.¹⁰

⁷ The first of these two collections of transcripts was made in 1860 by direction of Col. Angus W. McDonald, who had been sent to England by the General Assembly of Virginia to secure transcripts of such papers as he could discover throwing any light on the question of the boundary line between Virginia and Maryland, and who, finding after this task had been accomplished that the appropriation made was not exhausted, expended the balance in securing transcripts of other important documents originating in colonial Virginia. Unfortunately, four of the nine volumes of transcripts and the collection of maps brought back by Col. McDonald from England—the material bearing more especially on the subject of the boundary line—disappeared from the Virginia State Library some time after the occupation of Richmond by the Federal troops in April, 1865. Consequently, when in 1870 the question of the boundary line between the two States came again under official consideration, it was necessary that the documents in England bearing upon it should be copied again. This time the agent of Virginia was the Honorable D. C. De Jarnette, sent over by the governor of the State. Mr. De Jarnette, too, had transcripts made of important Virginia documents other than those bearing on the boundary line, many of them, indeed, being duplicates of the transcripts in the four volumes of the "McDonald Transcripts" which have been preserved.

¹⁰ Its reference marks in the Library of Congress are, Ms. Rec. Virginia Co., III, pt. ii, pp. 1-2a.

The General Assembly of 1623/24.

THE next session of which any record has been left, though probably there were sessions held in the years 1622 and 1623, for, according to the "Ordinance and Constitution of the Treasurer, Council, and Company in England for a Council of State and General Assembly," the sessions were to be annual, is the session of 1623/24, commencing February 16 and ending March 5. This was a very important session in the history of the Colony, for the commissioners sent over by the English government to inquire into the condition of the Colony were in Virginia, with whom negotiations had to be carried on, and papers had to be drawn up setting forth the attitude of the Colony toward the proposed revocation of the charter of the London Company. The sympathy of the colonists was overwhelmingly with the company.

The fight made by the king on the company is fully described in E. D. Neill's "Virginia Company of London" and in even greater detail and more satisfactorily in Alexander Brown's "First Republic in America."¹¹ All the papers referred to by Brown are printed in the present volume—in the absence of the regular Journal of the session, which has been lost—with the exception of the laws, which are to be found in Hening, I, 121-128. In addition, there is printed here an order of this Assembly which seems to have been overlooked by Brown—the second order on page 41. This sets forth the method of collecting tobacco for payment of Mr. John Pountis for looking after the interests of Virginia before the king and Council in England.

The first document of this Assembly printed in this volume is taken from Neill's "Virginia Company of London" and the second from Stith's "History of Virginia," the original manuscript being in each case now in the Library of Congress, having been secured by that library with the library of Thomas Jefferson. The next two documents are from the "Bancroft Transcripts," a large collection of copies of original papers in the Public Record Office, London, which George Bancroft, the historian, had made for his use when writing his "History of the United States," and which are now in the New York Public Library. The next document is copied from the "Colonial Records of Virginia," a printed compilation already referred to, the source of the text of which is, as we have seen, transcripts of originals in the Public Record Office. All the other documents of this session are printed from the "Bancroft Transcripts" except the two orders given on page 41, which are from papers in the Library of Congress evidently contemporary with the orders themselves.¹²

This Assembly probably held another session, in the latter part of 1624, but nothing is known in reference to it.¹³

¹¹ Neill's "Virginia Company of London," 385 ff.; Brown's "First Republic in America," 570 ff.

¹² The Library of Congress papers are, in fact, pages from the original Council record book, the book, before its transfer to the Library of Congress, having become much mutilated, only pages here and there being preserved.

It may be of interest to note that everywhere in this volume where documents have been printed from manuscripts other than manuscripts in the British Public Record Office and transcripts in the Virginia State Library, photostatic copies of the sources have been used. In the case of the "Bancroft Transcripts" these photostatic copies have been themselves sent to the printer, but in the case of the Library of Congress manuscripts—early seventeenth century manuscripts—difficulties of handwriting made it advisable that the printer be furnished with more legible copy.

¹³ See Alexander Brown's reference to it in the "Virginia Magazine of History and Biography," VII, 273, 274.

Convention of 1625.

WHEN the charter was taken away from the London Company and the government of Virginia was assumed by the crown, there was in the form of government devised no provision made for a representative assembly. Hence no House of Burgesses could be legally elected. However, the governor of Virginia, Sir Francis Wyatt, and the Council, were in favor of allowing representatives of the people a share in the government of the Colony, although this, necessarily, would diminish their own power, and they, accordingly, called together a number of such representatives to consult with them on matters most vitally affecting the Colony. The call has fortunately been preserved, and is in these words:

“Whereas there are divers important occasions, w^{ch} hereby concerne the generall Estate of y^e Colony, These are y^e you call together all the fremen of y^e plantac’ vnder your Comand And by the maior p’tie of y^e voyt [voice] to elect two of y^e most Sufficient vpon whose Judgements the rest wilbe Contented to rely y^e they Appere at James Cyttie the 10th of Maye next ensuinge, where we hope the busines will not detain them about three or fower dyes.”

This call was issued at a meeting of the governor and Council held the 25th of April, 1625, and was directed to the commander of each plantation.¹⁴

To the gathering which came together pursuant to this call, presumably on the 10th of May, the term “Convention” has been applied. The paper drawn up by it, preserved in the British Public Record Office, has been given a place in this book among the papers of the General Assembly, though, technically speaking, it has no title to be placed here. It is a petition to the king, and shows clearly the wish of the people of Virginia to be allowed to have a representative assembly and their objection to the king’s making a monopoly of the tobacco trade. The monopoly was spoken of by them as “the late pernicious contract.” The Convention probably did nothing beyond drawing up this petition to the king and electing Sir George Yeardley, former governor, as the agent of the Colony to proceed to England and present it to his majesty.¹⁵

There may have been other conventions held in the time intervening between the assumption of the government by the crown and the allowance of general assemblies by the crown—in the latter part of 1627—but no definite records of them have been preserved.

General Assembly of 1627/28.

THE first General Assembly of Virginia which met after the revocation of the charter was called together at the express command of the king in March 1627/28. The date of the most important paper drawn up by the General Assembly is March 26, 1628, and it is a paper of such length and deals principally with a question of such great importance to the Colony that several days must have been consumed in its drafting and consideration. It seems safe to say, then, that the Assembly met some days before March 25, and, accordingly, in the year 1627 (old style).

As usual for this early period, the Journal has been lost. At the same time, no laws or orders passed at this session have been preserved. The papers that have come down, however, are extremely interesting, and the last one printed in this book, namely, the commission of the General Assembly to Sir Francis Wyatt, Mr. Edward Bennett, and Mr. Michael Marshart, directing them to take care in England of the interests of the planters of Virginia in the matter of the monopoly of the trade in tobacco, which the king wished to take to himself, seems to have been overlooked heretofore by writers on this period of Virginia history. The commission is here printed, for the first time, from a contemporary copy—evidently the original official copy kept in Virginia—in the Library of Congress. Since it is not a paper directed to the officials in England, no copy of it is, of course, in the British Public Record Office. Of the other papers of the session, there are copies both in the Public Record Office and in the Library of Congress, those in the former repository being the actual official papers sent to England and those in the latter the official copies kept in Virginia. The text given in this book follows the copies in the Public Record Office—or, more immediately, the “Bancroft Transcripts.”

¹⁴ It is printed in the “Virginia Magazine of History and Biography,” XXIII, 14, from the original “Minutes of the Council and General Court of Virginia,” in the Library of Congress.

¹⁵ “First Republic in America,” 642.

It was owing to the desire of the king to monopolize the trade in tobacco, and to his thought that this could be probably more thoroughly effected by a law passed by the representatives of the planters than by a proclamation, that the General Assembly was ordered to be convened. The Assembly, however, was by no means inclined to accede to the king's terms.¹⁶

General Assembly of 1629.

THE Assembly of 1629 began its meeting the 16th of October, as is distinctly stated in the manuscript which is the final source of the text, but it cannot be said how long the session continued, since no further date is given. The proceedings of this Assembly are printed in Hening, and from Hening the text in this book has been copied. This process was much simpler than to have a copy of the original made. And it has not, it is believed, impaired the authenticity or accuracy of the text, for a careful comparison of Hening with the original manuscript in the Library of Congress¹⁷ was made by the editor of this volume, and Hening's accuracy found to be most commendable. In fact, Hening now has a better text than the Library of Congress manuscript, for the reason that that manuscript, faded and frayed and defective in Hening's time, is now in even worse condition, one hundred years and more having elapsed since Hening's use of it. In one respect, however, the present text is closer to the original than is the text in Hening: the chapter headings inserted by Hening have been discarded.

Hening was inclined to think that he was printing the proceedings, or Journal, of the Assembly, rather than the acts, for he says as much on page 139 of Vol. I; still he inserted, “for the convenience of reference,” he says, the words “act 1,” “act 2,” etc., at the beginning of the paragraphs of the manuscript when printed. The proceedings are not, however, claimed to be a true Journal. They are, rather, similar to the report of the proceedings of the first Assembly made by John Pory. The list of members of the Assembly is not printed in this book in connection with the proceedings, but is given with the other lists of members in the front part of the book.

It will be noticed that at this time the members of the House of Burgesses and the members of the Council, with the governor, still sat together. The wording of the proceedings all the way through shows this beyond a doubt.

¹⁷ This manuscript is believed to be the official record preserved by the Clerk of the House of Burgesses. It is the source of the acts given in Hening for the sessions through August, 1633.

General Affembly of 1629/30.

THIS Affembly met the 24th of March, 1629/30, and continued in feffion certainly for feveral days, but for how many it is impoffible to fay. No record of the Affembly has been preferved other than that printed as Acts of Affembly in Hening, I, 147-153, from a manufcript now in the Library of Congrefs. At this early date the art of keeping journals and drawing up laws was not highly developed. The journals of the daily proceedings, if written out, were probably confidered of little permanent importance, and confequently were foon loft. The important thing was to keep a record of the refults actually attained, that is, the petitions and other papers drawn up, and the acts and orders paffed, and there was at the ftart little diftinction, if any, between thefe two kinds of enactments. Indeed, in the early days the formula "it is ordered" or "it is thought fit" ufually appears in the cafe of all enactments, variations, however, being met with. It was not until the 1643/44 feffion, if we may venture on a ftatement from the infufficient material left, that the form "it is enacted," or "be it enacted," became eftablifhed as the normal form for ufe in an act, or law, "it is ordered" having been referved for ufe in orders.

The defign of the writer of the manufcript from which Hening copied what is given on pp. 147-153 of his firft volume—and this writer was probably the clerk of the Affembly, for if the manufcript is not the original official record, it is certainly a contemporary copy and one probably made by the clerk—was to preferve what we fhould now call the Acts of Affembly and not the Journal of the Houfe, or, as it would have been at that time, there being only one chamber, Journal of the General Affembly. For this reafon the material is not printed in this volume, though it muft be admitted that fome of it bears a clofe refemblance to journal material. It muft be admitted, alfo, that the line of demarcation between the material for this feffion and that for the feffion before, printed in this volume, is but faint. However, from this time on the wording of the acts becomes more and more expert, and lefs and lefs matter of a journaliftic nature appears. Beginning with the prefent feffion the enactments given by Hening as acts will not be found printed in this volume—with one or two exceptions where Hening is in error in claffification, or where the paper, though called an act by the Affembly, was in reality defigned to be fomething in addition.¹⁸

Grand Affembly of 1631/32.

THIS Affembly met the 21ft of February, 1631/32, and continued in feffion through the fixth of March. The acts of the feffion are all given in Hening, I, 155-177, and no Journal has been handed down. The manufcript, however, containing the acts differs from other fimilar manufcripts, in that it gives the different days on which the various acts were paffed, and alfo the day of adjournment. This has made it poffible to give the limiting dates of the feffion. The manufcript, alfo, has the two following ftatements of a journaliftic nature inferted juft after the lift of names of the Burgeffes and before the acts:

"The oathes of fupremacy and allegiance were in the firft place adminiftered to the Governor and Councell and to all the above named burgeffes in like manner.

In the afternoone.

"The Commiffion from his majestie nowe in force was read before the whole bodie of the Affembly."

This is the laft manufcript containing the Acts of Affembly that has in it fentences of the character quoted above.

¹⁸ See pp. 66-69.

That the Council and the Burgeffes ftill fat together appears from the wording of Act XVIII, in reference to attendance on divine fervices, which is, in part: "It is ordered, that all the Counfell and burgiffes of the affembly fhall, in the morninge, be prefent at devine fervice, in the roome where they fit, at the third beatinge of the drum, * * * "

However, the Burgeffes were certainly developing an independent confcioufnefs, for the one document of the feffion handed down to us—probably the only one drawn up—was the work of the Burgeffes alone, the governor and Council writing one of their own bearing on the fame fubject and directed to the fame body. The paper of the Burgeffes is given on pages 55 and 56 of this volume; that of the governor and Council, in the Appendix.

Thefe two papers are designated, the one as the petition of the Houfe of Burgeffes and the other as the letter of the governor and Council to the Privy Council.¹⁹ This, on further confideration, feems to be an error. They were, more probably, directed to the commiffioners appointed by the Privy Council the latter part of June, 1631, to inquire into Virginia affairs.²⁰ They are, however, in the "Randolph Manuscript" and the "Bland Manuscript" taken to have been directed to the Privy Council—that is, the only one of them (the petition of the Burgeffes) of which an abftract is given in thefe manu-fcripts, is fo affigned.²¹

Inftead of the term "General Affembly," "Grand Affembly" makes its appearance for the firft time at this feffion, a term to remain in ufe till the feffion held in 1680. There feems to be no fpecial reafon for the change, the two terms being exactly fynon-ymous. It happened, however, that the paper authorizing Governor Harvey to call legiflative affemblies ufed the term "Grand Affembly,"²² which ufrage was followed in England until 1680 and confequently in Virginia. In fact, Harvey's firft Affembly, that held in March, 1629/30, fhould on this principle have been called the "Grand Affembly," but the clerk made the miftake of ufing the designation "General Affembly" up to that time in vogue.

¹⁹ Both are printed from the original records, now in the Library of Congrefs.

²⁰ For the names of thefe commiffioners, fee Neill's "Virginia Carolorum," p. 85.

The "Randolph Manuscript," fo called becaufe it was at one time owned by John Randolph, of Roanoke, is now the property of the Virginia Hiftorical Society. It is an eighteenth century copy of the "Bland Manuscript," made by an expert copyift, who did his work well, though fome unimportant miftakes have, indeed, been difcovered.

When the prefent volume of "Journals of the Houfe of Burgeffes" comes from the prefs, all the material in the "Bland Manuscript" will, it is thought, have been publifhed. Stith, in the appendix to his "Hiftory of the Firft Difcovery and Settlement of Virginia," Williamfburg, 1747, made a beginning of publication, and this work has been going on, intermittently, ever fince. The laws, moft of the orders, and many of the paragraphs copied, either in extenfo or by abftract, from the early Journals of the Houfe of Burgeffes, were printed by Hening, and fuch of this material as Hening failed to include, with the longer papers not elfewhere printed, has been, with a few exceptions, printed in the "Virginia Magazine of Hiftory and Biography." The immediate fource of the text of the "Virginia Magazine of Hiftory and Biography" was, however, the "Randolph Manuscript."

For fuller information in reference to the "Bland Manuscript" and the "Randolph Manuscript," fee the "Records of the Virginia Company," Introduction, pp. 48-54, and the "Virginia Magazine of Hiftory and Biog-raphy," XV, pp. 390, 391.

SESSIONS were held during this period almost every year, but about some of them very little is known. For the session which began the fourth of September, 1632—the date of its close is not known—the laws are given in Hening, I, 178-202, from the original records, referred to above, now in the Library of Congress. It is also known that this Assembly took depositions as to the character of the government of the Colony under the Virginia Company of London,²¹ but the records have been lost.

The laws passed by the Assembly at its session beginning the first of February 1632/33 are printed in Hening, I, 202-209. This Assembly held a second session, which began the 21st of August, 1633, and the laws passed at this session are printed on pages 209-222 of Vol. I of Hening.²² That this was the second session of the Assembly that met in its first session in February, 1632/33, rather than the first session of a new Assembly, is inferred from the fact that the manuscript does not give before the text of the laws the names of the members of the Grand Assembly, as is done elsewhere in this manuscript and in others giving laws. It was customary in these manuscripts to give the names of the members of the General Assembly whenever a new Assembly was convened, but not when an old Assembly met in a new session. It must be remembered that copies of the laws passed at each session were sent to the various counties of the Colony—one copy to each county. Though surprisingly few of these are now in existence, a sufficient number are left to show what must have been the custom in this respect, certainly in later times. It is possible, of course, that the statement cannot be made with certainty for a time as early as 1633.

According to an abstract in the "Bland Manuscript" and in the "Randolph Manuscript," printed in Hening, I, 223, and in the "Virginia Magazine of History and Biography," XIII, 391, a meeting of the Assembly was held in 1634. The month is not given. The abstract has to do with the hours of attendance of the secretary of the Colony in his office. At this meeting, also, the Burgesses drew up a petition to the king arguing against a proposal from his majesty that he make a monopoly of the tobacco trade, but no copy of this paper has come down, owing to the fact that the governor, the autocratic Sir John Harvey, at this time riding for a fall and the next year "thrust from his government," would not forward it to the home authorities, and the secretary of the Colony and the clerk of the Assembly were afraid to give out attested copies.²³ The titles of several of the other acts passed at this session are also known from a section of Act XXXVIII of the session of 1641/42, which is as follows:

"That one Act made in the yeare 1634 requiringe noe wine nor stronge waters to be sould w'thout licence; That one Act made An^o 1634 comandinge plantinge of vines; That one Act made in An^o 1634 in forcinge noe gould nor silver to bee worne on apparell but by Counsellors and there wives; That one Act made in An^o 1634 bindinge seamen not to trade here goods w'thout reddye pay; That one Act made in An^o 1634 entitled a restraint from plantinge; That one Act An^o 1634 comandinge Left. Popeley to make good the Middle plantation; That one Act made in An^o 1634 requiringe an office to bee built for the Secretary, bee from henceforth repealed."

The laws for this session of 1641/42, from which the above is quoted, were not found by Hening. Many of them have, however, been printed in the "Virginia Magazine of History and Biography," IX, 52-59. The preceding paragraph is to be found on page 57.

²¹ See p. 66 of the present volume.

²² Hening's source for the laws of both these sessions is still the original records.

²³ See Wertenbaker's "Virginia under the Stuarts," p. 74; also, "The Virginia Magazine of History and Biography," I, 416.

An Assembly probably convened on the 20th of February, 1634/35, for Governor Harvey in a letter dated January 27, 1634/5, to Secretary Windebank, said that one had been called for that date,²⁶ but nothing is known as to its proceedings.

On the 7th of May, 1635, an Assembly came together to receive complaints against Governor Harvey.²⁷ This Assembly was called together by the Council and not by the governor and Council, and when it met, the governor, now practically a prisoner, sent a letter stating that the meeting was illegal and ordering that it be discontinued. This order, however, was not obeyed. The Council proceeded to the election of a successor for Harvey, and the Burgesses were called on to ratify the choice. This was done with enthusiasm. The Assembly then drew up a paper directed to the Lords Commissioners of Plantations, the body in England then having charge of Colonial affairs, in which was given a catalogue of Harvey's misdeeds as governor. This paper has not come down to us. It happened that Governor Harvey went to England in the same ship which conveyed Thomas Harwood, the bearer of the paper; and as soon as a landing was made at Plymouth, he prevailed on the mayor of the city to have the paper, with others, taken from Harwood and delivered to him. He then went on his way rejoicing to London, where he secured an order restoring him to his government.²⁸

Another Assembly convened in February, 1635/6, and passed acts only a reference to one of which has been preserved, in a letter written by the governor and Council in 1638(?) to the authorities in England. This act was one for restraining excessive purchases of wine, and the governor and Council in 1638(?) wrote that it ought to be revived.²⁹

On the 20th of February, 1636/7, an Assembly met and passed a good many laws, but only one of these has been preserved, namely, the 20th act of the session, the object of which was to erect an office the holder of which should keep a register of all tobacco and other commodities exported. This was the first Assembly held by Governor Harvey after his return to Virginia as governor.³⁰ In a paragraph of Act XXXVIII, however, of the 1641/42 session several other acts of this session are mentioned. The paragraph is as follows:

"That one Act made in An^o 1636 for wine and mulberry trees; That one act made in An^o 1636 givinge lib'tie for attached goods to bee prayed and fould; That one Act made in An^o 1636 forbiddinge transportinge of Cattle; That one Act made in An^o 1636 for plantinge Toba. w'thout restraint; That one Act made in An^o 1636 ratinge sheriffes fees; That one Act made in An^o 1636 requiringe 4^{1b} p. pole for the Mayntenance of a Capt. of a forte and Guarders; That one Act made in An^o 1636 ratinge fees of officers for regestringe Toba. inspected; That an Act made in the yeare 1636 ratinge surveyors fees; That an Act made in An^o 1636 requiringe a wayter to be putt on board ships; That one Act made in An^o 1636 freeing Counfellors from taxes, bee repealed."³¹

Grand Assembly of 1637/8.

THIS Assembly met in February, 1637/38, and remained in session certainly for some time, since important business was transacted, but the exact time cannot be stated. The acts passed by this Assembly have not been handed down, but that one of these had for its object the regulation of both the quality and quantity of tobacco raised in Virginia, is learned from a letter written by governor Harvey to Secretary Windebank dated March 22, 1638.³² At least two other acts of the session, with the one referred to by Governor Harvey are mentioned in Act XXXVIII of the session of 1641/2, in the following paragraph:

“That one Act made in the yeare 1637 for regulatinge of Toba.; That one Act made in the yeare 1637 requiringe younge freemen to feat Chickahominy; That one Act made in An^o 1637 refrayninge Inholders to fell ftrong waters, be repealed.”³³

The fullest account of the proceedings of this Assembly is to be found in the letter written by Richard Kemp, secretary of Virginia, to Secretary Windebank, dated April 6, 1638, with which he sent the five documents of the Assembly printed in this volume. This letter, on account of its importance, is printed in the Appendix of this volume.

Of the five documents³⁴ of the Assembly, one contains the propositions made by the king to the General Assembly, especially in regard to tobacco, of which the king wished to make a monopoly. It will be seen from Secretary Kemp's letter that the governor did not communicate these propositions in a speech to the Assembly at the beginning of the session, as would have been done later, but that this duty was performed by Secretary Kemp himself. We have no means of knowing whether at this early date it was the custom for the governor to open the sessions of the Assembly with a speech, outlining the work to be done, but presumably it was.

Three of the other four documents are the work of the Burgesses, and one proceeds from the governor and Council. There is no paper of the whole Assembly. The documents present to our view the fight, later to become so familiar, of the governor and Council in active support of the propositions sent over and of the House of Burgesses in determined opposition. It should be remembered, in explanation of this situation, that the members of the Council who had taken part in the expulsion of Sir John Harvey from the government more than two years before this had been deposed from office and others put in their places. The Council was at this time thoroughly under the control of the governor.

Both the wording of these papers and the fact that they are communications passing between the governor and Council on one side and the House of Burgesses on the other seem to show that by this time the two chambers sat separately. It may be, however, that in the transaction of routine business and in the passing of laws the members of the Council, the governor, and the members of the House of Burgesses all sat together, as formerly, but that for this important matter, in reference to which the two classes of members were solidly—so far as it appears—opposed to each other, it was thought best that at least a temporary separation should take place.

Grand Assembly of 1639.

THAT an Assembly met in October, 1639, is shown by Act XXIX of the Assembly of January, 1639/40, the abridgment of which given in Hening is as follows: "The act of 22d 8br. last concerning burgiffes charges repealed, and the act in 1636 revived instead thereof."³⁵ It is also shown by a paragraph of Act XXXVIII of the 1641/42 session, which is as follows:

"That one Act made in An^o 1639 entitled an Act for Contract for freight; That one Act made in An^o 1639 ratinge and vallewinge Tobaccoe; That one Act made in An^o 1639 giveinge lib'tie to transporte Cattle, bee repealed."³⁶ It is also shown by Act LX of the session of 1642/3. This is, in fact, the act of 1639 re-enacted.³⁷

It was probably at this session, too, that George Sandys was appointed agent for the Colony to attempt to secure a change in the form of government, since 1639 is the year given in a paper drawn up by the 1641/42-42 Assembly.³⁸ It is barely possible, however, that the Assembly referred to may have been the 1639/40 Assembly. Unfortunately, the instructions given Sandys have not been preserved.

Grand Assembly of 1639/40.

THIS Assembly met the 6th of January, 1639/40, and passed at least thirty-four acts, but no record of the proceedings of the Assembly has been handed down, nor has any document drawn up by it been preserved. *Hening*³⁹ gives abstracts of the acts, copied from the "Bland Manuscript;" and in the "Virginia Magazine of History and Biography," Vol. II, p. 99, is found a list of members of the Assembly, printed "from a copy made by the late Conway Robinson from the original (now destroyed) in the office of the General Court."⁴⁰

Grand Assembly of 1640/41.

AN ASSEMBLY convened in January, 1640/41, for there is a reference to one of the acts of that session in Act LXXII of the session of the Assembly held in March, 1642/43. There is a reference to another of the laws in Act XXXVIII of the laws of 1641/42, the paragraph being as follows:

"That one Act made in An^o 1640 prefige toba., bee repealed."⁴¹

Grand Assembly of 1641/42-42.

THIS Assembly met the 12th of January, 1641/42, and continued in session for some time—exactly how long, it is not possible to say—when it was adjourned to the first of April.⁴¹ During the first period of its activity there were passed the laws printed on pp. 52-59 of Vol. IX of the “Virginia Magazine of History and Biography”—none of these laws is printed in Hening—and other laws which have not been found, and a great deal of time was spent in the discussion of other matters, especially of the most important one, probably, of the session, namely, the question of the renewal of the charter of the London Company, then being agitated in England and Virginia. This much may be inferred from the last act passed at that time, that is, Act XL, which was the act adjourning the Assembly to the first of April, and from the fact that the paper expressing the final conclusions of the Assembly on the subject, printed in this book on pp. 66-69,⁴² was ordered to be entered as the 21st act of the session. This seems to indicate that the other laws of the first part of the session were all completed through Act XL—though copies of Acts II-XXX, with the exception of this Act XXI, have not been preserved—and that it was thought best, so far as this very important one was concerned, to await the arrival of the new governor, Sir William Berkeley, shortly expected. The paper is, primarily, a statement of the reasons why the majority in the Assembly did not favor the rechartering of the London Company or any similar company, but it is also a law, in that it was ordered to be recorded as such and in that the last two paragraphs contain real enactments, prescribing punishment for any who might in the future endeavor to have a company chartered for the government of Virginia, and adjourning the session again till the second of June.

The formal adoption of this important paper seems to have been the only business transacted at the April meeting of the Assembly. Only twenty-one Burgesses signed it, presumably, however, the full membership of the House present. At this time the counties were allowed representation in proportion, roughly speaking, to their population, and the total membership of the House, from the ten counties and one town in the Colony, was about thirty-six.⁴³

At the January meeting of the Assembly now under consideration there were thirty members of the House of Burgesses present, of whom nine were from James City. A comparison of the list of members present in April with the list of those present in January shows that only eleven attended both sessions. Ten new names appear on the April list. This seems to show either that some of those elected before the first meeting of the Assembly in January failed to attend or that in the period elapsing between the two meetings new members were elected. Possibly it shows both of these things, new members being elected in place of the old ones who had died or become incapacitated.

The Assembly met again, pursuant to adjournment, on the second of June and remained in session, presumably, till the first of July, for that is the date of the second paper of this Assembly, printed in this volume, entitled “The Remonstrance of the Grand Assembly,” drawn up in order to explain to the country why the session had been such a long one. This paper names in a general way the many important things that had been done, several of them, undoubtedly, attended to in the month between the ⁴¹ There is some uncertainty as to the date. The act adjourning the Assembly, printed in the “Virginia Magazine of History and Biography,” IX, 58, has the 18th. The first day of the session after the adjournment the important “Declaration against the Company to be Entered as the 21st Act” was passed. In the reply of the king to this its date is given as the 1st of April. Hence the first of April is the date given above.

⁴³ Data are insufficient to allow one to make a positive statement. Laws on the subject before the 1645 law have not been preserved, and the lists of members that have been handed down give only the names of those actually present at the meetings.

2nd of June and the 1st of July, though copies of the laws passed have not been found.⁴⁵ The wording of the last paragraph of this paper seems to show that a large outlay of money had to be made for some purpose. This was undoubtedly to pay the expenses of the representative or representatives of the Colony who took the "Declaration against the Company" to the king, with the petition sent at the same time, and possibly money with which to purchase the king's favor or that of his ministers.

At the opening of this assembly Sir Francis Wyatt was governor, he having been sent over to succeed Governor Harvey in the latter part of 1639, and at its close Sir William Berkeley had assumed the reins of government. Berkeley came over some time before the first of April, and he signed the Declaration, taking the side of the majority of the Assembly and the country.

The papers were duly presented to the king, who on July 5 sent from York a most favorable reply, directed to the governor, Council, and Assembly.⁴⁶ Since the paper is so directed, it is printed in this volume as an Assembly document, and is not relegated to the Appendix as illustrative or cognate material. The Journal of the next session of Assembly in all probability contained it.

Grand Assembly of 1642/43.

THIS Assembly met the 2nd of March, 1642/43, and continued in session for some time, for it passed seventy-three laws, accomplished, in fact, a revival of the whole body of the laws; but no record of its proceedings has been found, nor any of the documents of the session. The laws are all printed in Hening, I, 238-282, from a manuscript volume now in the Library of Congress, which was purchased with the library of Thomas Jefferson.⁴⁷

Grand Assembly of 1643/44-44.

THIS Assembly met first on the 2nd of March, 1643/44, but as soon as the oaths of allegiance and supremacy were administered to the members, it was adjourned to the 1st of June, 1644. Then it met and passed the laws and orders of the session, the former of which have largely to do with means of protection against the Indians, who had recently, under the leadership of Opecananough, accomplished an extensive massacre of the colonists. Neither the laws nor the orders of the session are found in Hening, but are printed in the "Virginia Magazine of History and Biography," XXIII, 228-238, from a manuscript recently discovered in the office of the clerk of the court of Norfolk County in Portsmouth, Virginia. In this manuscript the laws and the orders are written in separate lists, which shows that by this time a clear distinction was made between the two. The orders are from this time on always introduced by the formula "it is ordered" or "be it ordered." In accordance with the precedent set in the volume of the "Journals of the House of Burgesses" immediately preceding this one, the orders of the Assembly from this session on are printed in the present volume.

The orders of the June, 1644, session will be found on page 71. They were passed on June 3. The session lasted only three days. It will be seen from the third order passed that the Assembly was not dissolved, but merely adjourned till the 15th of the following November.

⁴⁵ We see, however, in the laws of a later session several references to laws passed at this session, namely, in the following acts of the March, 1642/3, session: XLVIII, LIII, LIV, LV, LVI, LVII, LVIII, LIX, LXII, LXVII, LXIX.

Grand Assembly of October, 1644.

BEFORE the adjourned session of the Assembly of June, 1644, could be held, an entirely new Assembly was called together by Acting Governor Richard Kemp and the Council. Governor Berkeley had gone to England to get assistance in the emergency occasioned by the Indian massacre, and Secretary Kemp was acting-governor in his place. The laws passed at this session are printed in Hening.⁴⁸ The only order of the session—or the only order preserved—is printed in this volume on page 72, from the “Virginia Magazine of History and Biography,” whose source is the “Norfolk County Manuscript.”

Grand Assembly of February, 1644/45.

THE next Assembly called held a session in February, 1644/45, beginning the 17th of the month. The acts are all given in Hening,⁴⁹ with the exception of one, which is found in the “Virginia Magazine of History and Biography,” XXIII, 239, taken from the “Norfolk County Manuscript.”

Grand Assembly of 1645/46.

ANOTHER Assembly was called to meet on the 20th of November, 1645. By this time Governor Berkeley had returned from England and was in his proper place as chief of the Colony. All the laws passed at this session are found in Hening,⁵⁰ except one, and this is printed on page 240 of Vol. XXIII of the “Virginia Magazine of History and Biography,” from the “Norfolk County Manuscript.”

The Assembly was not dissolved at the close of the session, the date of which cannot be given, but prorogued until the first of the following March. Meeting at that time, it passed twenty-five acts, all of which are given in Hening,⁵¹ and at least two orders, which are printed in this volume⁵² from the “Virginia Magazine of History and Biography,” XXIII, 241, whose source is the “Norfolk County Manuscript.”

Grand Assembly of October, 1646.

ANEW Assembly was called to meet on the 5th of October, 1646. It is not known how long the session lasted. Twenty-nine laws were passed, all of which are given in Hening.⁵³ However, Act XXVIII, which is the levy act of the session, is not given in full, that is, the amounts to be raised in each county and the amounts to be disbursed in each county are not given. These amounts, however, for Lower Norfolk County, are to be found in the “Virginia Magazine of History and Biography,” copied from the “Norfolk County Manuscript.”⁵⁴

⁵¹ See Hening, I, 309-321.

⁵² See p. 73.

⁵³ See Hening, I, 323-338.

⁵⁴ At that time in Virginia history a manuscript copy of the laws and orders passed at each session of the General Assembly was sent to the clerk of the county court in each county—that is, of all the general laws, but of the special and local laws and of the orders there were copies only of such as would be of local interest in the county to which any particular manuscript was sent. It was felt that it would not be necessary to send, for example, the private acts and orders affecting inhabitants of Northumberland County to Henrico or Charles City, or vice versa. It happens, accordingly, that some of these manuscript copies contain laws and orders not found in others.

Grand Assembly of 1647/48.

THIS Assembly met first the 5th of April and continued in session long enough to pass the two acts given in Hening on pp. 340-341 of volume one, and to draw up and adopt the "Declaration concerning the Dutch Trade" printed in this volume of the Journals on p. 74. Hening erroneously assigns the two acts to the November session of the Assembly. The correct date is ascertained from the "Norfolk County Manuscript."

The second act of this session is in part as follows:

"Be it enacted by this present Grand Assembly that the Assembly be adjourned until the first day of October next, and that all members of both houses do then give their attendance at James City without any pretence whatsoever to the contrary, * * *"⁵⁵

If the Assembly came together at that time, however, and presumably it did, for the law is plain, and the governor would hardly have prorogued the Assembly to a later date in the face of the law, it seems to have come together only long enough to pass an order to adjourn till the 3d of November. Meeting at that time, it passed the acts printed in Vol. I of Hening on pp. 341-352, and the acts and parts of acts printed on pp. 247-255 of Vol. XXIII of the "Virginia Magazine of History and Biography," from the "Norfolk County Manuscript."

This Assembly held another session, beginning the 12th of October, 1648, the laws passed at which are printed on pp. 352-357 of Vol. I of Hening.

The statement that this session was an adjourned session of the Assembly of 1647, and not the first session of a new Assembly, is made solely on the ground that no list of members of the Assembly is given in the manuscript before the acts. As has been stated, in the case of new assemblies the manuscript copies of the session laws give, invariably, it is supposed, the names of the members of the Assembly, but do not give them in the case of adjourned sessions. In the present case no list appears.

The last act of this session adjourned the Assembly to the 10th of February, 1649/50; but if any meeting took place at that time, no record has been preserved.

Grand Assembly of 1649.

THIS Assembly met the 10th of October, 1649, and passed the laws printed in Hening on pp. 359-362 of Vol. I., but nothing further is known in reference to it. This was the first assembly meeting after the execution of Charles I.

Grand Assembly of 1650/51.

THE English Parliament, on October 3, 1650,⁵⁶ passed an act forbidding all trade whatsoever between Virginia and the outside world, with the object, of course, of compelling Virginia to submit to Parliamentary control, the Colony having up to this time been most recalcitrant.⁵⁷ But the governor of Virginia and the majority of the Council and of the House of Burgesses looked upon the act as a threat which it would be impossible to enforce, and in a session of the Assembly that met in March, 1650/51, answered most defiantly. The speech of the governor to the Assembly and the declaration drawn up by the Assembly are printed from the "Virginia Magazine of History and Biography," I, 75-81, whose source was a copy in the Virginia State Library of a pamphlet in the Library of Trinity College, Dublin, Ireland.

⁵⁵ Hening, I, p. 341.

⁵⁶ The date as given in the Declaration of the Assembly printed on p. 76 of this volume is an error. It should be 1650 and not 1651.

⁵⁷ See the first act passed by the Assembly of 1649, Hening, I, 359-361.

The paragraph giving the proceedings of the Assembly after the governor had finished his fiery speech is as follows:

"This speech being ended the pretended Act of Parliament was publicly read in the Assembly where upon (at the motion of the House of Commons to the Governour and Councill) this following vindication was unanimously agreed on."

This seems to indicate that the House of Burgeffes—here for the first time called "House of Commons," as it was occasionally afterward—at this session sat as a separate chamber. The meaning of the passage is taken to be that the act of Parliament was read to the two chambers in joint session and that the "vindication" "unanimously agreed on" was unanimously agreed on first by the House and then by the governor and Council.

Grand Assembly of 1651-1651/52.

A VERY interesting historical paper found among the records of Northampton County seems to indicate that a session of the Assembly was held in September, 1651, but of this session nothing further is known. One paragraph of the paper is as follows:

"Imprimis. Wee the Inhabitants of Northampton Countie doe complayne that from tyme to tyme (particular yeares past) wee have been submitted & bine obedient unto the paymt of publeq Taxacons. Butt after ye yeare 1647, since yt tyme wee Conceive & have found that ye taxes were very weightie. But in a more espetiall manner (undr favor) wee are very sensible of the Taxacon of fforty fixe pounds of tobacco ꝑ poli (this present yeare). And desire yt ye same bee taken off ye charge of ye Countie; furthermore wee alledge that after 1647, wee did understand & suppose or [our] Countie or Northampton to bee disioynted & sequestered from ye rest of Virginia. Therefore that Llawe wch requireth & inioyneth Taxacons from us to bee Arbitrarye & illegall; fforasmuch as wee had neither summons for Ellecon of Burgeffes nor voyce in their Assemblye (during the time aforesd) but only the Singlur Burgeffs in September, Ano., 1651. Wee conceive that wee may Lawfullie pteft agt the Pceedings in the Act of Assemblye for publiq Taxacons wch have relacon to Northampton Countie since ye year 1647."

The paper as a whole consists of a set of instructions drawn up for the guidance of the Burgeffes for Northampton County in the April, 1652, Grand Assembly by a committee of the people of the county. It is dated March 30, 1652. It is printed in full in Jennings Cropper Wise's "Early History of the Eastern Shore of Virginia," pp. 139-140.

The Assembly found out, contrary to expectations, that the Parliamentary government was prepared to force the Colony to capitulate. An English fleet of sufficient strength failed up the James in the early spring of 1651/52, and the governor, after an appropriate show of resistance, very sensibly yielded. He called the members of the Assembly together, however,⁵⁸ and proceedings reminding one of the proceedings taking place in the case of two equal powers were carried through between the Virginia Assembly and the Parliamentary Commissioners, two out of three of them being themselves, indeed, Virginians. The Commissioners allowed the Assembly the most lenient terms, and the Colony acknowledged the supremacy of Parliament. The terms agreed on are contained in the paper entitled "Articles at the Surrender of the Country," agreed upon by the Commissioners and the Assembly, and in the subsidiary paper agreed upon by the Commissioners and the governor and Council, its articles having to do with the rights and privileges of Sir William Berkeley and the members of his Council under the new government that was to be set up. Both the papers are printed in this volume—on pages 79-81—the first of manifest right, it being in the strictest sense a document of the Assembly, and the second, though not a document of the whole Assembly, only a document of one branch of the Assembly, having so close a connection with that document that it would seem improper to separate the two. The proclamation of indemnity, called an "Act of Indemnity," issued by the Commissioners, is also given, to complete the story. It was, undoubtedly, communicated to and read before the Assembly, in this way becoming a document of the Assembly in much the same sense in which the letter of Charles I to the Assembly in 1642 became an Assembly document.

⁵⁸ It seems probable that this was not a new Assembly, but the Assembly which had already held a session in 1651.

Grand Assembly of April-May, 1652.

THE Parliamentary Commissioners, having been given power by the Council of State in England to call a meeting of the Burgesses, proceeded to do so, in order to draw up a plan of government for the Colony till the government should be definitely arranged by the authorities in England, at this time, the spring of 1652, the Parliament, with the Council of State acting as an executive. This House of Burgesses and the Commissioners acting with them formed a kind of constitutional convention, and their work, owing to the peculiar situation of affairs existing in England, was allowed to stand, with little interference, till the close of the commonwealth period. According to the framework drawn up, the Burgesses were to be the seat of power, electing both the governor and the members of the Council, who were to assist the governor in executive and judicial matters. The Assembly at the start consisted of the members of the House of Burgesses and the Parliamentary Commissioners, and then, after the governor and members of the Council had been elected, of these in addition. It seems to have been unicameral throughout.

The Assembly met the 26th of April and remained in session for some time, though the exact date of adjournment cannot be given. It does not seem that any laws in the usual sense were passed, most of the time of the Assembly being taken up with constitutional questions. At least one petition, however, was handed in to the Assembly, which was granted. Unfortunately, the full proceedings have not been handed down, but the paragraphs that have been preserved, being dated and having in places somewhat of the journalistic style, have more of the appearance of a true journal than any proceedings going before.

The proceedings as printed in this volume are from two different original sources, namely, the Library of Congress "Randolph Manuscript," mentioned before, and a manuscript in the Library of Congress in the handwriting of Thomas Jefferson, called by Hening the "Jefferson Manuscript."⁵⁹ Most of what appears in these two manuscripts concerning the present session is printed in Hening;⁶⁰ but one paragraph in the "Randolph Manuscript" not used by Hening is found in the "Virginia Magazine of History and Biography," VIII, 386, 387.

⁵⁹ Jefferson wrote at the beginning of this manuscript, "Copied from Mercer's Ms. by Thos. Jefferson." The Mercer here spoken of was probably the distinguished lawyer, John Mercer, of "Marlborough," the author of the "Abridgement of the Laws of Virginia," the first edition of which was published at Williamsburg in 1737. The manuscript has in it some of the acts and orders passed at the several sessions from April 1652 to March, 1660/61, being much fuller for the last session covered than for any other.

⁶⁰ See Hening, I, 371-373.

Grand Assembly of November, 1652.

THE Assembly met again on the 25th of November, 1652. It does not seem to have passed any laws in the usual form—at any rate none of these has been handed down. It, however, considered a number of questions of importance, and gave judgment in reference to them by means of orders. Especially are the orders in the law cases, in which the Assembly acted as the court of last resort in Virginia, of interest. Appeals to the Assembly in law cases had been allowed for some time,⁶¹ and no doubt many cases had come up, but this is the first session for which we have record of them.

The sources of information for this session are the same as those given for the preceding session.

Grand Assembly of 1653.

THIS Assembly met the 5th of July and continued in session certainly till the 13th of the month, that being the last date given in such of the proceedings of the Assembly as have been preserved, and probably much longer.

The sources of the text of the proceedings printed in the present volume from Hening and the "Virginia Magazine of History and Biography" are the "Randolph Manuscript" of the Library of Congress, the "Jefferson Manuscript," and the "Bland Manuscript," the "Virginia Magazine of History and Biography" going back to the "Bland Manuscript" through the "Randolph Manuscript" of the Virginia Historical Society, which, as has been said, is a copy of the "Bland Manuscript" of the Library of Congress.

The "Bland Manuscript" is, as has also been said, a collection of transcripts and of abstracts of official Virginia records or possibly in some cases of copies of these. Usually such orders as are given are copied in full, and occasionally a few paragraphs are taken from the Journals of the several Assemblies, but, unfortunately, in no case has an entire Journal been copied, the compiler taking only such parts of the originals as seemed to him to be most important. The compiler, too, has not always done his work very satisfactorily, there being here and there evident errors in transcription, careless abstracting, and failure to copy a sufficient amount from the original records to give the full story of a transaction. The last of these faults is well illustrated in the case of the material appearing in this volume on pp. 86-88, especially that part of it giving the proceedings in the case of Captain Abraham Read. The full charge against Captain Read is given, Captain Read's acknowledgment of his errors, and the order of the Assembly in the matter, with the date. But then, without date, comes the petition of the offender, which must have been written several days after the order of the Assembly—the wording of the petition shows this—and the disposition made of the petition is entirely omitted. Having commenced with the case of Captain Read, the compiler should have been careful to give the whole story, so far as the records permitted. Despite its imperfections, however, the "Bland Manuscript" is, in the loss of the original records, of the very highest importance as a source of Virginia history.

⁶¹ See Hening, §1, 272.

Grand Assembly of 1654-55.

THIS Assembly held two sessions, one in November, 1654, and the other in the following March. The first session began on the 20th of November, but the date of its close is not known. Most of the orders and proceedings—such of them as have been preserved—are given in the present volume on pp. 93 and 94, from the sources described above. However, several of them and one or two sentences evidently from the Journal were overlooked because of a misunderstanding on the part of the editor of this volume of a statement made by Hening. This omitted material appears below. Hening says on p. 388 of Vol. I: "Here follow in the Rand. and Bl. Ms. the decisions of the Grand Assembly, in various civil actions, but they are not of sufficient importance to justify their insertion." The editor supposed from this that the "Randolph Manuscript"—that is, the "Randolph Manuscript" of the Library of Congress—and the "Bland Manuscript" had the same material which Hening omitted, and supplied in the text the material contained in the former of these manuscripts as given in the "Virginia Magazine of History and Biography," VIII, 387, 388, but an examination of the "Bland Manuscript" shows that it does in fact contain additional material. This material is, of course, also in the Virginia Historical Society "Randolph Manuscript," but it was not given in the "Virginia Magazine of History and Biography" when this periodical published such parts of the manuscript as had not already found their way into print, which was done some years after similar treatment had been given the Library of Congress "Randolph Manuscript." The editor of the "Virginia Magazine of History and Biography" probably interpreted Hening as, later, the editor of the present volume of the Journals interpreted him. Hence the paragraphs of the "Bland Manuscript" omitted by Hening appear here, it is believed, for the first time in print. They are as follows:

"It is ordered by this present Grand Assembly in the Difference between Capt. Thos. Willoughby and Bartholomew Hodgeskins that Hodgeskins the then Sheriff is no way liable to make Willoughby any satisfaction and the former proceedings against the said Willoughby of the Assembly were grounded upon very good Reasons because it appeareth that the said Willoughby was not sworn nor acted as a Counsellor of this Country before the Levy was made which he refusing to pay occasioned all the Damage which in this petition he doth pretend to.

It is Ordered that the Suit between Capt. Thos. Willowby and Coll. Francis Yeardley be Dismissed and and that Capt. Willowby allow Cofts to Coll. Yeardley.

It is ordered that Leiut. Coll. Swan is not liable to give any satisfaction to Karby Kiggan or to be further molested by him for that we find not any action Entred against the party as appeareth by Certificate under the Cl. hand of that Cnty.

It appears that Cornelius Loyd Deceased was justly Indebted by his own acknowledgement in a Bond of five hundred pounds Sterling to Edward Sanderson for which Judgment is now given.

It is Ordered that the Difference between W^m Deynes and Tho^s Purfrey be referred to the next session.

It is Ordered that M^r Francis Emperour Satisfye unto Coll. Burbage and Coll. Dew one third part of the advance laid upon the Cargoe of the Ship John and also to bear one third part of the Loss of the Goods of the Cargoe and a third part of the Charges Expended after the Sale of the ship because he hath Record'd a third part of the Cargo.

The Com. appointed to make inquiry of the dues of the Country and to proportion the Levies.

Majr. John Carter Capt. Henry Perry M^r Wm. Walters Capt. John Moon M^r John Sheapheard."

The House and the Council had by this time evidently resumed the practice of sitting separately, as is concluded from several pieces of evidence in the proceedings. The first piece of evidence is furnished by the first order given. This was passed by the House of Burgesses alone. It concerned the speaker of the House, Colonel Edward Hill, and, accordingly, it was not necessary that the Council should concur in it. The words, however, "it is therefore ordered by this house" show that there were two chambers, for, had there been only one—if the Council and the Burgesses had been fitting together—the wording would have been, as is the case with the other orders of the session, "it is ordered by the Assembly," or "the Grand Assembly." Secondly, the names of the House members of the Committee for Private Causes are given, and then the statement is made that Colonel William Clayborne, Colonel William Taylor, and Edward Diggs, Esq., were added to the committee. These three gentlemen were members of the Council. Had there been only one chamber, there would have been no distinction in naming the committeemen. In the third place, the governor sent a communication to the House stating that the governor and Council had called Mr. Edward Diggs to be a member of the Council and asking that the House, or "Assembly," as he called the House, consent to the selection. It will be remembered that the House was the source of power at this time.

The Assembly adjourned to the 20th of March, 1654/55. The items given in this volume on pp. 95-98, under the heading "Some of the Proceedings of the 1654/55 Session," were all taken by the editor of the present volume, when the text of the volume was being secured, to belong to the 1654/55 session, despite difficulties, because the Library of Congress "Randolph Manuscript," the original source of the text, has the material in this order.⁶²

On further consideration it appears to the editor that the compiler of the manuscript has in fact, however, inserted several paragraphs that do not belong to the 1654/55 session, but to the 1655/56 session. He, beyond doubt, put the acts of the March, 1655/56, session before those of the March, 1654/55, session, dating both 1655,⁶³ and in the same way has confused somewhat the two sessions so far as the orders and extracts from the Journals are concerned. Unfortunately, the "Bland Manuscript" can be of no assistance in straightening out the tangle, for the reason that this manuscript has no entries for these two sessions, except the acts for the 1655/56 session. The "Randolph Manuscript" of the Library of Congress is our sole reliance, and the text given in this volume, on pp. 95-98, follows the order of that manuscript exactly, all the items being put under the 1654/55 session. However, an examination of the individual items shows that several should probably be assigned to the 1655/56 session, the first session of a new Assembly.

The list of members of the 1654/55 session, which was an adjourned session from the preceding November,⁶⁴ must have been about the same as the list for that session, which is given in the "Randolph Manuscript" of the Library of Congress, and printed in Hening I, 386, in Stanard's "Colonial Virginia Register," pp. 71, 72, and in the present volume of the "Journals of the House of Burgesses," on p. xxii. A comparison of the names of the members of the Committee of Private Causes, the first item given, with the names of the members of the House for the November, 1654, session, and presumably for the March, 1654/55, session, shows that these do not correspond, and that accordingly this Committee of Private Causes must be for the 1655/56 session. It is true that this session of March, 1654/55, was adjourned to the following March,⁶⁵ and that the "Randolph Manuscript" gives no list of members, before the acts of the latter session, for that session, and that usually under such circumstances this would be taken to indicate that the March, 1655/56, session was a session adjourned from the March, 1654/55, session. This cannot be, however; for the acts of the December, 1656, session, as given in the "Randolph Manuscript" and ⁶² For the confusion existing in the "Randolph Manuscript" in respect to the dating of the laws for the sessions of March, 1654/55, and March, 1655/56, see Hening I, 393-395, 404, 410. This confusion and the further confusion in reference to the orders and the excerpts from the Journals are the result, of course, of the use of the "old style" in dating some of the manuscript sources of the "Randolph Manuscript" and of the "new style" in dating others, and the failure of the compiler to make allowance for this.

printed in Hening, are headed as follows: "At a Grand Assembly held at James Citty by prorogation from the 10th of March, 1655, to this instant, first of December, 1656, wherein was inacted as followeth." This shows that the March, 1655/56, session was the first session of a new Assembly; in other words, a general election had been held. Even if this evidence were lacking, the very names of the committee would warrant the assertion; for of the twelve House members of the committee only two were members of the November, 1654, session, and it is unbelievable that unless there had been a general election the membership of the House could have changed so greatly. Moreover, Colonel Thomas Dew is recorded as one of the two Council members added to this committee. Now, Colonel Dew was a member of the House at the November, 1654, session, and at the March, 1654/55, session till March 31, 1655, when he was elected by the House a member of the Council.⁶⁶

Almost certainly, then, this committee belonged to the 1655/56 session, which was the first session of a new Assembly that held its second and final session in December, 1656. By similar reasoning the Committee for the Levy and the Committee concerning the Act for Markets belong to the March, 1655/56, session, and possibly the two items in reference to Mr. John Page and Colonel John Flood. Other items, possibly—in fact, probably, for there is no reason to think that the 1655/56 session was less active than its immediate predecessor—belong to the later session, but sufficient data are not at hand for identification.

Grand Assembly of 1655/56-56.

THIS Assembly, as did the Assembly of 1654/55, held two sessions, the first in March, 1655/56, and the second in the following December. Of the first session of the Assembly sufficient has been said above. The second session began the first of December and continued certainly through the 15th—for two letters written by the Assembly bear that date—and possibly longer. It passed various acts and orders, given in the manuscripts already described, some of them in one manuscript and some in another, printed in Hening's "Statutes at Large" and the "Virginia Magazine of History and Biography,"⁶⁷ and drew up letters to Oliver Cromwell, lord protector, and John Thurlow, secretary of state, and instructions to Edward Diggs, appointed agent of the Colony in England. All the orders are printed in this book, including one classed by Hening, by oversight, as an act, as are the letters and instructions referred to above, which are printed from Burk's "History of Virginia," II, 116-117, Burk having copied them from the "Bland Manuscript."

⁶⁶ See p. 97.

⁶⁷ See Hening, I, 414-428, and the "Virginia Magazine of History and Biography," XVII, 128-132, and VIII, 390-391.

Grand Assembly of 1657/58-58.

THIS assembly met the 13th of March, 1657/58, and continued in session certainly through the 3rd of April, 1658, and possibly longer. The proceedings printed in this volume are not the full Journal of the House for this session, but they come much nearer being a full Journal than any proceedings which have gone before, and are evidently—except in the case of the few orders of the whole Assembly preserved and printed—the proceedings of the House alone.

The session was an unusually important one. At it was passed a body of revised laws, one hundred and thirty-one in number, prepared by a committee of revision appointed at the preceding session,⁶⁸ and there occurred a stiff dispute between the House of Burgesses and the governor and Council as to the relative powers of the two, the House coming off triumphant. Fortunately, the compiler of the Library of Congress "Randolph Manuscript," to which the text given in this volume goes back, gives sufficiently full extracts from the original Journal to enable the reader to get a pretty clear understanding of the situation. The proceedings as printed in this volume follow the order as given in the "Randolph Manuscript;" and one or two items omitted both by Hening and in the "Virginia Magazine of History and Biography" have been inserted.

The House on March 26 voted that at the close of the session the Assembly should not be dissolved, but should be adjourned to the 1st of November.⁶⁹ Whether or not it met at that time is not known, none of the proceedings having been preserved.

Grand Assembly of 1658/59.

THE next session of Assembly—and it was a session of a new Assembly—began the 7th of March, 1658/59, and continued through the 15th of March—which is the date of the last proceedings given in the Library of Congress "Randolph Manuscript"—and probably longer. Very important laws were passed⁷⁰ and constitutional questions settled. As in the case of the proceedings of the preceding session, the material printed, the Library of Congress "Randolph Manuscript" being the source, has been given in the order in which it appears in that manuscript. As in the former case, the proceedings are those of the House sitting separate from the Council and have the appearance of the later Journals of the House. Much material in the original Journal, however, is evidently omitted.

The Appendix.

The material in the Appendix may be described briefly as follows:

The first paper is a law drawn up by the governor and Council in the period after the revocation of the charter of the London Company and before the meeting of the first Grand Assembly called together by authority of the king. The term "law" seems to be the proper one in the premises, for during that period the governor and Council made up the law-making body as constituted by the proper authorities in England. The law seems to have a warrant to be inserted here because it furnishes an interesting example of the kind of laws promulgated by the governor and Council at this time, and it has—so far as the editor of the volume knows—never been printed before. The original is a manuscript in the Library of Congress which is almost certainly the original copy of the law preserved by the clerk of the Council.

⁶⁸ For these laws, see Hening, I, 432-494.

⁶⁹ See p. 107.

⁷⁰ Hening, I, 516-525.

The next three papers are letters written by the governor and Council at the close of the Grand Assembly of 1628/29 to powerful noblemen in England requesting their influence in the prevention of the tobacco monopoly at that time under contemplation by the king. They supplement the papers drawn up by the whole Assembly, and are the letters referred to in the commission of the General Assembly to Sir Francis Wyatt, Mr. Edward Bennett, and Mr. Michael Marshart constituting them agents to manage the case of Virginia at this important juncture.⁷¹ They are directed, respectively, to Viscount Mandeville, the Earl of Dorsett, and Lord Delaware. The first of these, Henry Montagu, Viscount Mandeville, was at that time president of the Privy Council; the second, Edward Sackville, the Earl of Dorsett, was a member of the Privy Council, had always shown great interest in Virginia affairs, and was to be appointed in 1631 a member of the commission named to advise some course for the advancement of the planting of Virginia; the third, Henry West, Lord Delaware, was the son of the Lord Delaware so closely connected with the earlier history of the Colony.

The text is obtained from contemporary copies of the originals, these copies being now in the Library of Congress. The letters have never been printed in full before.

The original of the next paper, which is in the British Public Record Office, the text here presented being from the "Bancroft Transcripts," has endorsed on it in the handwriting of Viscount Dorchester, Secretary of State, "The Government of Virginia's Memorial." The form of it, however, shows it to be, not the memorial as drawn up by the government—that is, the governor and Council—of Virginia, but the substance of this memorial as made by Viscount Dorchester, or, possibly, made for him by a clerk. The paper is not dated, but is in the "Calendar of State Papers" given the date of "April ?, 1630." It is inserted here merely because it is of interest as throwing light on the history of the time and because it has never been printed before.

The next document, printed on pp. 124, 125, is a letter from the governor and Council of Virginia to the commissioners named in England in 1630 to examine into the condition of Virginia and suggest means for its improvement. It is the companion paper of the petition drawn up at the same time by the House of Burgesses,⁷² and is, like that paper, erroneously laid in the heading given it by the editor, following the "Bland Manuscript," to be directed to the Privy Council.⁷³

The printing of the twentieth act of the Grand Assembly of 1636/37, next in order, was decided on, because this act, not given in Hening, and not printed in full anywhere, so far as is known to the editor, is the sole existing discovered monument of the Assembly which brought it into being.

The letter from Richard Kemp, Secretary of the Colony of Virginia, to Sir Francis Windebank, Secretary of State, dated April 6, 1638, gives a contemporary account of the important session of the Assembly of 1637/38, and is, therefore, of course, well entitled to a place in this Appendix.

The bill of sale of the ship Leopoldus to Walter Chiles is of importance as showing the participation of the House of Burgesses in the commonwealth period in executive transactions. For the order of Assembly setting forth that the ship should be sold, see p. 91.

The letter from Henry Lawrence, Lord President, and Council of State to the governor and General Assembly of Virginia—the term "General Assembly" is used in the letter, and not "Grand Assembly," though the latter was the term used in Virginia at the time for the colonial legislature—might from one point of view have been more properly printed in the body of this volume than in the Appendix, for it is a communication to the General Assembly, such a communication as the letter from King Charles I to the governor, Council, and Assembly of Virginia printed on p. 70. Such a communication was always undoubtedly read before the full Assembly at the session following receipt and spread upon the Journal, certainly of the House, and possibly of the Council if at that time the Council kept a Journal of their proceedings as a branch of the legislative body, which, indeed, is very doubtful. Thus from the point of view of Virginia the letter would become a legislative document. If this letter was actually sent to Virginia and received there, it would have been read at the session held in November, 1654, and spread upon the Journals, and certainly the compiler of the Library of Congress "Randolph Manuscript" or the compiler of the "Bland Manuscript" would have thought it of sufficient importance for him to copy it in full. It has, however, been noticed by neither. Furthermore, the letter contains the following injunction relative to the continuance of Colonel Bennett in the office of governor of Virginia: "And to the intent it may not suffer any Inconvenience by the unfixtndnes of the governm^t His Highnes hath though fitt to Continue Colonnell Bennett (of whom his Highnes hath received a good Character) in execution of the place of Governo^r, till his Highnes shall further signifie his pleasure in that behalf, which you may in probability expect by the next Ships." However, the fact is that, though so far as is known no further communication was in the meanwhile received on the subject in Virginia, the House of Burgesses on March 31, 1655, elected Edward Diggs as governor. It is argued that had the House of Burgesses had the letter from which the above extract is taken, they would hardly have been so bold as to go counter to the instruction. Since, then, some uncertainty exists as to whether the letter was received in Virginia, it has been printed in the Appendix to this volume rather than in the main body of the volume.

The next paper in the Appendix, namely, the order of the Council of State in England in reference to the appointment of a governor in Virginia, dated December 18, 1657, is merely given as interesting and important subsidiary historical material, although nothing came of the recommendation to the lord protector made therein.

The next paper, namely, the order of the House of Burgesses in the 1657/58 session naming the governor and Council of Virginia until the next meeting of the Assembly or until the further pleasure of the supreme power in England should be known, should have been printed, undoubtedly, in the body of this volume, as are the similar orders of the Commonwealth period,⁷⁴ but was omitted by oversight. However, the same list is given in the proceedings on p. 113, but not in the same order. It will be seen from what is there given that the governor named the members of the Council in the first place, and that they were confirmed by the House. The order given in the Appendix is the formal order placed in front of the laws for the year. It should be dated some time after the 3d of April, the date of entry in the Journal, above referred to.

The paper next in order is the order of the Council of State, dated August 31, 1658, setting forth the reasons why they were impelled to write a letter of advice and instruction to the governor and Council of Virginia, and giving the letter in full. Before the letter could be dispatched, however, Oliver Cromwell died, and it was necessary to change somewhat the wording.

The changed letter duly appears incorporated in the Journal of the House of Burgesses for the 1658/59 session and was copied therefrom in full by the compiler of the Library of Congress "Randolph Manuscript." Accordingly, it appears in the body of this volume.

The last paper appearing in this Appendix consists of certain orders of the March, 1660/61, Assembly, and should have been printed in the preceding volume of this series with the mass of other orders of that session printed there,⁷⁵ but they were not found by the editor in time. They are printed here from the "Virginia Magazine of History and Biography," from the Library of Congress "Randolph Manuscript," which is the source of those, also, printed in the preceding volume from Hening's "Statutes at Large."

The most convenient place we could finde to fitt in was the Quire of the Church, Where Sir George Yeardley the Governour being sett downe in his accustomed place, those of the Counsel of Estate sat nexte him on both handes excepte onely the Secretary then appointed Speaker, who sat right before him; John Twine clerke of the General Assembly being placed nexte the Speaker and Thomas Pierse the Sergeante standing at the barre, to be ready for any service the Assembly should command him. But for as muche as mens affaires doe little prosper where Gods service is neglected; all the Burgeesses took their places in the Quire, till a Prayer was said by M^r Bucke, the Minister, that it would please God to guide us & sanctifie all our proceedings to his owne glory, and the good of this Plantation, Prayer being ended, to the intente that as wee had begun at God Almighty for wee might proceed wth awful and due respecte towards his Lieutenant, our most gracious & dread Sovereigne, all the Burgeesses were intreated to retire themselves into the body of the Church; w^{ch} being done, before they were fully admitted, they were called in order & by name, & so every man (none staggering at it) tooke the oathe of Supremacy, & then entered the Assembly, At Captaine Warde the Speaker tooke exception, as at one that without any Commission or authority, had seated himselfe either upon the Companies, and then his Plantation could not be lawfull, or on Captaine Martins Lande, and so he was but a limbe or member of him, & so there could be but two Burgeesses for all. So Captaine Warde was commanded to absente himselfe, till such time as the Assembly had agreed what was fitt for him to doe. After muche debate they resolved on this order following,

An order concluded by the General Assembly concerning Captaine Warde
July 30th 1619 at the opening of the said Assembly.

At the reading of the names of the Burgeesses Exception was taken ag^t Cap^t Warde as having planted here in Virginia, without any authority or commission from the Tresurer Counsell & Company in Englande, But considering he had bene at so great charge & paines to augmente this Colony, and had adventured his owne person in the action, and since that time had brought home a good quantity of fishe to relieve the Colony by waye of trade; and above all, because the Commission for authorising the General Assembly admitteth of two Burgeesses out of every plantation with out restrainte or exception, Upon all these considerations the Assembly was contented to admitt of him & his Lieutenant (as members of their body & Burgeesses into their society, provided that the said Captaine Warde, wth all expedition, that is to saye, between this & the nexte general Assembly (all lawful impediments excepted) should procure from the Tresurer & Counsell & Company in Englande a commission lawfully to establishe & plant himselfe & his Company, as the Chiefes of other Plantations have done, And in case he doe neglect this, he is to stande to the censure of the nexte Generall Assembly. To this Captaine Warde, in the presence of us all, having given his consente, and undertaken to performe the same, was together wth his Lieu^{tt}, by the voices of the whole Assembly first admitted to take the oathe of Supremacy & then to make up their number, & to fitt amongst them.

This being done, the Governour himselfe alledged that before we proceeded any further, it behooved us to examine, whither it were fitt, that Captaine Martins Burgeesses shoulde have any place in the Assembly, for as muche as he hath a clause in his Patente w^{ch} doth not onely exempte him from that equality & uniformity of Lawes & orders, w^{ch} the great charter saith, are to extende over the whole Colony, but also from diverse such lawes as we must be enforced to make in the general Assembly, That clause is as followeth, Item, That it shall and may be lawfull to & for the said Cap^t John Martin his heyers, executours and assignes, to governe, & commaunde all such person or persons, as at this time he shall carry over with him, or that shall be sente him hereafter, free from any commaunde of the Colony, excepte it be in ayding & assisting the same ag^t any forren or domestical Enemy,

Upon

Upon the Motion of the Governour, discussed the same time in the Assembly, enforced this order following

An Order of the General Assembly touching a clause in Captaine Martins Patente at James Citty July 30, 1619.

After all the Burgeffes had taken the oath of supremacy, & were admitted into the House, & all sett downe in their places, a copie of Captaine Martins Patente was produced by the Governour out of a Clause whereof it appeared, that when the general Assembly had made some kinde of lawes requisite for the whole Colony, he and his Burgeffes & people might deride the whole company & chuse whether they would obey the same or no It was therefore ordered in Courte, that the foresaid two Burgeffes should wthdrawe themselves out of the Assembly till such time as Captaine Martin had made his personall appearance before them, At what time if upon their motion he would be contente to quitte & give over that parte of his Patente, and contrary therunto would submitte himselfe to the generall forme of governement as all others did, that then his Burgeffes should be readmitted, otherwise they were utterly to be excluded, as being spies, rather than loyal Burgeffes; because they had offered themselves to be assistant at the making of the Lawes, w^{ch} both themselves, and those whom they represented might chuse whether they would obeye or not.

Then came in a complainte ag^{tt} Captaine Martin that having sente his Shallop to trade for corne into the baye under the commaunde of Ensigne Harrison, the saide Ensigne should affirme to one Thomas Davis, of Paspahaighs, Gent (as the saide Thomas Davis depofed upon oathe) that they had made a harde voiage, had they not mett wth a Canoa coming out of a creeke, where their Shallop could not goe, For the Indians refusing to sell their Corne, those of the shallop entered the Canoa wth their armes & tooke it by force, measuring out the corne wth a baskett they had, into the shallop and (as the saide Ensigne Harrison saith) given them satisfaction in Copper, Beades, and other trucking Stuffe, Hitherto M^r Davys upon his oath.

Further more it was signified from Opochancano to the Governour that these people had complained to him to procure them iustice, For w^{ch} considerations & because suche outrages as this might breed danger and losse of life to others of the Colony, w^{ch} should have leave to trade in the Baye hereafter, & for prevention of the like violences ag^{tt} the Indians in time to come, this order following was agreed on by the Generall Assembly:

A second order made against Captaine Martin, at James Citty, July 30th 1619.

It was also ordered by the Assembly the same daye, that in case Captaine Martin and the ging of his shallop could not throughly answer an accusation of an outrage committed against a certaine Canoa of Indians in the Baye, that then it was thought reason (his Patente notwithstanding the authority whereof he had in that case abused) he should from henceforth take leave of the Governour as other men, & should putt in security, that his people shall committe no such outrage any more

Upon this a letter or warrant was drawn in the name of the whole Assembly to summon Captaine Martin to appeare before them in forme following:

By the Govern^r and generall Assembly of Virginia.

Captaine Martine, we are to request you upon sight hereof, with all convenient speed to repaire hither to James Citty, to treat & conferre wth us about some matters of espiciale importance, w^{ch} concerne both us, and the whole Colony, & your selfe, And of this we pray you not to faile, James Citty, July 30th 1619.

To our very loving friend Capt^{ne} John Martin Esquire, Master of the Ordinance.

These obstacles removed, the Speaker, who a long time had bene extreame sickly, and therefore not able to passe through long harangues, delivered in brieve to the whole assembly the occasions of their meeting, W^{ch} done, he read unto them the commission for establishing the Counsell of Estate & the Generall Assembly, wherein their duties were described to the life,

Having

Having thus prepared them, he read over unto them the greate Charter or comiffion of priviledges, orders & lawes fente by Sir George Yeardly out of Englande w^{ch} for the more eafe of the Committees, having divided into fower books, he read the former two the fame forenoon, for expeditions fake, a fecond time over, & fo they were referred to the perufall of twoe Comittees, w^{ch} did reciprocally confider of either, & accordingly brought in their opinions, But fome man may here objecte to what ende we fhoulde prefume to refferre that to the examination of Committees, w^{ch} the Counfell & Company in Englande had already refolved to be perfect & did expekte nothinge but our affente there unto. To this we anfwere, that we did it not to the ende to correkte or controll any thing therein contained, but onely in cafe we fhould finde ought not perfectly fquaring wth the ftate of this Colony, or any lawe w^{ch} did preffe or binde too harde, that wee might by waye of humble petition feeke to have it redreffed; efpecially becaufe this great Charter is to binde us & our heyers for ever.

The names of the Comittees for perufing the firft booke of the fower:

- | | |
|------------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| 1. Captain William Powell , | 2. Enfigne Rofingham , |
| 3. Captaine Warde , | 4. Captaine Tucker , |
| 5. M ^r Shelley , | 6. Thomas Doufe , |
| 7. Samuel Jordan , | 8. M ^r Boys . |

The names of the Comittees for perufing the fecond booke:

- | | |
|--------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| 1. Captaine Lawne , | 2. Captaine Graves , |
| 3. Enfigne Spence , | 4. Samuel Sharpe , |
| 5. William Cap , | 6. M ^r Pawlett , |
| 7. M ^r Jefferson , | 8. M ^r Jackfon . |

Thefe Comittees thus appointed, we brake up the firft forenoons Affembly.

After dinner the Governo^r and thofe that were not of the Comittees fate a feconde time, while the faid Comittees were employed in the perufall of thofe twoe bookes. And whereas the Speaker had propounded fower feverall objects for the Affembly to confider on namely firft, the great charter of orders, lawes & priviledges, Secondly which of the inftructions given by the Counfell in England to my Lord le Warre, Captaine Argall or Sir George Yeardley, might conveniently putt on the habite of Lawes; Thirdly what Lawes might iffue out of the private conceipte of any of the Burgefles, or any other of the Colony; & laftly what petitions were fitt to be fente home for Englande It pleased the Governo^r for expeditions fake to have the fecond objecte of the fower to be examined & prepared by himfelfe and the non Comittee. Wherein after having fpente fome three houres conference, the twoe Comittees brought in their opinions concerning the twoe former bookes (the fecond of w^{ch} beginneth at thefe wordes of the Charter.) And forasmuche as our intente is to eftablifh one equall & uniforme kinde of government over all Virginia &c) w^{ch} the whole Affembly, becaufe it was late deferred to treatt of till the next morning.

Saturday July 31.

THE nexte daye therefore out of the opinions of the faid Comittees, it was agreed, thofe Petitions enfuing fhould be framed, to be prefented to the Treafurer Counfel & Company in England. Upon the Comittees perufall of the firft Book, the Generall Affembly, doe become moft humble fuitours to their lo^{ps} and to the reft of that hon^{ble} Counfell and renowned Company, that albeit they have bene pleas'd to allotte unto the Govern^r to themfelves together wth the Counfell of Eftate here, & to the Officers of Incorporations, certain large portions of lande to be layde out wthin the limites of the fame, yet that they would vouchsafe alfo, that fuch groundes as heretofore had bene granted by patent to the antient Planters by former Governours, that had from the Company received Comiffion fo to doe, might not nowe, after fo muche labour & cofte, & fo many yeares habitation be taken from them. And to the ende that no man might doe or suffer any wrong in this kinde, that they woulde favour us so muche (if they meane to graunte this our petition) as to sende us notice, what comission or authority for graunting of landes they have given to eache particular Governour in times paste.

The seconde petition of the General Asssembly framed by the Comittces out of the second book is, that the Trefurer & Company in England would be pleased wth as muche convenient speede as may bee to sende men hither to occupie their landes belonging to the fower Incorporations, as well for their owne behoofe and proffitt as for the maintenance of the Counsel of Estate, who are nowe to their extream hindrance often drawn far from their private busines, & likewise that they will have a care to sende tenants to the minifters of the fower Incorporations to manure their gleab, to the intente that the allowance they have allotted them of 200 li. a yeare may the more easly be raised.

The thirde Petition humbly presented by this General Asssembly to the Trefurer, Counsell & Comp^y is, that it may plainly be expressed in the great Comission (as indeed it is not) that the antient Planters of both fortes, viz., fuche as before Sir Thomas Dales departure were come hither upon their owne charges, and fuche also as were brought hether upon the Companies cofte, maye have their second, third, & more divisions succcessively in as lardge and free manner as any other Planters. Also that they will be pleased to allowe to the male children, of them & of all others begotten in Virginia, being the onely hope of a Posterity, a single share a piece, and shares for their wives as for themselves, because that in a newe plantation it is not knowen whether man or woman be the most necessary.

Their fourth Petition is to beseech the Trefurer Counsell & Company that they would be pleased to appoint a Sub-Trefurer here to collecte their rentes, to the ende that the Inhabitants of this Colony be not tyed to an impossibility of paying the same yearly to the Trefurer in England, & that they would enjoine the said Sub Trefurer not precisely according to the Letter of the Charter to exacte mony of us (whereof we have none at all, as we have no minte) but the true value of the rente in comodity.

The fift Petition is to beseeche the Trefurer the Counsell & Company, that towards the erecting of the Univerfity and Colledge, they will sende, when they shall thinke most convenient, workmen of all fortes fitt for that purpose.

The sixte and laste is, that they will be pleased to change the savage name of Kiccowtan, & to give that Incorporation a newe name.

These are the severall Petitions drawn by the Comittces out of the two former bookes w^{ch} the whole general Asssembly in maner & forme above sett downe doe most humbly offer up and present to the favourable construction of the Trefurer Counsell & Company in England,

These petitions thus concluded on, those twoe Comittces broughte in a reporte, what they had observed in the two latter bookes, w^{ch} was nothing else, but that the perfection of them was fuche as they could finde nothing therein subject to exception. Only the Govern^{rs} particular opinion to my selfe in private hath bene, as touching a clause in the thirde booke, that in these doubtfull times between us and the Indians, it would behooe us not to make so lardge distances between Plantation & Plantation as ten miles but for our more strength & security to drawe nearer together.

At the same time, there remaining no farther scruple in the mindes of the Asssembly touching the said great Charter of Lawes orders and priviledges, the Speaker putt the same to the question, & so it had both the general assent & the applause of the whole Asssembly; who as they professed themselves in the first place most submissively thankfull to Almighty God therefore, so they commaunded the Speaker to returne (as nowe he doth) their due and humble thanks to the Trefurer, Counsell & Company for so many priviledges & favours as well in their owne names, as in the names of the whole Colony whom they represented.

This being dispatched, we fell once more to debating of fuche instructions given by the Counsell in England to severall Gover^{ners} as might be converted into lawes, the last whereof whereof was the establishment of the price of Tobacco, namely of the best at 3s and of the second at 18d the pounce. At the reading of this the Assembly thought good to send for M^r Abraham Persey, the Cape Marchant to publish this instruction to him, & to demand of him if he knew any impediment why it might not be admitted of. His answer was that he had not as yet received any such order from the Adventurers of the Magazin in England, And notwithstanding he sawe the authority was good, yet he was unwilling to yield, till such time as the Gov^r & Assembly had layd their commandment upon him, out of the authority of the foresaid Instructions as followeth:

By the General Assembly

We will & require you, M^r Abraham Persey, Cape Marchant, from this daye forward to take notice, that according to an article in the Instructions confirmed by the Treasurer, Counsell & Company in Englande at a General quarter Courte, bothe by voices and under their hands & the Common seale, and given to Sir George Yeardley, Knight, this present governour, Dec^r 1, 1618, that you are bounde to accepte of the Tobacco of the Colonie, either for commodities or upon bills at three shillings the best, & the second sorte at 18d the pounce, and this shall be your sufficient discharge.

James Citty out of the said General Assembly July 31, 1619.

At the same time the Instructions convertible into Lawes were referred to the consideration of the above named Committees, viz., the general Instructions to the first Committee and the particular Instructions to the second, to be returned by them into the Assembly on Munday Morning.

Sunday Aug. 1

MR. SHELLEY one of the Burgeses deceased.

Monday Aug. 2

CAPTAINE John Martin (according to the summons sent him on Friday, July, 30.) made his personall appearance at the barre, when as the Speaker having, first read unto him the orders of the Assembly that concerned him, he pleaded largely for himself to them both, & indeavourd to answer some other things that were objected ag^t his Patente, In fine being demanded out of the former order, whether he would quitte that clause of his Patent, w^{ch} (quite otherwise then Sir William Throckmortons, Captain Christopher Lawnes, and other mens patentes) exempteth himselfe & his people from all services of the Colonie, excepte onely in case of warre ag^t a forren or domestically enemy. His answer was negative, that he would not infringe any parte of his Patente. Whereupon it was resolved by the Assembly, that his Burgeses should have no admittance.

To the second order his answer was affirmative, namely, that (his Patente notwithstanding) whensoever he should sende into the Baye, to trade, he would be contente to putt in security to the Governour for the good behaviour of his people towards the Indians.

It was at the same time further ordered by the Assembly that the Speaker in their names should (as he nowe doe) humbly demande of the Treasurer Counsell and Company an exposition of this one clause in Captaine Martins Patente, namely where it is said, That he is to enjoye his landes in as large & ample a manner to all intents & purposes, as any Lord of any manours in England doth holde his grounde, out of w^{ch} some have collected collected, that he might by the same graunte protecte men, from paying their debtes, and from diverse other dangers of Lawe, The least the Asssembly can alledge against this claufe is, that it is obscure, & that it is a thing impossible for us here to know the Prerogatives of all the Manours in Englande. The Asssembly therefore humbly beseecheth their Lop^s & the rest of the Hon^{ble} boarde, that in case they shall finde any thing in this or in any other parte of his graunte, whereby that claufe towards the conclusion of the great charter (viz that all grauntes as well of the one sorte as of the other respectively, be made wth equall favour & graunts of like liberties & immunities as neer as may be, to the ende that all complaints of partiality and unindifferency may be avoided) might in any sorte be contradicted; or the uniformity and equality of lawes & orders extending over the whole Colony might be impeached; That they would be pleased to remove any such hinderance, as may divert out of the true course the free & publique current of Justice.

Upon the same grounde & reason their Lop^s together with the rest of the Counsell & Company, are humbly besought by the Generale Asssembly, that if in that other claufe w^{ch} exempteth Captaine Martin & his people from all services of the Colony &c they shall finde any resistance ag^t that equality and uniformity of Lawes & orders intended nowe by them to be established over the whole Colony, that they would be pleased to reforme it.

In fine, whereas Captaine Martin for those ten shares allowed him for his personal adventure, & for his adventure of 70^{li} besides doth claime 500 acres a share: that the Treasurer, Counsell & Company would vouchsafe to give notice to the Governour here, what kinde of shares they meante he should have, when they gave him his Patente.

The premisses about Captaine Martin thus resolved the Committie appointed to consider, what instructions are fitt to be converted into Lawes, brought in their opinions, & first of some of the general instructions.

Here begin the lawes drawn out of the Instructions given by his Mat^{ies} Counsell of Virginia in England to My Lo: La warre, Captaine Argall, & Sir George Yeardly, knight.

By this present General Asssembly be it enacted that noe injury or oppression be wrought by the English ag^t the Indians whereby the present peace might be disturbed, & antient quarrels might be revived. And farther be it ordained that the Chicohomini are not to be excepted out of this Lawe, untill either that such order come out of Englande, or that they doe provoke us by some newe injury

Against Idleness, gaming, drunkennes, & excesse in apparel, the Asssembly hath enacted as followeth

First in detestation of Idlers, be it enacted, that if any man be founde, to live as an Idler or runegate though a freed man, it shall be lawfull for that Incorporation or Plantation to w^{ch} he belongeth to appoint him a M^r to serve for wages till he shewe apparant signes of amendment.

Against gaming at Dice & Cardes be it ordained by this present Asssembly, that the winner or winners shall lose all his or their winnings & both winners & loofers shall forfeite ten shillings a man, one ten shillings whereof to goe to the discoverer, & the rest to charitable & pious uses in the Incorporation where the faults are committed.

Against drunkenes be it also decreed, that if any private person be found culpable thereof, for the first time he is to be reprovved privately by the Minister, the second time, publicely, the Thirde time to lye in boltes 12 houres in the House of the Provost Marshall & to paye his fees, and if he still continue in that vice, to undergoe suche severe punishment, as the Governour & Councill of Estate shall think fitt to be inflicted on him. But if any Officer offende in this crime, the first time he shall receive a reproof from the Governour, the second time he shall openly be reprovved in the Church by the minister, & the third time he shall first be committed & then degraded. Provided it be understood, that the Governour hath alwaies power to restore him, when he shall, in his discretion thinke fitt

Against

Against exceſſe of apparell, that every man be ceſſed in the Church for all publique contributions, if he be unmarried according to his owne apparell, if he be married, according to his owne & his wives, or either of their apparell.

As touching the Inſtruction of drawing ſome of the better diſpoſed of the Indians to converſe wth our people & to live & labour among them, the Aſſembly who know well their diſpoſitions, thinke it fitte to enjoin, at leaſt to counſell thoſe of the Colony neither utterly to rejeſte them, nor yet to drawe them to come in. But in caſe they will of themſelves come voluntarily to places well peopled there to doe ſervice, in killing of Deere, Fiſhing, beating Corne, & other workes that then five or fixe may be admitted into every ſuch place, and no more, & that wth the conſente of the Governour, provided that good guard in the night be kept upon them, for generally (though ſome amongſt many may proove good) they are a moſt trecherous people, & quickly gone when they have done a villany. And it were fitt, a houſe were builte for them to lodge in apart by themſelves, and lone inhabitants by no meanes to entertaine them.

Be it enacted by this preſent aſſembly, that for laying a furer foundation of the converſion of the Indians to Chriſtian Religion, eache towne, citty Borrough, & particular plantation do obtaine unto themſelves by juſt meanes a certaine number of the natives Children to be educated by them in true Religion & civile courſe of life. Of w^{ch} children the moſt towardly boyes in witt & graces of nature to be brought up by them in the firſte Elements of litterature, ſo as to be fitted for the Colledge intended for them, that from thence they may be ſent to that worke of converſion.

As touching the buſines of planting corne, this preſent Aſſembly doth ordaine, that yeare by yeare, all & every houſeholder and houſeholders, have in ſtore for every ſervant he or they ſhall keep, & alſo for his or their owne perſons, whether they have any Servants or no, one ſpare barrell of corne to be delivered out yearly either upon ſale or exchange, as need ſhall require. For the neglect of w^{ch} duty he ſhall be Subject to the cenſure of the Govern^r & Councell of Eſtate, provided alwayes, that for the firſt yeare of every newe man this Lawe ſhall not be in force.

About the Plantation of Mulberry trees be it enacted that every man, as he is ſeated upon his diviſion, doe for ſeven yeares together every yeare plante & maintaine in growth fixe Mulberry trees at the leaſte and as many more as he ſhall thinke conveniente, & as his virtue & induſtry ſhall moove him to plante, and that all ſuch perſons as ſhall neglect the yearly planting & maintaining of that ſmall proportion, ſhall be Subjecte to the cenſure of the Governour, & the Councell of Eſtate

Be it farther enacted, as concerning ſilke-flaxe that thoſe men that are upon their diviſion or ſettled habitation doe this next yeare plante & Dreſſe 100 plantes w^{ch} being founde a comodity may farther be encreaſed. And whoſoever do faile in the performance of this ſhall be ſubject to the puniſhment of the Governour & Councell of Eſtate.

For hempe alſo both Engliſhe & Indian, & for Engliſhe Flaxe & Annifeeds, wee doe require & enjoin all houſeholders of this Colony, that have any of thoſe feeds, to make tryal thereof the nexte ſeaſon.

Moreover be it enacted by this preſent Aſſembly, that every houſeholder doe yearly plante & maintaine ten vines, untill they have attained to the arte & experience of dreſſing a vineyard, either by their owne induſtry, or by the inſtruction of ſome Vigner^{on}. And that upon what penalty ſoever, the Govern^r & Councell of Eſtate ſhall think fitt to impoſe upon the neglecters of this Acte.

Be it alſo enacted, that all neceſſary trademen, or ſoe many as need ſhall require, ſuche as are come over ſince the departure of Sir Thomas Dale, or that ſhall hereafter come ſhall worke at their trades for any other man, eache one being payde according to the qualitie of his trade & worke, to be eſtimated, if he ſhall not be contented, by the Govern^r & Officers of the place where he worketh.

Be it further ordained by this General Aſſembly and wee doe by theſe Preſents enacte, that all contracts made in England betweene the owners of lande & their Tenants and Servantes w^{ch} they shall send hither, may bee caused to be duly performed, and that the offenders be punished as the Govern^r & Councell of Estate shall think just & convenient.

Be it established also by this present Assembly, that no crafty or advantageous meanes be suffered to be putt in practice for the inticing awaye the Tenants & Servants of any particular plantation from the place where they are Seated. And that it shall be the duty of the Governo^r & Councell of Estate most severely to punish the seducers & the seduced, and to returne these latter into their former places.

Be it further enacted, that the orders for the Magazine lately made be exactly kepte, & that the Magazine be preserved from wronge & sinister practises, & that according to the orders of Courte in Englande, all Tobacco & Saffafras be brought by the planters to the Cape Marchant till suche time as all the goods nowe or heretofore sent for the Magazine be taken off their handes at the prices agreed on, that by this meanes the same going for Englande into one hande, the price thereof, may be upheld the better. And to the ende that all the whole Colony may take notice of the last order of Courte made in Englande, & all those whom it concerneth may know how to observe it wee holde it fitt to publish it here for a Lawe among the rest of our Lawes, the w^{ch} order is as followeth.

Upon the 26 of October 1618, it was ordered that the Magazine should continue during the terme formerly prefixed, & that certaine abuses nowe complained of should be reformed; and that for preventing of all impositions, save the allowance of 25 in the hundred proffitt the Governo^r shall have an invoice as well as the Cape Marchant, that if any abuse in the sale of the goods be offered, hee upon intelligence & due examination thereof shall see it corrected. And for the encouragement of particular hundreds, as Smyths Hundred, Martins Hundred, Lawnes Hundred, & the like, it is agreed, that what comodities are reaped upon anie of these Severall Colonies, it shall be lawfull for them to return the same to their owne Adventurers. Provided that the same comodity be of their owne growing, w^{thout} trading wth any other, in one entyre lumpe, & not disperfed, & that at the determination of the jointe stocke the goods then remaining in the Magazine shall be bought by the said particular Colonies before any other goods w^{ch} shall be sente by private men. And it is moreover ordered, that if the Lady La warre, the Lady Dale, Captain Bargrave, & the rest, would unite themselves into a settled Colony, they might be capable of the same priviledges that are graunted to any of the foresaid Hundreds. Hitherto the Order.

All the general Assembly by voices concluded not only the acceptance & observation of this Order, but of the Instruction also to Sir George Yeardley next preceding the same. Provided first that the Cape Marchant do accept of the Tobacco of all and everie the Planters here in Virginia, either for goods or upon Bills of Exchange at three shillings the pounce the beste, & 18d the seconde forte. Provided also that the billes be duly payde in Englande. Provided in the third place, that if any other besides the Magazine have at any time any necessary comodity w^{ch} the Magazine doth wante, it shall & may be lawfull for any of the Colony to buy the said necessary Comodity of the said party, but upon the termes of the Magazine viz allowing no more gaine then 25 in the Hundred, & that with the leave of the Governour, Provided lastly, that it may be lawfull for the Govern^r to give leave to any Mariner, or any other person that shall have any suche necessary comodity wanting to the Magazine, to carrie home for England so much Tobacco or other naturall comodities of the Country, as his Customers shall pay him for the said necessary comodity or comodities. And to the ende we may not onely, persuade & incite men, but inforce them also thoroughly & loyally to cure their Tobacco before they bring it to the Magazine, be it enacted, and by these presents we doe enacte, that if upon the judgment of fower sufficient men of any incorporation where the Magazine shall reside (having first taken their oaths to give true sentence, twoe whereof to be chosen by the Cape Marchant, & twoe by the Incorporation) any Tobacco whatsoever shall not prove vendible at the second price, that it shall there immediately be burnt before the owners face. Hitherto suche Lawes as were drawn out of the Instructions.

Tuesday,

Tuesday Aug. 3, 1619.

THIS Morning a thirde sorte of Lawes (such as might proceed out of every mans private conceit) were read & referred by halves to the same committees w^{ch} were from the beginning.

This done Captaine William Powell presented to the assembly a petition, to have justice against a lewd and trecherous servant of his, who by false accusation given up in writing to the Governour sought not onely to get him deposed from his government of James City, and utterly (according to the Proclamation) to be degraded from the Place & title of a Captaine, but to take his life from him also. And so out of the said Petition sprang this order following Captaine William Powell presented a petition to the General Assembly against one Thomas Garnett a servant of his not onely for extream neglect of his busines, to the great loss & prejudice of the said Captaine, and for openly and impudently abusing his House, in sight both of Master and Mistresse, through wantonnes wth a woman servant of theirs, a widdowe, but also for falsely accusing him to the Governour both of Drunkenness, & Theft, & besides for bringing his fellow servants to testify on his side, wherein they justly failed him. It was thought fitt by the General Assembly (the Governour himself giving sentence) that he should stand fower dayes with his eares nayled to the Pillory, viz Wednesday Aug. 4th and so likewise Thursday, Friday, & Saturday next following, & every of those fower days should be publicly whipped. Now as touching the neglecte of his worke, what satisfaction ought to be made to his M^r for that, is referred to the Governour & Councill of Estate.

The same morning the lawes above written drawn out of the Instructions were read, & one by one thoroughly examined, & then passed once again the general consente of the whole assembly.

This Afternoon the committies brought in a reporte, what they had done as concerning the third sorte of Lawes, the discussing whereof spent the residue of that daye. Excepte onely the consideration of a Petition of M^r John Rolfe against Cap^t John Martin for writing a Letter to him wherein (as M^r Rolfe alledgeth) he taxeth him both unfeemly and amisse of certaine things wherein he was never faulty, and besides casteth some aspersions upon the present government, w^{ch} is the most temperate & just that ever was in this country, too milde indeed for many in this Colony, whom unwonted liberty hath made insolent, and not to know themselves. This Petition of M^r Rolfe was thought fitt to be referred to the Councill of State.

Wednesday Aug. 4th

THIS daye (by reason of extream heat both past, and likely to ensue, & by that means, of the alteration of the healthes of diverse of the General Assembly) the Governour who himselfe also was not well, resolved should be the last of this first Session, So in the Morning the Speaker (as he was required by the Assembly) redd over all the Lawes and orders that had formerly passed the House, to give the same yett one review more & to see, whether there were any thing to be amended, or that might be excepted against, this being done, the third sorte of Lawes, w^{ch} I am nowe coming to sett downe, were read over & thoroughly discussed, w^{ch} together wth the former did now passe the last and finall consente of the General Assembly.

A third sorte of Lawes such as may issue out of every mans private conceit

It shall be free for every man to trade wth the Indians Servants onely excepted, upon paine of whipping unless the M^r redeeme it off wth the payment of an Angell, one fourth parte whereof to go to the Provost Marshall, one fourth parte to the discoverer, & the other moyty to the publique uses of the Incorporation where he dwelleth

That

That no man do sell or give any Indians any piece shott, or powder, or any other armes offensive or defensive, upon paine of being held a Traytour to the Colony, & of being hanged, as soon as the fact is proved, wthout all redemption.

That no man do sell or give any of the greater howes to the Indians, or any English dog of quality, as a Mastive, Greyhound, Blood hounde lande, or water Spaniel, or any other dog or bitche whatsoever, of the English race, upon paine of forfeiting 5 ^{li} sterling to the publike uses of the Incorporation where he dwelleth.

That no man may go above twenty miles from his dwelling place, nor upon any voiage what soever shall be absent from thence for the space of seven dayes together, wthout first having made the Govern^r or com^{mander} of the same place acquainted therewith upon paine of paying twenty shillings to the publike uses of the same Incorporation, where the party delinquent dwelleth.

That no man shall purposely goe to any Indian townes, habitations, or places of resort, wthout leave from the Govern^r or com^{mander} of that place where he liveth upon paine of paying 40^s to publike uses as aforesaid.

That no man living in this Colony, but shall between this and the first of January nexte ensuing come or sende to the Secretary of State, to enter his own & all his servants names, & for what terme, or upon what conditions they are to serve, upon penalty of paying 40^s to the said Secretary of State. Also whatsoever M^r or people doe come over to this plantation, that within one month of their arrivall (notice being first given them of this very Lawe,) they shall likewise resorte to the Secretary of State & shall Certifie him upon what termes or conditions they be come hither, to the ende that he may recorde their grauntes and com^{missions}, and for how long time and upon what conditions their servants (in case they have any) are to serve them, and that upon paine of the penalty nexte above mentioned.

All Ministers in the Colony shall once a year namely in the moneth of Marche, bring to the Secretary of Estate a true account of all the Christenings, burials, & marriages, upon paine, if they faile, to be censured for their negligence by the Governour & Councill of Estate Likewise where there be no ministers, that the com^{manders} of the place doe supply the same duty.

No man wthout leave from the Governour shall kill any Neat cattle whatsoever, young or olde, especially kine, Heyfurs or Cowcalves, & shall be carefull to preserve their Steers & Oxen, & to bring them to the plough & such profittable uses, & wthout having obtained leave as aforesaid shall not kill them upon penalty of forfeiting the value of the Beast so killed.

Whosoever shall take any of his neighbours boates, oares, or canoas wthout leave from the owner shall be helde and esteemed as a felon and so proceeded against; also hee that shall take away by violence or stealth any canoas or other things from the Indians shall make valuable restitution to the said Indians, and shall forfait, if he be a freeholder, five pound; if a servant 40^s, or endure a whipping: and anything under the value of 13^d shall be accounted Petty larceny.

All ministers shall duely read divine service, and exercise their ministerial function according to the Ecclesiasticall Lawes and orders of the church of Englande, and every Sunday in the afternoon shall Catechize suche as are not yet ripe to come to the Com^{munion}. And whosoever of them shall be found negligent or faulty in this kinde shall be subject to the censure of the Govern^r and Councill of Estate

The Ministers and Churchwardens shall seeke to prevente all ungodly disorders; the com^{mitters} whereof if, upon goode admonitions and milde reproofe they will not forbear the said scandalous offences, as suspitions of whoredoms, dishonest company keeping with weomen and such like, they are to be presented and punished accordingly.

If any person after two warnings, doe not amende his or her life in point of evident suspition of Incontinency or of the com^{mission} of any other enormous finnes, that then he or shee be presented by the Churchwardens and suspended for a time from the church by the minister. In w^{ch} Interim if the same person do not amende and humbly submitt him or herselfe to the church, he is then fully to be excommunicate and soon after a writt or warrant to be sent from the Govern^r for the apprehending of his person & seizing all his goods. Provided alwayes, that all the ministers doe meet once a quarter, namely, at the feast of S^t Michael the Arkangell, of the nativity of our Saviour, of the Annuntiation of the blessed Virgine, and about midfomer, at James Citty or any other place where the Govern^r shall reside, to determine whom it is fitt to excommunicate, and that they first presente their opinion to the Governour ere they proceed to the acte of excommunication

For Reformation of swearing, evry freeman and M^r of a family after thrice admonition shall give 5^s or the value upon presente demande, to the use of the church where he dwelleth: and every servant after the like admonition, excepte his M^r discharge the fine, shall be subject to whipping. Provided, that the payment of the fine notwithstanding, the said servant shall acknowledge his faulte publicly in the Church.

No man whatsoever coming by water from above, as from Henrico, Charles citty, or any place from the westwarde of James Citty, & being bound for Kiccowntan or any other parte on this side of the same, shall presume to pass by either by day or by night without touching firste here at James Citty, to know whether the Governour will comande him any service. And the like shall they performe that come from Kiccowntan ward, or from any place between this & that to go upwarde; upon paine of forfaiting ten pound Sterling a time to the Governour. Provided that if a servant having had instructions from his Master to observe his Service doe notwithstanding transgresse the same that then the said servant shall be punished at the Govern^rs discretion otherwise that the Master himself shall undergo the foresaid penalty.

No man shall trade into the Baye either in Shallop pinnace, or ship without the Governours License, and without putting in security, that neither himselfe, nor his Company shall force or wrong the Indians, upon paine that doing otherwise they shall be censured at their returne by the Governour & Counsell of Estate.

All persons whatsoever upon Sabaoth days shall frequente divine service & sermons both forenoon and afternoone; & all s^uche as beare armes, shall bring their pieces, Swordes, powder, & shotte. And Every one that shall transgresse this Lawe, shall forfait three shillings a time to the use of the Church, all lawful & necessary impediments excepted. But if a servant in this case shall wilfully neglecte his M^rs comande he shall suffer bodily punishmente.

No maide or woman servant, either now resident in the Colonie, or hereafter to come, shall contract herselfe in marriage without either the consente of her parents or her M^r or M^rs, or of the magistrate & Minister of the place both together. And whatsoever Minister shall marry or contracte any s^uche persons without some of the foresaid consentes shall be subjecte to the severe censure of the Govern^r & Counsell of Estate.

Be it enacted by the present assembly, that whatsoever servant hath heretofore, or shall hereafter contracte himselfe in Englande, either by way of Indenture or otherwise, to serve any Master here in Virginia, and shall afterward, against his said former contracte, depart from his M^r without leave, or being once embarked, shall abandon the ship he is appointed to come in, & so being lefte behinde, shall put himselfe into the service of any other man that will bring him hither; that then at the same servants arrival here, he shall first serve out his time, with that M^r that brought him hither and afterward also shall serve out his time with his former Master according to his covenant.

Here ende the Lawes.

All these lawes being thus concluded & consented to, as aforefaide Captaine Henry Spelman was called to the Barre, to answer to certaine misdemeano^rs layde to his charge by Robert Poole interpretour, upon his Oath (whose examination the Govern^r sente into Englande in the Prosperus) of w^{ch} accusations of Poole some he acknowledged for true, but the greatest part he denied. Whereupon the General Assembly having throughly heard, & considered his speeches, did constitute this order following against him,

Aug.

Aug. 4th 1619

This day Captaine Henry Spelman was convented before the General Affembly, & was examined by a relation upon oath of one Robert Poole Interpreter what conference had passed between the said Spelman & Opochancano at Pooles meeting with him in Opochancanos courte. Poole chardgeth him, he spake very unreverently & maliciously ag^t this present Govern^r wherby the honour & dignity of his place & person, & so of the whole Colonie, might be brought into Contempte, by w^{ch} meanes what mischiefs might ensue from the Indians by disturbance of the Peace or otherwise, may easily be conjectured. Some things of this relation Spelman confessed, but the most parte he denied, excepte onely one matter of importance, & that was, that he had informed Opochancano, that wthin a yeare there would come a Governour greater than this that nowe is in place. By w^{ch} & by other reportes, it seemeth he hath alienated the minde of Opochancano from this present Governour, & brought him in much disesteem both wth Opochancano & the Indians, & the whole Colony in danger of their Slippery designes.

The general affembly upon Pooles testimony onely not willing to putt Spelman to the rigour & extremity of the Lawe, w^{ch} might perhaps, both speedily & deservedly have taken his life from him (upon the witness of one whom he muche excepted ag^t) were pleased for the present to censure him rather out of that his confession above written, then out of any other prooffe. Several & sharpe punishments were pronounced ag^t him by diverse of the Affembly. But in fine the whole courte by voices united did encline to the most favourable, w^{ch} was that for this misdemeanour he should first be degraded of his title of Cap^t, at the head of the Troupe, & should be condemn^d to performe seven yeares service to the Colony, in the nature of an Interpreter to the Governour.

This sentence being read to Spelman he as one that had in him more of the Savage then of the Christian, muttered certaine wordes to himselfe, neither shewing any remorse for his offences, nor yet any thankfulness to the Affembly for their so favourable censure, w^{ch} he at one time or another (Gods grace not wholly abandoning him) might wth some one service have been able to have redeemed.¹

This day also did the Inhabitants of Paspapeigh alias Argalls Towne, present a petition to the General Affembly to give them an absolute discharge from certaine Bondes wherein they stand bound to Captaine Samuell Argall for the payment of 600^l & to Captaine William Powell at Captaines Argalls appointment, for the payment of 50^l more To Captaine Argall for 15 Skore acres of woody ground called by the name of Argalls Towne or Paspapeigh; to Captaine Powell in respect of his paines in clearing the grounde, & building the houses for w^{ch} Captaine Argall ought to have given him satisfaction. Now, the general Affembly being doubtful whether they have any power & authority to discharge the said bondes, doe by these presents (at the Instance of the said Inhabitants of Paspapeighs, alias Martins hundred people) become most humble suitours to the Treasurer, Counsell & Company in England that they will be pleased to gett the said bondes for 600^l to be cancelled; for asmuch as in their great comission they have expressly & by name appointed that place of Paspapeigh for parte of the Governours Lande. And wheras Captain William Powell is payde his 50^l w^{ch} Captaine Argall enjoined the saide Inhabitantes to presente him with, as parte of the bargaine, the general affembly at their intreaty do become suitours on their behalfe, that Cap^t Argall, by the Counsell & Company in Englande may be compelled either to restore the said 50^l from thence, or else that restitution thereof be made here, out of the goods of the said Captaine Argall.

The last acte of the General Affembly was a contribution to gratifie their Officers as followeth

Aug. 4th 1619

It is fully agreed att this Generall Affembly, that in regarde of the great paines & labour of the Speaker of this Affembly (who not only first formed the same affembly & to their great ease & expedition, reduced all matters to be treated of into a ready method, but also, his indisposition notwithstanding wrote or dictated all orders & other expedients, & is yett to write severall bookes for all the severall Incorporations & plantations, both of the great Charter, & of all the Lawes) & likewise in respecte of the diligence of the Clerke & Sergeant officers thereto belonging: That every man & manservant of above 16 yeares of age shall pay into the handes & Custody of the Burgeffes of every Incorporation & plantation one pound of the best Tobacco, to be distributed to the Speaker, & likewise to the Clerke & Sergeant of the Asssembly, according to their degrees & rankes, the whole bulk whereof to be delivered into the Speakers handes, to be divided accordingly. And in regard to the Provost Marshall of James Citty hath also given some attendance upon the said General Asssembly, he is also to have a share out of the same. And this is to begin to be gathered the 24th of February nexte.

In conclusion the whole Asssembly comanded the Speaker (as nowe he doth) to present their humble excuse to the Treasurer Counsell & Company in England, for being constrained by the intemperature of the Weather, & the falling sick of diverse of the Burgeffes, to breake up so abruptly before they had so much as putt their Lawes to the ingrossing, this they wholly committed to the fidelity of their Speaker, who therein (his Conscience telles him) hath done the part of an honest man, Otherwise he would easily be found out by the Burgeffes themselves, who wth all expedition, are to have so many bookes of the same Lawes, as there be both Incorporations & Plantations, in the Colony.

In the seconde place, the Asssembly doth most humbly crave pardon, that in so short a space they could bring their matter to no more perfection, being for the present enforced to send home Titles rather than Lawes, Propositions rather than resolutions, Attempts then Atchievements, hoping their courtesy will accepte our poore indeavour, and their wisdom will be ready to supporte the weaknes of this little flocke.

Thirdly, the General Asssembly doth humbly beseech the Treasurer Counsell & Company, that albeit it belongeth to them onely to allowe or to abrogate any Lawes w^{ch} we shall here enacte, and that it is their righte so to doe; yet that it would please them not to take it in ill parte, if these Lawes, w^{ch} we have nowe brought to light, do passe currant & be of force, till suche time as we may knowe their further pleasure out of Englande, for otherwise this people (who nowe at length have gott the raines of former servitude into their owne swindge¹) would in short time grow so insolent, as they would shake off all govern^{mt}, & there would be no living among them.

Their last humble suit is, that the said Counsell & Company would be pleased, as soon as they shall find it convenient, to make good their promise sett down at the conclusion of their comission for establishing the Counsell of Estate & the General Asssembly: namely that they will give us power to allowe or disallowe of their Orders of Courte, as his Majesty hath given them power to allowe or to reject our Lawes.

In suite Sir George Yearly the Govern^{or} prorogued the said General Asssembly till the first of Marche which is to fall out this present yeare 1619, And in the mean season dissolved the same.

¹ "Swindge" is a misspelling of "fwinge," which is an obsolete word meaning sway, or power.

[From Neill's Virginia Company of London, pp. 274-286. The extracts here copied give a contemporary account of the session of the General Assembly held in November and December, 1621.]

Letter of Governor and Council of Virginia to the Company, written January 1621/2, and forwarded by Ship George.

Right Hono^{ble}

WE have received your Letter dated at London the 22d of September, 1622 [1621], by the Warwicke arrived here at James Cytie the 10th day of December, wherein you have manifested so great care of us, and the whole Colony as we cannot but with all thankfulness acknowledge ourselves much bounden unto you for the same, before the receipt of w^{ch} Letter we had (according to the instructions given us) taken order in the first Sessions of the generall Assembly, held in November and December, that great store of Vines and Mulberry trees should be planted in all places, and such as were growinge preferred and had expressly prohibited the destroyinge of mulberry trees in the clearinge of Groundes.

At w^{ch} Assembly we did plainly perceive that the whole country was very well affected to the planting of both and to the receiving of silk-worme foode, and that y^t is our earnest desire that you would be pleased to proceed in this course, and of sending us all sortes of Vines in great abundance, as alsoe great store of all sortes of the best graine, as wheate, Barlie, Oates, and pease of all the best kindes, for though we be very desirous to fall to the sowinge of all sortes of our English graine as well as Indian (since this Countrey is very proper for them, and that there [is] so much cleare grounde in the Colonie) wherein a plowe may be able to goe yet are we at this tyme very much unprovided of any good feed corne, for our wheate w^{ch} was first brought hither from the French Colonie is not only of a small and bad kinde, but hath been also much decayed (since it came hither) for wante of well cultivatinge the grounde.

For the drawinge of the People from the excessive planting of Tobacco, we have by the consent of the generall Assembly restrained them to one hundred plants ye headd, upon eache of w^{ch} plantes there are to be left butt onely nyne leaves w^{ch} proportions as neere as could be guessed, was generally conceived would be agreeable wth the hundred waight you have allowed. By w^{ch} meanes as also by the course that we have taken for the keepinge of every man to his Trade we doubt nott butt very much to prevent the Imoderate planting of Tobacco. But nothing can more encourage all men to the planting of corne in abundance and soe divert them from planting of Tobacco, then you would be pleased (since y^t you desire that great plenty of Corne be planted here as well for such multitudes of people as you hope yearly to send over, as for our owne selves to allow us a Marchantable Rate here for our Corne, either to be paid by Bills of Exchange in England or in Commodities to be deliuered here at 25 p. centum, the prise of 7s the Bushell being proposed by the generall Assembly was by us thought very reasonable since the Corne you send over besides the hazard of being lost or spoiled at Sea, doth stand you in as much or more the charge or freight in Cask considered.

* * * * *

By the consent of the last Generall Assembly there y^s a large Contribution to be underwritten for the buildinge of a howse of Entertainment at James * * * and therefore woode earnestly desire y^t you would be pleased to send over some * * * of Carpenters Brickmakers and Bricklayers of w^{ch} usefull trades there is very great want, and for whose labour we wilbe content to paye after a good rate.

* * * * *

We have heerin sent you a piec[t] [project] of Capt Newces w^{ch} yf you shalbe pleased to take likinge of y^t is thought here, will yeelde you a more certain profit than your Tenants to halfe, w^{ch} being proposed to the generall Assembly, was by them very well approved of: we have upon his Petition and deepe protestations (y^t he is utterlie ignorant in the busines of the Sawinge Mills) sent home the Dutchmans Sonne who cam over hither only for the commforte of his father, and the rather to discharge you of the payinge of unnecessary wages.

PAPERS

The anfwere of the Generall Affembly in Virginia to a Declaration of the ftate of the Colonie in the 12 yeers of S^r Thomas Smiths Gouverment, exhibited by Alderman Johnfon and others.

HOLDINGE it a finne againft God, and ou^r owne fufferinge, to fuffer the World to be abufed wth untrue reportes, and to giue unto vice the reward of vertue, we in the name of the whole Colonie of Virginia, in our generall affembly, many of us hauing beene eye witneffes and patients of thofe tymes haue framed out of our duty to this country, and loue unto truth, this Difmaskinge of thofe prayfes w^{ch} are containyd in the forefaid declarationes.

In thofe 12 yeers of S^r Tho: Smith his gouernment, we auerr that the Colony for y^e moft p^{te} remayned in greate want and mifery under moft feuerer and Crewell lawes fent ouer in printe, and contrary to the exprefse Letter of the Kinge in his moft gracious Charter, and as mercyleffly executed, often times without tryall or Judgment. The allowance in thofe tymes for a man was only eight ounces of meale and half a pinte of peafe for a daye the one & y^e other mouldy, rotten, full of Cobwebs and Maggots loathfome to man and not fytt for beafts, w^{ch} forced many to flee for reliefe to the Savage Enemy, who being taken againe were putt to fundry deaths as by hanginge, fhootinge and breakinge uppon the wheele & others were forced by famine to filch for their bellies, of whom one for fteeling 2 or 3 pints of oatmeale had a bodkinge thruft through his tongue and was tyed wth a chaine to a tree untill he ftarued, yf a man through his ficknefs had not been able to worke, he had no allowance at all, and fo confequently perifhed many through thefe extremities, being weery of life digged holes in the earth and hidd themfelues till they famifhed.

We cannott for this our fcarfitie blame our Comanders heere, in refpect that o^r fuffenance was to come from England, for had they at that time giuen us noe better allowance we had perifhed in generall, fo lamentable was our fcarfitie that we were conftained to eat Doggs, Catts, ratts, Snakes, Toad-ftooles, horfehides and w^t nott, one man out of the myfery he endured, killinge his wiefe powdered her upp to eate her, for w^{ch} he was burned. Many befides fedd on the Corps of dead men, and one who had gotten unfatiable, out of cuftome to that foode could not be refrayned, until fuch tyme as he was executed for it, and indeed foe miferable was our eftate that the happyeft day that euer fome of them hoped to fee, was when the Indyans had killed a mare they wifhing whilft fhe was boylinge y^t S^r Tho: Smith was uppon her backe in the kettle.

And whereas it is affirmed that there were very fewe of his Ma^{ties} fubiefts left in thofe dayes and thofe of the meaneft ranke, we anfwere y^t for one that now dyes, there then perifhed fiue, many beinge of Auncyent Howfes and borne to eftates of 1000^l by the yeere, fome more, fome lefs who likewife perifhed by famine. Thofe who furuived who had both aduentured their eftates and prfonnes were conftained to ferue the Colony as if they had been flaves, 7 or 8 yeeres for their freedomes, who underwent as hard and feruile labor as the bafeft fellow that was brought out of Newgate.

And for difcouery we faye that none was difcouered in thofe 12 yeeres, and in thefe 4 or 5 laft yeers much more than formerly.

For o^r howfes and churches in thofe tymes they were fo meane and poore by reafon of thofe calamities that they could not ftand aboue one or two yeeres, the people neuer goinge to worke but out of y^e bitternes of their fpirrits threatning execrable curfes uppon S^r: Thomas Smith, neither could a bleffinge from god be hoped for in thofe buildings w^{ch} were founded uppon y^e bloud of foe many Chriftians.

The Townes were only James Cytie, Henryco, Charles hundred, West & Sherley hundred, hundred, and Kiccoughtan all w^{ch} in those tymes were ruined alfoe, unles some 10 or 12 howses in y^t Corporation of James Cyttie at this present tyme are 4 for euer one that were there, and forty times exceedinge in Goodnesse, fortifications there were none at all against y^e foraigne enemy, and those that were against the domestick very few and contemptible, Bridges there was only one w^{ch} also decayde in that tyme, yf through the forsaide calamities many had not perished we doubt not but there might haue been many more than 1000 people in the lande when S^r Thomas Smith left the Gouverment.

But we conceiue y^t when S^r George Yardly arriued Gouno^r hee found not aboue 400, most of those in want of corne, nearly destitute of cattle, swyne, poultreys and other necessary p^ruisions to nourish them. Ministers to instruct the people there were some whose sufficiency and abilitie we will not tax, yet diuers of them had no Orders.

We knowe not at any time y^t we exceeded in Armes, Powder & munitions, but y^t in qualitie almost altogether uselesse. We acknowledg in those times there was a tryall made of diuers staple Commodities, the Colony as then not hauinge meanes to p^rceed therein, we hope in tyme there may be some better p^rgressions be made, and had it not beene for the Maffacre may by this had beene brought to p^rfectione, as for boats in the tyme of y^t Gouvermt there was only one left y^t was seruiceable in the Colonie, for w^{ch} one besides 4 or 5 Shipps and pynnaces, there are now not so fewe as 40, the barques, and barges y^t then were built in number few, so unwillinglie and weakly by the people effected, y^t in the same time they also fished [perished] we neuer p^rceaued y^t the natiues of the Countrey did voluntarily yeeld themselves subiects to our gracyous Souraigne, nether that they took any pride in that title, nor p^ruide at any tyme any contrybutione of corne for sustentation of y^e Colony, no^r could we at any tyme keepe them in such good respect of correspondency as we became mutually helpful each to the other but contrarily w^t at any [time] was doune p^rceeded from feare and not loue, and their corne p^rcured by trade or the sword.

To w^t growth of p^rfectione the Colony hath attayned at y^e end of those 22 [12] yeeres wee conceaue may easily be iudged by w^t we haue formerly saide. And rather to be reduced to liue under the like Goument we desire his Ma^{tye} y^t Commiffioners may be sent ouer, wth authoritie to hange us.

Alderman Johnson, one of y^e Authors of this Declaratione hath reafone to comend him to whose offences and infamies he is so inseparably chained.

By y^e generall reporte of y^e Country w^{ch} we neuer hard contradicted, we affirme this to be true whereof all or y^e most p^rte were eye witnesses or resident in y^e Country when euery p^rticular within written were effected.

[Letter of the Governor, Council, and Affembly of Virginia to the king in reply to Capt. Nathaniel Butler's "Unmasking of Virginia." Copied from Stith's History of Virginia (Williamsburg, 1747), pp. 307-312.]

Most gracious Sovereign,

WHEREAS a Copy of an Information, presented to Your Majesty by Captain Nathaniel Butler, entitled, The Unmasking of Virginia, is come to our Hands: and whereas the same is full of notorious Slanders and Falshoods, proceeding from the Malice of his corrupt Heart, and abetted by private Emnity and publick Divifion, which aim at the Satisfaction of their particular Spleen, altho' it be to the Subverfion of this whole Colony; Wee, the Governor, Council, and Colony of Virginia, in our General Affembly, out of Zeal and Respect to Your Majesty and this our Country, not to suffer Your sacred Ears to be prophaned with false Suggestions, nor Your Royal Thoughts to be diverted from fo hopeful a Plantation, which may add in time a principal Flower to Your Diadem, do, in all Humblenefs, submit this our Answer to Your Princely Survey, annexed to the severall Untruths of the said Informer.

1. I found the Plantations generally seated, &c.

THE Plantations, for the most Part, are high and pleasantly seated: and the rest not low, nor infested with Marshes, which, we wish, were more frequent. The Creeks are rather useful, than noisome; and no Bogs have been seen here by any, that have lived twice as many Years, as he did Weeks, in the Country; the Places which he so miscalls, being the richest Parts of the Earth, if we had a sufficient Force to clear their Woods, and to give the fresh Springs, which run through them, a free Passage. The Soil is generally rich, and restores our Trust with Abundance; the Air is sweet, and the Clime healthful, all Circumstances considered, to Men of sound Bodies and good Government.

2. I found the Shores, &c.

In this he traduceth one of the goodliest Rivers in the habitable World, which runs for many Miles together within upright Banks, till at length, enlarged with the Receipt of others, it beats on a sandy Shore, and imitates the Sea in Greatness and Majesty. It is approachable on both Sides, from half Flood to half Ebb, for Boats of good Burthen; neither is there any River in the World of this Vastness, without Cranes or Wharfs, more commodious for landing. And it is equally contrary to Truth, that by wading we get violent Surfeits of Cold, which never leave us, till we are brought to our Graves.

3. THE new People, sent over, arriving for the most Part, &c.

We affirm, that the Winter is the only proper time for the Arrival of new Comers; whereof the Governor and Council have often, by their Letters, informed the Company; and the like Advice has been given to their Correspondents, from time to time, by private Planters, for their Supply of Servants. As to Houses of Entertainment, there was a general Subscription, amounting to an unexpected Sum, and Workmen actually employed, to build a fair Inn in James City, and every principal Plantation had resolved on the like, for the Entertainment of their new Supplies; when it pleased God, to punish our Crimes by the bloody Hands of the Indians, which obliged us to divert that Care to the Housing ourselves, many of us having been unfurnished by that Disaster. But Buildings of late have every where encreased exceedingly; neither have new Comers any Reason to complain, when every Man's House is, without Recompence, open to the Stranger, even to the disaccommodating ourselves. So that we may with Modesty boast, that no People in the World do exercise the like Hospitality. As for dying under Hedges (whereof there are none in Virginia) or lying unburied in the Woods, by reason of this Defect, it is utterly false. However, if such things should sometimes be seen accidentally here, the like may, and often doth happen, in the most flourishing Countries of Europe.

4. THE Colony was, this Winter, in great Distress, &c.

THE Colony, that Winter, was in no Distress of Victual, as the Accuser well knoweth. For he bought Corn himself for eight Shillings a Bushel, cheaper, as we hear, than it was then sold in England. It is true, a succeeding Scarcity was feared. But what less could be expected, after such a Massacre; when near half the Colony were driven from their Habitations in time of planting, others streightened in their Ground by receiving them, and all interrupted in their Buſiness by supporting a sudden War? English Meal sold, as he affirmeth, at thirty Shillings the Bushel, was only sold for ten Pounds of Tobacco: for which, in truck, we ordinarily receive under twelve Pence a Pound, real Value. And it is not to be supposed, that any of the Great should affect Scarcity, in order to enrich themselves by Trade. For Trade hath ever been free for us all; neither have they, who have brought in most Corn, sold it out at unconscionable Rates, but have often freely imparted it to the Necessity of others, without any other Advantage than Repayment. We agree with that Prime-one, who wished, that Corn might never be under eight Shillings a Bushel; meaning in Tobacco at three Shillings a Pound. For so there would be some Proportion between the Profit of making the one and the other, and Corn would thereby be planted in greater Abundance.

5. THEIR Houses are generally the worst, &c.

OUR Houses, for the most Part, are rather built for Use than Ornament; yet not a few for both, and fit to give Entertainment to Men of good Quality. If we may give Credit to those, who are accounted the most faithful Relaters of the West-Indies, many Cities of great Rumour there, after threecore Years Progress, are not to be compared in their Buildings to ours. And so far are they from the meanest Cottages in England, that many Towns there have hardly one House in them, which exceedeth ours in Conveniency or Structure. The greatest Disparagement, that some of them received, proceeded from his Riots and lascivious Filthiness with lewd Women, purchased with Rials of Eight and Wedges of Gold, the Spoils of the distressed Spaniards in Bermudas; which, as we are informed by a Gentleman of good Credit, who casually surveyed his Inventory, did, with other Treasure, amount to divers Thousands. As for the Interposition of Creeks, which Men are most desirous to seat upon, where we cannot go by Land, we have Boats and Canoes, for our sudden Transport on any Occasion.

6. I found not the least Piece of Fortification, &c.

WE have, as yet, no Fortifications against a foreign Enemy, altho' it hath been endeavoured by the Company, with a Success unanswerable to their Care and Expence; as also lately by ourselves. But the Work, being interrupted by the Scarcity of last Summer, shall proceed again, God willing, with all convenient Expedition; and almost all our Houses are sufficiently fortified against the Indians, with strong Palisadoes. His Envy would not let him number truly the Ordinance at James City; four Demi-Culverins being there mounted, and all serviceable. At Flower-de-Hundred, he makes but one of six; neither was he ever there, but, according to his Custom, reporteth the unseen as seen. The same Envy would not let him see the three Pieces at Newport's-News, and those two at Elisabeth-City. Two great Pieces there are at Charles Hundred, and seven at Henrico. Besides which, several private Planters have since furnished themselves with Ordinance. So that it were a desperate Enterprize, and unlikely to be attempted by a Man of his Spirit, to beat down our Houses about our Ears, with a Bark of that Burthen.

7. EXPECTING, according to their printed Books, &c.

THE time that this Informer came over, was in the Winter, after the Massacre; when those Wounds were green, and the Earth deprived of her Beauty. His Ears were open to nothing but Detraction, and he only enquired after the Factious, of which there were none among us, and how he might gather Accusations against those in the Government, being, as it should seem, sent over for that Purpose. Otherwise he could not but hear of our Proclamations for the Advancement of Staple Commodities, and with what Alacrity and Success they proceeded; Vines and Mulberry Trees being planted throughout the whole Country, the Iron-Works in great Forwardness and shortly to receive Perfection, and the Glass-Works laboured after with all possible Care, till the Slaughter by the Indians, and the succeeding Mortality, gave a Ruin to some, and Interruption to all. So that he hath nothing but our Misfortunes to accuse and upbraid us with; which have obliged us, still to follow that contemptible Weed, as well to sustain the War, as to enable us again to erect those Works. As for deriding the Books, that were sent over by the Company, it was done by himself, and no other, that we know of.

8. I found the ancient Plantations of Henrico, &c.

STILL he abuses your Majesty with these Words, I found, in Places, where he never was by some Score of Miles; having never been higher up the River, than the Territories of James City. Henrico was quitted in Sir Thomas Smith's Time, only the Church and one House remaining. Charles City, so much spoken of, never had but six Houses. The Soil of both is barren, worn out, and not fit for Culture. The Loss of our Stocks the Informer hath less Reason to urge. For he joined with the Indians in killing our Cattle, and carried the Beef aboard his Ship; which would have cost him his Life, if he had had his Deserts.

9. WHEREAS according to his Majesty's gracious, &c.

THE Governor and Council, whom it only concerned, replied to this; that they had followed the Laws and Customs of England to their utmost Skill; neither could he, or any other, produce any Particular, wherein they had failed. As to their Ignorance, they held him to be no competent Judge of those, who so far transcended him in Point of Learning and Ability. For he had never been bred to the Law (as was not unknown to some of them) nor yet in any other of the liberal Sciences. But his principal Spleen in this Article, appeared to proceed from his not being admitted of the Council, which they could by no means, consistently with their Instructions, do.

10. THERE having been, as it is thought, ten thousand, &c.

HIS Computation of ten thousand Souls falleth short of four thousand; and those were, in great part, waisted by the more than Egyptian Slavery and Scythian Cruelty, which was exercised on us, your poor and miserable Subjects, by Laws written in Blood, and executed with all Sorts of Tyranny, in the Time of Sir Thomas Smith's Government; whereof we send your Majesty the true and tragical Relation, from which it will plainly appear, that the pretended Confusions and private Ends will strongly reflect upon him and his Instructors. And how unfit such Men are, to restore that Plantation, which suffered so much under their Government, we humbly refer to your princely Consideration; invoking, with him, that divine and supreme Hand, to protect us from such Governors and their Ministers, who have poured out our Blood on the Earth like Water, and have fattened themselves with our Famine. And we beseech your Majesty, to support us in this just and gentle Authority, which has cherished us of late by more worthy Magistrates; and We, our Wives, and poor Children, as is our Duty, shall ever pray to God, to give you in this World all Increase of Happiness, and to crown you in the World to come, with immortal Glory.

To the Kinges most excellent Ma^{tie}

The humble Petition of the Governour Counsell and Collony of Virginia in their Generall Affemblic.

Humbly sheweth,

THAT whereas to our great Comfort, we have lately understood that Your Ma^{tie} notwithstanding the unjust disparagements of this Plantation, hath taken y^t into yo^r more neere and especial care; that yo^r Royall intentions may have their one effecte, We, urged by our duty and experiences, doe humbly beseech that credit may not be given to the late declarations presented to yo^r highnes concerneinge the happie, but indeed miserable estate of the Collony duringe the first twelve yeares; neither to those malicious imputations, w^{ch} have ben layde on the latter: but to be pleased to beholde in little the true estate of both, by our relations w^{ch} we now present by the handes of M^r John Pontis a worthy member of our bodye, conteyninge conteyninge nothinge but the truth, wthout diffection or partialitye, whereby we doubt not but Yo^r Ma^{tie} will underftande of the Condition of both tymes; and be pleased, accordinge to our earneft defires to continue the Government under w^{ch} we live: confirmed by yo^r Princely care and fupportance: But if yt fhall pleafe Yo^r Ma^{tie} otherwise to determine, our prayers folicite your tender Compaffion that you will not fuffer yo^r poore Subjectes to fall into the handes of Sir Tho: Smith or his Confidents, who have lately abufed yo^r Sacred cares wth wronge Informations; but that yo^u will gratioufly protect us from thofe groweing ftormes ingendered by faction w^{ch} prefage the fubverfion of fome whose endeavors have deferved a better rewarde, and in generall of the wholl Plantation. And that we may depend upon noe meaner perfons then of late we have doune fince the Action is of fuch hono^r and confequence. And in that by the late Maffacre, continued warre, and meane prizes of Tobacco, we are difabled for fetting up ftaple Comodities, extirpation of the perfidious Salvages (much leffe for fortification againft a forrein enymie) We humblie follicite the effect of yo^r Ma^{ties} gracious intention for our, and the Somer Iflandes, fole importation of tobacco: befecchinge yo^r Ma^{tie} to believe that we affect not that Contemptible weede as an end, but as a prefent meanes whereof We doubt not ere longe to give yo^r Ma^{tie} a reall affurance. And if Yo^r Ma^{tie} fhall be gratioufly pleased to fend over that aid of Souldiers, whereof we have been put in hope, or what other fupport Yo^r Royall bounty fhall afforde us: Wee moft humblie defire that the Gouverno^r, Counfell and General Affembly may have a voyce in their difpofall, fince none at that diftaunce by reafon of accidents and emergent occafions can direct y^t, fo advantagiously as our prefence and experience And we our Wives and poore Children fhall ever praye to God, as is our dutie, to give you in this worlde all increafe of happines and to crowne you in the World to come wth imortall Glorye.

Right Hono^{ble},

WEE have received divers letters from yo^r Lo^{ps} fome to the Gov^r and counfell in perticuler others to the Collony in generall, wth Coppies of yo^r orders from the Company, and laftly other orders brought over by M^r *Povey*¹. By them all we underftande the princely care that his Ma^{tie} hath of this Plantation, for w^{ch} we retorne our humbleft thankes and earnestly folicite the continuance of his favo^r

By the firft we underftoode of his Ma^{ties} remittinge of thre pence in the fhillinge in the Cufomes of his tobacco, and of grauntinge unto us the fole importation: then w^{ch} there is nothinge that will give more life or a speedier advancement to this Collony, for little or nothinge can be expected from povertye to w^{ch} the meane prizes therof and great charges of warre have reduced us neither have wee, in this eftate wherin we are, the meanes to fortifie, nor to fett up thofe ftaple comodities w^{ch} require a longe expectation

tion of proffitt: all the fruites of o^r labors amountinge to noe more (if foe much) then will cloth and feed us. Wee therefore humblie intreat yo^r Lo^{ps} that yo^u will take Com^{er}iffiration of us, and be a meanes to his Ma^{tie} to confirme his former intention, wth all to take into yo^r hono^{ble} confiderations that heavy burthen in paycinge for Customes above a thirde of o^r labo^{rs} w^{ch} we desire may bee reduced to five in the hundred accordinge to his Ma^{ties} gracious letters Patents. Wee further underftande by yo^r Lo^{ps} letters, that we have been accused by one that came from hence of neglect of fortifications of buildinge of houfes and provideinge of sustenance: againft whome we protest that his relation as in other thinges, foe in this, is untrue and slanderous. We have in due submiffion to yo^r Lo^{ps} published yo^r orders sent over by M^r Povey^r whereby wee underftande his Ma^{ties} intention in changeinge the Government of this Collony, we are ignorant of the dangers and ruynes that might have befallen us by the continuance of the former, neither have we any thinge to accuse them wth that have fwayed our affaires, since the expiration of S^r Thomas Smyths authoritye, our slavery haveinge since been converted to freedome, and wee cherished under a juft and moderate Govern^t: neither had they nor wee been subject to fenfure, if the bitter effects of the Maffacre had not clouded their zeale and our endeav^{rs} yet howsoever yt pleafeth his Ma^{tie} to difpofe of us, it is our humble desire, that the Governo^{rs} that are sent over may not have absolute authoritye, but may bee refrayned as formerly by the consent of this Counsell, w^{ch} tittle we desire may be retayned to the hono^r of this Plantation, and not converted to the name of affiftantes, some inconvenyences we have founde by the ftrickt limitations of the Governo^r and Counsell by instructions out of Englande, since in fo farre a diftance and not perfect knowledge of the Country that may seeme good in advife, w^{ch} may by accident prove otherwife in execution, neither holde we yt fitt that any mayne project be fett a foot, w^{ch} hath not from hence approbation, besides we suppose that the fhort continuance of Governo^{rs} in their places is very difadvantagious to the Collony, who for the first yeare are rawe in experience and for the most part in Ill difpofition of health through the change of the Clymate, the seconde yeare they beginn to underftande the affaires of the Country, and the thirde provide for their retorne. But above all we humblie intreat yo^r Lo^{ps} that we may retaine the libertie of our generall Affemblye, then w^{ch} nothinge can more conduce to our fatisfaction or the publique utilitie. Thus submittinge ourfelves and our affaires to yo^r hono^{ble} patronage, We humblie take our leaves.

[From Colonial Records of Virginia, pp. 69-83.]

A Breife Declaration of the Plantation of Virginia duringe the first Twelve Yeares, when Sir Thomas Smith was Governor of the Companie, & downe to this present tyme. By the Ancient Planters nowe remaining alive in Virginia.

WHEREAS in the beginnige of Sir Thomas Smiths twelve yeares government, it was published in printe throughout the Kingdome of Englande that a Plantation should be settled in Virginia for the glorie of God in the propagation of the Gospell of Christ, the conversion of the Savages, to the honour of his Majesty, by the enlargeinge of his territories and future enrichinge of his kingdome, for which respects many noble & well minded persons were induced to adventure great sums of money to the advancement of soe pious & noble a worke, who have from the very first been frustrate of their expectation, as wee conceive, by the misgovernment of Sir Thomas Smith, aiminge at nothings more then a perticular gaine, to be raised out of the labours of such as both voluntarilie adventured themselves and were otherwise sent over at the common charge. This will cleerely appeare in the examination of the first expedition & severall supplies in the tyme of his government.

The first Plantation in Virginia consisted of one hundred persons, so slenderly provided for that before they had remained halfe a yeare in this new Collony they fell into extreame want, not havinge anything left to sustein them save a little ill conditioned Barley, which ground to meal & pottage made thereof, one smale ladle full was allowed each person for a meale, without bread or aught else whatsoever, so that had not God, by his great providence, moved the Indians, then our utter enemies, to bringe us reliefe, we had all utterlie by famine perished. How unable so small a companie of people, soe poorely sent over, were to make way for such as shoulde followe, may easily be judged.

The first supplie beinge two shippes, the John & Francis & Phenix, with one hundred & twenty persons, worfe every way provided for then the former, arrived heere about eight or nine months after & found the Collony consisting of no more then forty persons (of those) tenn only able men, the rest at point of death, all utterly destitute of howses, not one as yet built, so that they lodged in cabbins & holes within the grounde; victualls they had none, save some small reliefe from the Indians, as some yet living weare feelinge witnesse, neither were we for our future and better maintenance permitted to manure or till any grounde, a thing in a new Plantation principally to be regarded, but weare by the direction of Sir Thomas Smith, and his officers heere, wholly imployed in cuttinge downe of mafts, cedar, blacke wallnutt, clapboarde, &c., and in digginge gould oare (as some thought) which beinge sent for England proved dirt. These works to make retorne of present proffit hindered others of more necessary consequence of Plantation.

After this first supplie there were some few poore howses built, & entrance made in cleeringe of grounde to the quantitye of foure acres for the wholl Collony, hunger & sickness not permitting any great matters to bee donne that yeare.

The second supplie was a ship the Mary Margett, which arrived here nine months after, about the time of Michaellmas, in her sixty persons, most gentlemen, few or no tradesmen, except some Polanders to make Pitch, tarre, potashes, &c., to be returned for present gaine, soe meanly likewise were these furnished forth for victualls, that in lesse then two monthes after their arrivall, want compelled us to imploye our time abroad in trading with the Indians for corne; whereby though for a time we partly relieved our necessities, yet in Maye followinge we weare forced (leavinge a small garde of gentlemen & some others about the president at James Towne) to disperse the wholl Collony, some amongst the Salvages but most to the Oyfter Banks, where they lived upon oyfters for the space of nine weekes, with the allowance only of a pinte of Indian corne to each man for a week, & that allowance of corne continued to them but two weekes of the nine, which kinde of feedinge caused all our skinns to peelee off, from head to foote, as if we had beene flead¹. By this time arrived Captaine Samuell Argall in a small Barque, with him neither supplee of men nor victualls from the Company; but we understandinge that he had some small provisions of bread and wine, more then would serve his owne companie, required him and the master of the Barque to remaine ashoare whilst we might bring his failes ashoare the better to assure us of his ship & such provisions as could be spared, whereunto he seemed willingly to condescend. Those provisions, at a small allowance of Biskett, cake, and a small measure of wine or beere to each person for a Daye some what relieved us for the space of a month, at the end of which time arrived the thirde supplee, called Sir Thomas Gates, his fleet, which consisted of seaven shippes & neere five hundred persons with whom a small proportion of victuall, for such a number, was landed; howses few or none to entertain them, so that being quartered in the open feilde they fell upon that small quantitye of corne, not beinge above seaven acres, which we with great penury & sufferance had formerly planted, and in three days, at the most, wholly devoured it.

These numbers, thus meanly provided, not being able to subsist and live together weare soone after divided into three parties and dispersed abroad for their better reliefe. The first under commande of Captaine Francis West to seat at the head of the River; a second under commande of Captaine John Smith, the President, at James Towne, & the other, with Capt. John Martin, in the River at Nansamun, which divisions gave occasions to the Indians treacherously to cutt off divers of our men & boates, and forced the rest at the end of fixe weekes, havinge spent those small provisions they had with them, to retire to James Town & that in the depth of winter, when by reason of the colde, it was not possible for us to endure to wade in the water (as formerly) to gather oyfters to satisfie our hungry stomacks, but constrained to digge in the grounde for unwholesome rootes whereof we were not able to get so many as would suffice us, in respect of the frost at that season & our poverty & weaknes, so that famine compelled us wholly to devoure those Hogges, Dogges & horses that weare then in the Collony, together with rates, mice, snakes, or what vermin or carryon soever we could light on, as alsoe Toad-stooles, Jewes eares, or what els we founde growing upon the grounde that would fill either mouth or belly; and weare driven through unsufferable hunger unnaturallie to eat those thinges which nature most abhorred, the flesh and excrements of man, as well of our owne nation as of an Indian, digged by some out of his grave after he had laien buried three daies & wholly devoured him; others, envyinge the better state of bodie of any whom hunger had not yet so much waisted as there owne, lay waight and threatened to kill and eat them; one amonge the rest slue his wife as she slept in his bosome, cutt her in peeces, powdered her & fedd upon her till he had clean devoured all partes saveinge her heade, & was for soe barbarouse a fact and cruelty justly executed. Some adventuringe to seeke releife in the woods, dyed as they fought it, & weare eaten by others who found them dead. Many putt themselves into the Indians handes, though our enemies, and were by them slaine. In this extremitye of famine continued the Collony till the twentieth of Maye, when unexpected, yet happely, arrived Sir Thomas Gates & Sir George Somers in two small Barques which they built in the Sommer Islands after the wreake of the Sea adventure wherin they sett forth from Englande, with them one hundred persons barely provided of vittell for themselves. They founde the Collony consistinge then of but sixty persons most famished and at point of death, of whom many soone after died; the lamentable outcries of theirs soe moved the hartes of those worthies, not being in any sorte able long to relieve their wantes they soone resolved to imbarque themselves & this poore remainder of the Collonye, in those two pinnaces & two other small Barques then in the River, to sett saile for Newfoundland where they might relieve their wants & procure one safer passage for Englande. Every man, glad of this resolution, laboured his uttmost to further it, so that in three weekes we had fitted those barques and pinnaces (the best we could) & quitted James Towne, leaving the poore buildings in it to the spoile of the Indians, hopeinge never to retorne to re-poffess them. When we had not failed downe the River above twelve miles but we espied a boat which afterwards we understoode came from the right Honourable Lorde La Ware, who was then

then arrived at Point Comfort with three good shippes, wherein he brought two hundred and fifty persons with some store of Provisions for them; but by reason he founde the Collony in so great want was forced to put both his owne people & the rest of the Collony to a very meane allowance, which was seven pounce of Englisch meale for a man a weeke, & five pounds for every woman, without the addition of any victuall whatsoever, except, in the stead of meale, we took valuablie either pease or oatmeale. Upon the arrival of that boat, Sir Thomas Gates understandinge from the Lord La Ware, that his Lordship was arrived with commission from the Company to be Gov^r & Capt. Gen^l of Virginia, & had brought men & provisions for the subsistinge & advancing of the Plantation, he the very next daye, to the great grieve of all his Company (only except Capt. John Martin), as winde and weather gave leave, returned his whole company with charge to take possession againe of those poore ruinated habitations at James Towne which he had formerly abandoned; himselfe in a boate proceeded downward to meete his Lordship who, making all speede up, arrived shortly after at James Towne. The time of the yeare being then most unseasonable, by intemperate heat, at the end of June his people suddenly falling generally into most pestilent diseases of Callentures and feavors, not lesse then one hundred & fifty of them died within few moneths after, & that chiefly for want of meanes to comfort them in their weak estates. The residue alsoe disabled by reason of sicknes could performe nothing that yeare to the advancement of the Collony, yet with the help of those people which had arrived with Sir Thomas Gates, together with some of the ancient Planters, who by use weare grown practique in a hard way of livinge, two small forts weare erected neare the rivers mouth at Kicoughtun, encompassed with small younge trees, haveinge for housing in the one, two formerlie built by the Indians & covered with bark by them, in the other a tent with some few thacht cabbins which our people built at our comming thether. We founde divers other Indian Howses built by the natives which by reason we could make no use of we burnt, killinge to the number of twelve or fourteene Indians, & possesseing such corne as we founde growinge of their plantinge. We remained there untill harvest, when we reaped (besides what we spent) about the quantitie of one hundred and fiftie bushells of corne, which, by order from the Lord La Ware, was transported to James Towne.

His Lordship intendinge to send up certain forces to march towards the mountaines for the discoverie of gold or silver mines at the end of October, sent his Patents to Captaine Yardley and Captaine Holcroft, commanders of those two forts at Kicoughtan, wherein his Lordship gave order that they should be forthwith abandoned & the people with all speede to be brought to James Citie, there to prepare for his intended march.

At that time there arrived a small ship call the daintie, with twelve men & one woman, some little provision of victuall, two or three horses & some other flight necessities for the Collony. Soon after we sett forward for our intended march, haveinge for our leaders Captaine Edwarde Brewster & Captaine George Yeardley, being in number one hundred persons, furnished with all such necessary provisions, as the Collony at that time out of its poverty was able to provide. This designe was hindered by reason of the unfortunate losse of all our chieffe men skillfull in findeinge out mines, who weare treacherously slaine by the Salvages (inviteinge them ashoare to eat victualls which they wanted) even when the meate was in their mouthes, they careinge only to fill their bellies, forefaw not to prevent this danger which befell them.

This injury we revenged for the present (as we coulde) by killinge some Indians and burninge many houses, but by reason of this disafter we proceeded not farther on our journey then the head of the River, where we spent about three moneths doinge little but induringe much; his Lordship was there in person for the most part of that time, but his disease of body groweing much upon him he resolved to retire to James Towne, givinge order that the fort which we had built there shoulde bee quitted and the troupe drawn downe, which accordingly was done. His Lordship then in regarde of his sickness was advised to putt to Sea in his ship, the Delaware, to seeke remedie in some other parts for the health of his bodye. At his going he left Captaine George Percie Deputie

Deputie Governor, the people (remaining under his command) provided for three months at a short allowance of victuals. The calamities of these times would not any way permit workes of great importance to bee performed, sith that we did was as much as we coule doe to live and defende our selves.

The Plantations helde at his Lordships departure were only James Towne and Pointe Comforte, where a small Fort fenced with Palifadoes, in it one flight howse, a store and some few thatcht cabbins, which shortly after by casualltie was burnt with fire; some few great ordinance were slenderlye mounted at James Towne and Pointe Comfort.

A fortnight after his Lordships departure arrived a small ship called the Hercules, with some thirty people and some provisions for them. The twelve of May followeing arrived Sir Thomas Dale with three ships and three hundred persons, his provisions for them of such qualitie (for the most part) as hogges refused to eat, some whereof were sent backe to England to testifie the same, and that the rest was not better was justified upon oath before the Hono^{ble} the Lorde Cheife Justice of the Common Pleas, at Gulde hall in London, by Sir Thos. Gates & two other gentlemen.

Sir Thomas Dale, takinge into consideration the precedent times not to have succeeded accordinge to the greedy desire of Sir Thomas Smith, presently employed the general Colony about the lading of those three ships with such freight as the country then yealded, but a little before the ships were readie to depart, Sir Thomas Gates arrived with three ships and three carvills, with him three hundred persons meanly provided with victualls for such a number. In this fleet, to our remembrance arrived sixtie cowes and some swine; it was his care to dispatch those shippes and carvills freighted (as aforefaid) to the neglect of workes of greater importance. Sir Thomas Dale immediatly upon his arrival, to add to that extremitie of miserye under which the Collonye from her infancie groaned, made and published most cruell and tiranous lawes, exceeding the strictest rules of marishall discipline, which lawes were sent over by Sir Thomas Dale to Sir Thomas Smith by the hande of M^r *William Starchey*¹, then Secretarie to the State, and were returned in print, with approbation, for our future government, as in divers bookes yet extant more fully appeareth.

At Michaellmas then next following, Sir Thomas Dale removed himself with three hundred persons for the buildinge of Henrico Towne, where being landed he oppressed his whole companie with such extraordinarye labors by daye and watchinge by night, as maye seeme incredible to the eares of any who had not the experimentall triall thereof. Wante of houses at first landinge in the colde of winter, and pinchinge hunger continually bitinge, made those imposed labours most insufferable, and the best fruits and effects thereof to be noe better then the slaughter of his Majestys free subjects by starveinge, hangeinge, burneinge, breakinge upon the wheele and shootinge to deathe, some (more than halfe famished) runninge to the Indians to gett reliefe beinge againe returned were burnt to death. Some for stealinge to fatisfie their hunger were hanged, and one chained to a tree till he starved to death; others attemptinge to run awaye in a barge and a shallop (all the Boates that were then in the Collonye) and therin to adventure their lives for their native countrye, beinge discovered and prevented, were shott to death, hanged and broken upon the wheele, besides continuall whippings, extraordinarye punishments, workinge as slaves in irons for terme of yeares (and that for petty offences) weare dayly executed. Many famished in holes and other poore cabbins in the grounde, not respected because sicknes had disabled them for labour, nor was their sufficient for them that were more able to worke, our best allowance being but nine ounces of corrupt and putrified meale and halfe a pinte of oatmeale or pease (of like ill condition) for each person a daye. Those provisions were sent over by one Winne a Draper, and Cafwell, a baker, by the appointment (as we conceive) of Sir Thomas Smith. Under this Tiranus Government the Collony continued in extreame slaverye and miserye for the space of five yeares, in which time many, whose necessities enforced the breach of those lawes by the strictnes and severitye thereof, suffered death and other punishments.

Divers gentlemen both there and at Henrico towne, and throughout the wholl Collonye (beinge great adventurers and no frendes or alliance to Sir Thomas Smith) weare feeling members of thofe generall calamities, as far forth as the meanest fellow fent over.

The buildings and fortifications of that Towne, or thereabouts, were noe way extraordinary, neither could want, accompanied with bloode and crueltie, effect better.

Fortification against a foreign enemy there was none, only two or three peeces of ordenance mounted, and against a domestic noe other but a pale inclofinge the Towne to the quantity of foure acres, within which thofe buildings that weare erected, coude not in any mans judgement, neither did stande above five yeares and that not without continuall reparations; true it is that there was a Bricke Church intended to be built, but not foe much as the foundation thereof ever finished, but we contentinge our selves with a church of wood answerable to thofe houses. Many other workes of like nature weare by him donne at Henrico and the precincts thereof, but so slightly as before his departure hence, he himself saw the ruine and defolation of most of them.

Sir Thomas Gates likewise in his time erected some buildinges in and about James Towne, which by continuall cost in repaireinge of them doe yet for the most part in some sort remaine.

A framed Bridge was alsoe then erected, which utterly decayed before the end of Sir Thomas Smiths government, that being the only bridge (any way foe to be called) that was ever in the country. At this time in all these labours, the miserye throughout the wholl Collony, in the scarcitye of foode was equall; which penurious and harde kinde of liveinge, enforced and emboldened some to petition to Sir Thomas Gates (then Governor) to grant them that favor that they might employ themselves in husbandry, that therby they and all others by plantinge of corne, might be better fed then thofe supplies of victual which were sent from Englande woulde afforde to doe, which request of theirs was denied unlesse they woulde paye the yearlye rent of three barrells of corne and one monthes worke to the Collonye, although many of them had been employed in the general workes and services of the Collony from the beginninge of the Plantation, which harde condition of Tenantship was then accepted rather then they woulde continue in thofe general services and employments noe waye better then slavery. Most part of the time that Sir Thomas Gates and Sir Thos. Dale governed we were at warre with the natives, so that by them divers times were many of our people slaine, whose blood Sir Thomas Dale neglected not to revenge, by divers and fundry executions, in killinge many, cuttinge downe and takinge away their corne, burninge their houses, spoiling their weares, &c.

In this time alsoe the two fortes, fort Henry and fort Charles, at Kicoughton, were againe erected with such buildings as were formerly expressed, not fortified at all against a forreine enemye, and against the Indian that common order of a pale or pallifadoe.

The supplies sent out of Englande while Sir Thos. Gates and Sir Thos. Dale governed were these; a small barque called the John and Francis, which brought few men and lesse victual; the next a small ship called the Sarah, with the like number of men and victuall; the next ship called the Treforer, wherein came Capt. Samuell Argoll, bringinge with him to the number of fiftie good men, which ship and men were wholly employed in Trade and other services for relievinge of the Collonye; the next ship, called the Elizabeth, with about thirteene persons, for them little provision; the next the same Elizabeth came againe, with some small store of provisions only; in her Sir Thos. Gates went for Englande, leavinge the government with Sir Thomas Dale.

A little before the departure of Sir Thomas Gates many of the ancient planters (by the infatigation of Sir Thomas Dale), uppon the promise of an absolute freedome after three yeares more to be expired (havinge most of them already served the Collonye six or seaven yeares in that general slavery) were yet contented to worke in the buildinge of Charles City and Hundred, with very little allowance of clothinge and victuall, and that only for the first yeare, being promised one moneth in the yeare, and one daye in the weeke from Maye daye till harvest, to gett our maintenance out of the earth without any any further helpe; which promise of Sir Thos. Dale was not performed, for out of that small time which was allowed for our maintenance we were abridged of nere halfe, soe that out of our daily taskes we were forced to redeeme time wherin to labour for our sustenance, thereby miserably to purchase our freedome. Yet so fell it out that our State (by Gods mercy) was afterwardec more happie then others who continued longer in the aforementioned slaverye; in which time we built such houses as before and in them lived with continual repairs, and buildinge new where the old failed, untill the massacre.

For matter of fortification in all this time, were only foure peeces of ordinance mounted for our defence against the natives. Soone after we were seated at Charles Hundred, Sir Thomas Dales resolved of a journey to Pamunkey River, there to make with the Salvages either a firme league of friendship or a present warre; they perceiving his intent inclined rather for peace (more for feare then love) which was then concluded betwixt them. That done we returned to our habitations where great want and scarcitie, oppressed us, that continuinge and increasinge, (our first harvest not yet being ripe) caused in many an intended mutinye, which beinge, by Gods mercy, discovered, the prime actors were duly examined and convicted, wherof fixe beinge adjudged and condemned were executed.

After this, arrived for supply a small ship called the John and Francis, with about twenty persons and little or noe provisions for them. The next ship, called the Trefozer, arrived heere with the number of twenty persons and as little provisions as the former, in which ship after many other designed were effected by Sir Thos. Dale, as makinge spoile of the Keschacks and Wariscoyacks, impalinge some necks of Lande, for defence against the Salvages, and in fishing for our reliefe, &c., he departed from Virginia, and left the Government to Captain George Yardley, under whom the Collony lived in peace and best plentye that ever it had till that time, yet most part of the people for that yeare of his Government continued in the generall services followinge their labors as Sir Thos. Dale left them by order.

At Michaemas followinge arrived a small ship called the Sufan, her lading (beinge the first Magazin) consistinge of some necessarye provisions of clothinge, as our wants required, which goods were bought by Sir Thos. Smith's factor, as we suppose, for a sufficient profit, exchanginge with us their commodities for our Tobacco.

At Christmas then followinge, just occasion beinge given by the Indians of Chiquohomini in many and several kindes of abuses, and in deridinge of our demandes, wherunto they had formerly agreed and conditioned with Sir Thomas Dale to paye us yearlye tribute, viz: a bushell of corne for every Boweman, for which, by agreement, we were to give to each man one peece of copper and one iron tomahawke, and to the eight chiefe men each a suit of redd cloth, which clothes and truckinge stufte we esteemed of more worth then their corne. These and the like grosse abuses moved our Governor, Captaine George Ycardley, to levye a company of men, to the number of eighty-four, to bee revenged upon those contemptous Indians, which he, accordinge to his desire, fully executed, and returned home with the spoile of them: concludinge, before his departure from them, a more firme league in appearance than formerly was, for that it continued unviolated almost the space of two yeares; our people freely travelinge from Town to Towne (both men, women and children) without any armes, and were by the Salvages lodged in their houses, every way kindly intreated and noe way molested.

In March followinge, our three yeares time beinge expired, as it was our due, we of Charles Hundred demanded our long desired freedome from that common and general servitude; unto which request Captaine George Yeardley, freely and willingly assented, to our great joy and comfort. Yet remained the most part of the Collony in the former servitude; part of whom were farmers, the rest employed in such workes as Sir Thomas Dale gave order for before his departure.

We that were freed, with our humble thanks to God, fell cheerfully to our particular labours, wherby to our great comfort, through his blessinge, we reaped a plentiful harvest.

In May followinge arived Captain Samuel Argoll with commiffion to be Governor. He brought with him to the number of a hundred perfons, partly at the charge of the Company and partly at the charge of private adventures; with them was brought a very little provifion for that nomber. At his arrival heere he founde the Collony in all parts well ftored with corne, and at Charles Hundred a granery well furnifhed by rentes lately raifed and received from the farmers, which corne he tooke poffeffion of, but how it was employed himfelfe can beft give an account. Whileft he governed, the Collony was fenderly provided of munition, whereby a ftrict proclamation was made for reftraint of waftinge or fhooting away of powder, under paine of great punifhment; which forbidinge to fhoot at all in our peeces caufed the loffe of much of oure corne then growinge upon the ground; the Indians perceivinge our forbearance to fhoot (as formerly) concluded thereupon that our peeces were, as they faide, ficke and not to be ufed; upon this, not longe after they were bould to prefume to affault fome of our people, whom they flew, therin breakinge that league, which before was fo fairly kept.

Duringe his time of Government moft of the people of the Collony remained (as formerly) in the common fervice, their freedome not beinge to be obtained without extraordinary payement.

The next fhip that arrived heere was the George, fett forth, as we fupofe, at the charge of private adventurers, but came foe meanly provided with victuall, that had not we, the old Planters, relieved them moft of them had been ftarved. The next fhips, called the Neptune and Treafurer, arived in Auguft followinge, fet out at the charge of the Right Hono^{ble} the Lord Laware, his noble affociates, and fome other private adventurers. The people w^{ch} arived were foe poorely victualled that had they not been diftributed amongft the old Planters they muft for want have perifhed; with them was brought a moft peftilent difeafe (called the Bloody flux) which infected all moft all the whole Collonye. That difeafe, notwithstanding all our former afflictions, was never knowne before amongft us.

The next fupply weare two fhips called the William & Thomas and the Guift, which arived in Januarie; the Guift beinge fett forth at the charge of the Societie of Martins Hundred, the other by the Magazin and fome private adventurers.

The next, a fmall fhip called the Elinor (fett forth at whofe charge we know not), arived heere in Aprill after, and in her Capt. Samuell argoll, leaving his Government, fhipt himfelfe for Englande. Whatfoever els befell in the time of his Government we omit to relate, much beinge, upon our oathes, already fufficiently examined and our anfwers fent for Englande.

By all which hath heertofore beene faide concerninge this Collony, from the infancie thereof and untill the expiration of Sir Thomas Smiths government, may eafily be perceived and plainly underftood what juft caufe he or any els have to boaft of the flourifhing eftate of thofe times, wherin fo great miferies and callamities were indured, and foe few werkes of moment or importance performed, himfelfe beinge juftly to be charged as a prime author thereof, by his neglect of providinge and alloweinge better meanes to proceede in fo great a worke, and in hindering very many of our frendes from fendinge much releife and meanes who beinge earnestly folicted from hence by our letters—wherin we lamentable complained unto them—have often befought Sir Thomas Smith that they might have leave to fupplie us at their owne charge both with provifion of victuall and all other neceffaries, wherin he utterlie denied them fo to doe, proteftinge to them that we were in noe want at all, but that we exceeded in abundance and plentie, of all things, fo that therby our frendes were moved both to defift from fendinge and to doubt the truth of our letters, moft part of which weare by him ufually intercepted and kept backe; farther giveinge order by his directions to the Governor heere, that all mens letters fhould be fearched at the goinge away of fhips, and if in anye of them weare founde that the true eftate of the Collony was declared, they were prefented to the Governor and the indighters of them feverely punifhed; by which meanes noe man durft make

make any true relation to his frendes of his owne or the Collonyes true estate; neither was it permitted to anye to have passe to goe home, but by force were kept heere and employed as we have saide (save some few), one of whom received his passe from the Kinge, and that closely made up in a garter, leaft it should have been seized upon and he kept heere notwithstandinge. Those whom their frendes procured their passe in open courte from the Companye were, by private direction, neverthelesse made staye of, others procuringe private letters having been lett goe.

We muft alsoe noat heere, that Sir Thos. Dale, at his arrivall finding himself deluded by the aforefaid protestations, pulled Capt. Newport by the beard, and threatninge to hang him, for that he affirmed Sir Thos. Smiths relation to be true, demandinge of him whether it weare meant that the people heere in Virginia shoulde feed upon trees.

Soe may we heere conclude, as some have concluded for him, to what great growth of perfection (with the expence of that seaventie thousand poundes) the Plantation was advanced in the time of his 12 yeares government, but whether, as it is saide, he be to be praied for the managaing of these affaires, with much unanimity, moderation, integritie and judgment, we leave it to censure.

At the end of this twelve yeares arived Sir George Yeardley to be Gov^r and founde the Collony in this estate and thus furnished, vizt: For fortification against a forreign ennemie there was none at all; two demy culverin only were mounted upon rotten carriages and placed within James Citty, fitter to shoot downe our howses then to offend an ennemie. At Charles Hundred, which were mounted by Sir Thos. Dale, two demy culverin and one sacre; fortifications against a domestique enimie very mean. For Forts, Towns and Plantations he founde these: James Citty, Henrico, Charles Citty and Hundred, Shirley Hundred, Arrahattock, Martin Brandon and Kicoughton, all w^{ch} were but poorely howsed and as ill fortified; for in James Citty were only those howses that Sir Thom. Gates built in the time of his government, with one wherin the Gov^r allwayes dwelt, an addition beinge made thereto in the time of Captaine Sam^l Argoll, and a church, built, wholly at the charge of the inhabitants of that citty, of Timber, beinge fifty foote in length and twenty foot in breadth; at Paspahayes alsoe weare some few flight howses built; at Henrico, two or three old howses, a poore ruinated church with some few poore buildings in the Island; Coxen Dale and the Maine and att Arrahattocke one house, at Charles Citty fixe howses much decayed, and, that we may not be too tedious, as these soe were the rest of the places furnisht.

For people then alive about the number of foure hundred, very many of them in want of corne, utterlie destitute of cattle, swine Poultrie and other Provissions to nourish them.

For Barques, Pinnaces, Shallops, Barges and Boates he founde only one olde Frigott, which belonged to the Sommer Islandes, one olde Shallopp built in Sir Thos. Dales time, one boat built in Sir Saml Argolls time, with two small boates belonginge to private men. For munition a very small quantitye, the most part thereof beinge very bad and of little use. For ministers to instruct the people he founde only three authorized, two others who never received their orders.

For staple commodities at his arrivall he founde none afoot save only Tobacco. The natives he founde upon doubtfull termes, neither did we ever perceive that at any time they voluntarilie yealded themselves subjects or servants to our Gracious Sovereigne, neither that ever they tooke any pride in that title, nor paide they at any time any yearly contribution of corne for the sustentation of the Collony, nor could we at any time keepe them in such goode respect or correspondencie that they and we did become mutuallie helpful or profitable, each to other, but to the contrary, whatsoever at any time was done upon them proceeded from fear without love, for such help as we have had from them have been procured by fworde or trade. And heere can we noe way approve of that which hath lately bene saide in the behalfe of Sir Thos. Smith, by some of his new frendes, that a flourishinge plantation in Virginia, erected in the time of his 12 yeares government, hath since been destroyed through the ignorance of succeedinge ceedinge Governours heere, for that by what we have already faide all the worlde may judge in what a flourishing estate it was, and to what growth of perfection it was advanced, at the arrivall of Sir Geo. Yeardeley to be Gov^r here, it beinge then in our judgments, that were members of the colony, in a poore estate.

The whole 12 yeares expired.

Aprill, 1619.—Arived Sir Geo. Yeardeley, bringing certain commiffions and instructions from the Company for the better establishinge of a Commonwealth heere, wherein order was taken for the removing of all those grievances which formerly were suffered and manifested the same by publishinge a Proclamation that all those that were residend heere before the departure of Sir Thos. Dale should be freed and acquitted from such publique services and labours which formerly they suffered, and that those cruell lawes by which we had soe longe been governed were now abrogated, and we were now to be governed by those free lawes which his Ma^{ty^s} subjects live under in Englande. And farther that free libertie was given to all men to make choice of their dividents of lande and, as their abilities and meanes w^d permitt, to possesse and plant upon them. And that they might have a hande in the governinge of themselves, it was granted that a general assemblie should be helde yearly once, wherat were to be present the Gov^r and Counsell with two Burgeses from each Plantation freely to be elected by the inhabitants thereof: this assembly to have power to make and ordaine whatsoever lawes and orders should by them be thought good and profittable for our subsistence. The effect of which proceedinge gave such encouragement to every person heere that all of them followed their perticular labours with singular alacrity and industry, soe that, through the blessinge of God upon our willinge labors, within the space of three yeares, our countrye flourished with many new erected Plantations, from the head of the River to Kicoughtan, beautifull and pleasant to the spectators, comfortable for the releife and succor of all such as by occasion did travaile by land or by water; every man giveinge free entertainment, both to frendes or others. The plenty of these times likewise was such that all men generally were sufficiently furnished with corne, and many alsoe had plenty of cattle, swine, poultry and other good provisions to nourish them. Monethly courtes were held in every precinct to doe justice in redressinge of all small and petty matters, others of more consequence beinge referred to the Gov^r, Counsell and Generall Assemblie. Now alsoe were begunne and sett a foote the erectinge of Iron Workes, plantinge of vines and mulberrie trees for the nourishinge of silke wormes; a trial made for silke grasse tillage for Englilh graine, gardeninge, and the like, which gave great hopes of present and future plenty in their severall perticulars, wherein no doubt but much more had been effected had not great sickness and mortalitie prevented.

Those years fallinge out to be generally contagious through this content, the people alsoe sent over arrived heere at the most unseasonable time of the yeare, beinge at the heat of Sommer, and divers of the ships brought with them most pestilent infections, wherof many of their people had died at Sea, soe that these times alsoe of plenty and libertie were mixed with the calamities of sickness and mortalitie.

In October, 1621, Arived Sir Fras. Wyatt, Knight, with commiffion to be Gov^r and Capt. Gen^l of Virginia. He ratified and confirmed all the afore mentioned liberties, freedoms and priveledges, to our great happines and content; the country alsoe flourished and increased in her former proceedinges, as iron workes, plantinge of vines and mulberrie for silke, &c. A ship alsoe was sent to the Summer Islandes for such commodities as that place afforded, as Potatoes, Fig Trees, Orange and Lemon Trees, and such like, many of which prosper and growe very likely to increase. But amidst this happines was the Hande of God sett against us, in great part, no doubt, for the punishment of our ingratitude in not beinge thankfull but forgettfull that by his mercye we were delivered from such bondage and calamitie as before time we had suffered. Justly likewise were we punished for our greedy desires of present gaine and profit, wherein many showed themselves infatiable and covetous; we beinge too secure in trustinge of a treacherous enimie, the Salvages, they, whilest we entertained them friendly in our houses, tooke their opportunities and suddenly fell upon us, killing and murdering very very many of our people, burninge and devastinge their houfes and plantations, this happeninge uppon the two and twentieth of March followinge (1622), stroocke fo at the life of our wellfare by blood and spoile, that it almost generally defaced the beautie of the wholl Collonye, puttinge us out of the way of bringinge to perfection those excellent workes wherin we had made foe faire a beginninge.

This deadly stroake being given to the great amazement and ruine of our State, caused our Governor and Counsell, withall speede, for the safetie of the rest (lest the Indians shoulde take courage to pursue what they had begonne), to re-collect the straglinge and woefull Inhabitants, foe dismembered, into stronger bodies and more secure places. This enforced reducement of the Collony into fewer bodies, together with the trouble of warre then in hande, caused the year following a slender harvest to be reaped, whereby we weare constrained to relye upon hopes for our reliefe by shippinge out of Englande, and by trading with the more remote Salvadges, most part of which supplies from Englande unfortunately miscarried by the waye, the Salvadges, likewise, from whome we hoped to have helpe by trade, proved our most treacherous enemies, cunninglye circumventinge and cruellie murderinge such as were employed abroad to gett reliefe from them, by all which misaccidents we fell that yeare into great want and scarcitie; which since, by the blessinge of God, through our supplies we have had from the Company, together with a plentifull harvest, hath bene abundantly restored. Our Gov^r, Counsell and others have used their uttermost and Christian endeavours in prosecutinge revenge against the bloody Salvadges, and have endeavoured to restore the Collonye to her former prosperitie, wherin they have used great diligence and industrie, imployinge many forces abroad for the rootinge them out of severall places that therby we may come to live in better securitie, doubtinge not but in time we shall clean drive them from these partes, and therby have the free libertie and range for our cattle, the increase of whom may bringe us to plentie, and maye alsoe more freely goe on againe with setting up those staple commodities which we hoped by this time to have brought to good perfection.

For the supplies shippinge, men, cattle and provisions that have arived heere since Sir Thomas Smith left his government we can not nowe well reckon up, they beinge manye, but must referre you to the printed bookes and to the Lifts and Invoices returned by Sir Geo. Yeardley.

For the State of the Collony at this present we leave to the report of such commissioners as are nowe sent over by the Right Hon. the Lordes of his Ma^{ties} privie counsell.

This beinge reade in the Gen^l Assembly received full approbation.

WHEREAS out of his Ma^{ties} gracious care for the good of this Plantation, it hath pleased their Lo^{ps} of his Ma^{ties} most hono^{ble} Privie Counsell to command us to give them true and particuler notice of the present estate of the same, in divers considerable points, some whereof may best be resolved by this worthe Assembly; our earnest desire is, youe would be pleased to deliver unto us your opinion in writtinge to these foure popositions. Viz.

1. What places in the Cuntry are best or most proper to be fortified or mantained either against Indians or other enemies that may come by Sea.
2. How the Collony now stands in respect of Savadges.
3. What hopes may truly and really be conceived of this Plantation.
4. And lastly w^{ch} be the directest meanes to attaine to those hopes.

March 2, 1623.

The Generall Affsemblies Replie to those foure propositions made unto them by the Comission^{rs} to bee presented to the Lordes of his Ma^{ties} most hono^{ble} Privie Counsell.

1. WHAT places in the Country are best or most proper to bee fortified or mainteyned, against Indians or other enimies that may come by sea.

Pointe Comfort is of most use but of great charge and difficultie.

Wariscoyake where the fortification was intended more effectually to secure the places above y^t from Wyanoake marish upwardes there are divers places w^{ch} may peremptorily comānde Shippinge or Boates: the best against the Indians and most of use for the future increase of plentie, is the wininge of the Forrest by runinge of a pale from Martins hundred to Chiskiacke w^{ch} is not above fixe miles: and plantinge upon both rivers, the river of Pamunkey beinge alsoe more defensible against a forrein enymie.

2. Howe the Collony nowe standes in respect of the Salvages. The termes betwixt us and them are irreconcilable, the charge of driveinge them awaye, w^{ch} woulde reduce us to a better estate then wee weare in before the massacre, soe great as yt is to wayghtie for us to support though hitherto we have done whatsoever yt was possible for our meanes and numbers to effect, an enymie from whom there is noe spoile to bee expected, the advantage of the woodes and the nymblenes of their heeles preventes execution; the harmes that they doe us is by ambushes and suddain incursions where they see their advantages, we never since the massacre haveinge lost one man in any expedition against them, the inconveniencies that wee receive from them are of farre more consequence; we have not the safe range of the Country for increase of Cattle, Swyne &c nor the game and foule w^{ch} the Country affordes in great plentye; besides our duties to watch and warde to secure our selves and lab^{ors} are as harde and chargeable, as if the enymie weare at all tymes present.

3. What hopes may truly and really bee conceived of this Plantation:

We houlde yt to be one of the goodlyest partes of the earth aboundinge wth navigable Rivers full of variety of fish and foule, fallinge from high and steepe mountaines, w^{ch} by the generall Relation of the Indians are rich wth mines, Golde, Silver and Copper, an other Sea lyeinge wth in fixe dayes journey beyonde them into w^{ch} other Rivers descende. The foyle fruitfull and apt to produce the best sortes of Commodities, replenished wth many trees for severall uses, guñes, dyes, earths and simples of admirable vertue, vines and mulburitrees groweing wilde in great quantities the woods full of deare, Turkeys and other beafts and birdes: for more perticuler relation we referr you to the reportes of S^r Thomas Gates and S^r Thomas Dale made unto the Company concerneinge those praifes noe way hiperbolicall, nor any country more worthie of a Princes care and supportance.

4. Which bee the directest meanes to attaine to these hopes.

The way to attaine to these hopes is to have a runninge armye continually a foote to keepe the Indians from settlinge on any place that is neere us, to send over numbers of people to arrive heere about the prime of Winter, wth provisions of Cattle and wth full provisions for themselves at least for a yeare: in the meane tyme to fall only upon the plantinge of Vines and Mulbury trees and to sende men over that are expert in those faculties, to plant gardens and orchardes, and such thinges as are usefull for the sustenance of mans life, to rayse the price of tobacco by the sole importation, and reduceinge the Customes to the rate of the letters Pattents, and when the Country shalbe blessed wth plenty of such provisions and multitudes of people, to proccede in the discovery of the wealth of the mountaines and Commodities of the Seas, that are credibly reported to lye beyonde them A care must be had that ships come not over pestered, and that they may be well used at Sea wth that plenty and goodnes of dyett as is promised in Englande, but seldome performed, that when they come they first fall to buildinge of good and convenient howses, and bringe men over for that purpose: that for the first yeare they only endeavo^r themselves to the plantinge of Corne, to the makeinge of gardens,

to the choofeing & inclofeing of fitt places for their Cattle and to the plantinge only of fo much tobacco as may ferve to fultaine them in neceffary clothinge for the fucceeding yeare, a proportion of mault they fhould alfoe bringe over to make themfelves beare, that the fuddein drinkinge of water caufe not to great an alteration in their bodyes: that they fhoulde employe themfelves to the plantinge of English graine, that therby wee may have the hopes of two harvefts: And that fuch numbers may be feated together as may be able to fecure themfelves, and to make good fuch a part of the country as they may have free and fecure range for the fultenance and increafe of their Cattle. Thefe doune we doubt not but in convenient tyme to purchafe to his Ma^{tie} a riche and flowrifhing Kingedome

YESTERDAY att the delivery of our papers wee acknowledged that wee had neither Comiffion nor Instructions to move you to subscribe to that forme of subscription and thankfullnes to his Ma^{ty}, w^{ch} then wee presented, neither can so much as a shadow of any such thinge be collected, out of o^r Letter or motion therein enclosed. What wee propounded was out of o^r discretion, by way of Counsell for the good of this Plantation, not precipitate nor sudden, proper to the time, occasion and Company, and the marke aimed att was no lesse then his Ma^{ties} favor upon o^r persons and comon cause to be obeyned by obedience and thankfullnes. Now as there needed neither Comiffion nor instructions for us to propound the practice of so eminent a duty, so it is lawfull and free for us, beinge free men and Planters to offer to the generall Assemblie any reasonable motion though of farr lesse consequence. And therefore had youe not bene content to have given us an answere, youe might have seemed to us dis-content, or att least discourteous. [Petition from the Convention of 1625.]

To the Kings most excellent Ma^{tie}

THE humble petition of the Govern^r Counsell and Collony of Virginia affembled together.
Humble sheweinge,

That wheras in the former yeare, we directed a peticion to yo^r Ma^{tie} humblie desireinge therin, that yo^r highnes woulde not give creditt to the late declarations presented to yo^r Ma^{tie} concerninge the happie, but indeed miserabile estate of the Collony, duringe the first twelve yeares government, neither to the malicious imputations w^{ch} have been layde on the latter, but to be pleased to beholde in little, the true estate of both, by our relations, w^{ch} we then sent unto yo^r highnes, by the handes of M^r John Puntis, contayninge nothinge but the truth wthout disaffection or partiallitye, wherby we doubted not but yo^r Ma^{tie} would underfstande the condition of both tymes, and farther befought yo^r Ma^{tie} that you would not suffer yo^r poore subjects to fall againe into the handes of S^r Thomas Smyth and his Confidants, but that yo^u woulde gratioously protect us, from those groweing stormes ingendred by faction w^{ch} prefiged the ruyn of some, whose indeavo^{rs} have deserved a better rewarde, and in generall of the whole plantation.

Soe y^t is that we are driven to misdoubt, by reason of the death of M^r John Puntis, and that many thinges have fallen out, contrary to our humble desires, that the aforefayde petition and relations were never presented to yo^r Royall handes, the rather because the same personnes so justly complained of, are joyned in yo^r Ma^{ties} Comission for governinge of the affaires of Virginia, wherewth beinge armed, we feare they intend to exercise the same Tiranny upon our persons, w^{ch} already by the pernicious Contract, they execute upon our fortunes; and haveinge just cause to feare, that upon the establisshinge of a President & Councell in Englande, for the government of Virginia, if those persons shalbe chosen of that number, the same power and meanes to execute their vindicative mallice, may be more fully and absolutely setled and confirmed upon them, and the estate of the Collony much more desperate, the effects wherof allready beguin to appeare not only in the skant supplie of necessaries this yeare not sufficient to cover our nakednes, and the rates of those threefold more exceffive then formerly: But alsoe in the extreame discouragement of the adventurer and planter, infomuch that great number of the planters had resolved to have goune for Englande in these ships expressly to have petitioned yo^r Ma^{tie} for redresse and protection: But least the Clamo^{rs} of soe many should be troublesome and displeasinge to yo^r Ma^{tie} We, urged by o^r duties to yo^r Ma^{tie}, our zeale to the Collony and the discharge of our owne consciences, have wth an unanimous consent, made choyce of S^r George Yeardley Knight (the importance of the cause requireinge no lesse then one, whoe haveinge formerly comanded heere, in cheife and by imeadiate Comission from yo^r Ma^{tie} hath againe been nominated to succeffion in the Government) to prefer the sayde petition and relations to yo^r gratioous surveye, wherby yt will most cleerly appeare how unfitt they are to manage the affaires of this Collony in w^{ch} they have formerly soe much erred and proceeded soe contrary, even in the fundamentall points of Government, to yo^r highnes gratioous charters and instructions; As alsoe our demonstrations against the late pernicious Contract, soe mainly opposeinge yo^r Ma^{ties} royall bounty and intentions, to the advancem^t of this yo^r Ma^{ties} Collony.

We humblie therefore beseech yo^r Ma^{tie} to affoarde a gratioous hearinge to the sayde S^r George Yeardley and to referr the examination of our cause to the right Hono^{ble} William Lorde Pagett, S^r Richarde Weston Knight Chauncellor of the Exchequer S^r Humphry May Kn^t Chauncello^r of the Dutchie & S^r Robert Killigrew Kn^t (they being appointed Comission^{rs} by yo^r Ma^{tie} for the affaires of Virginia) to make report therof to yo^r Ma^{tie}

And we as our dutie bindes us, fhall ever praye to God for yo^r Ma^{ties} longe & Prosperous raigne in this life and eternall in the life to come.

[Papers of the Assembly of 1627/28.]

The humble Answer of the Governo^r & Counsell together wth the Burgeffes of the severall Plantations affembled in Virginia unto his Ma^{ty}s Letter concerning our Tobaccoe and other Co^modities

March 26, 1628.

WHEREAS the making of any Contracte upon our Tobaccoe hath bin hitherto a thing soe much feared, and the very name of it rather a terror and discouragm^t to the whole Colony, then any way by us wished or assented unto, the bare rumo^r whereof hath wrought soe evill an effecte as generally to disharten all men, soe that therby the Marchant hath bene doubtfull of adventuring hither, and much enhaunfed the price of his Co^modities, and the Planters fearefull to fettle their aboade heere or raise any workes of better consequence or future profit, as deeming it a place wherein there would bee noe certainty or stability of their affaires but continually subjecte to ruine and altera^çon if the sinister informa^çons of pryvate men in England, and their projects there tending solely to their owne pryvate Co^moditie and gaine may receive allowance and approba^çon, Especially seeing all Contracts heretofore propounded have beene made wthout our Consents, and upon such unreasonablen termes & condi^çons as have directly tended to the im^mediate distructi^on and misery of the same, and this hath bin sufficiently shewed in our demonstra^çons and declara^çons made against those Contracts in our former generall Assemblies, But notwithstanding wee have continually beene infnared in these toyles, and for these six yeares have perpetually laboured in the confused pathes of those labyrinthes, being rather framed and built in the very imagina^çon of unconscionable and unjust men, then upon good and sound reason or wth any respecte to the benefitt and advancem^t of the Colony: Wherefore wee retorne our humblest thankes unto his most excellent Ma^{ty}e for that it hath pleased him to dissolve those Contracts formerly sett on foote, and to have soe gratioously inclined in his Princely favo^r towards us as to graunt those things w^{ch} have bin for our establishm^t and supporta^çon, And in particuler the prohibition of all Spanishe Tobacco, that thereby wee might have a certaine and sure dependance wth the Kingdome of England w^{ch} is soe firme a foundation for the perpetuall subsistence of this Colony as otherwise would require a greate expence of mony And this cheifely hath bin a meanes to uphold the same in such measure that it hath nowe noe lesse flourished since the altera^çon and revoking of the Patent, then when our affaires were managed by those in England w^{ch} to the eye of the world appeared to bee the maine supporters and pillars thereof, Neverthelesse since his Ma^{ty}e hath now bin pleased to take the Co^modity of tobacco for his owne im^mediate use, and as his owne Marchandize, and to that ende hath directed his letter, unto the Governo^r and Councell, requiring that on his behalfe they should bargain for the same, wth the Burgeffes of all the severall Planta^çons, And further whereas the rayfing of other staple Co^modities, men^çoned in his highnes Letter is to greate a worke for our poore abilities to undertake and bring to perfection, hee hath therefore required us that wee should take especiall care concerning the same, And according to the Instructions sent unto us to certifie of the probability and certainty thereof, and to send home such enfamples as are desired whereby wee are given to hope that those meanes will by his Royall hand bee supplied unto us, that having bene alwaies hitherto wanting or but slenderly furnished it hath bin impossible that those things should have effectually bin accomplished, And wee on our parts shall give good testimony of our willingnes and forwardnes therein, being perswaded that nothing can bee more happily for the Colony or to bee desired of us, then that those Co^modities should receive their full perfeccion that wee might have some other matter of subsistence then Tobacco,

Tobacco, w^{ch} yet wee cannot wholly abandon, but make it as a stepp to attaine those things and in the interim, a meanes to susteyne us, Wee have therefore in all humblenes of duety, after full debate and confideraçon of the premises sett downe our opinions concerning the same desiring that our relations may bee rather credited then theirs w^{ch} neyther informed by experience uppon the place (the most infallible guide) nor led by good judgm^t at soe greate a distance doe intend their private endes more then the hono^r and profit of the King or the welfare of this Colony.

First for tobacco wee consent and agree that his Ma^{tie} shall have all our Tobacco at the rate of three shillings six pence the pound cleere the Tobacco to bee delyvered here unto his Ma^{ties} Facto^{rs} good and marchantable, and to bee approved soe to bee, by s^worne men appoynted to that purpose, And for the paym^t thereof wee desire that the Factors w^{ch} shall receive the same, may bring letters of Creditt from men of unquestionable sufficiency to give bills of exchange uppon those men to make paym^t of them, the one halfe after tenn daies sight, and the other moytie at three monethes And those termes wee doe all in generall cheifely desire, because our residing is here, and it will bee much damage unto us to goe home to delyver our goods, But if his Ma^{tie} will have our Tobacco delyvered at the Port of London and wee to beare the adventure of the Sea and pay the freight, then wee will bee contented to delyver it all there at fower shillings the pound and wee to bee cleere of all Customes, and the paym^t to bee made as aforefaid But if his Ma^{tie} shall refuse to take all the Tobacco that shall bee made in this Colony good and marchantable, then wee humbly desire that his highnes would bee pleased in certaintie to take of yearely five hundred thousand weight at the aforefaid prices and Condiçons, if there shall bee soe much made in the Country, And for the rest if there should bee any overplus wee are alsoe content to deliver the same if his Ma^{tie} please, if not wee desire to export it againe out of the Kingdome of England, custome being paid, and to vent it eyther in the Low Countries, Ireland, Turkey or elsewhere.

And wee are content to contracte wth his Ma^{tie} for the aforefaid rates and uppon the aforefaid Conditions for and during the tyme and terme of seven yeares, But if hereafter it shall appeare that the Kingdome of England shall bee able to vent more tobacco then the quantities now to bee taken from this Plantation and the Som^{er} Islands, other places fayling and the rest being suppressed & banished, our desire is that then wee may bee suffered to import the same, and our proporçon augmented.

And wee doe most humbly desire his Ma^{tie} that if hee will bee pleased the aforefaid condiçons may bee accepted; that all Spanishe tobacco bee utterly prohibited, because wee have justt cause to feare, that under Colo^r of any Spanish Tobacco licensed to bee brought in, greater quantities will bee imported, and the markett glutted, to our damage and hinderance. And for the assurance of making our Tobacco Marchantable, that it may bee satisfacçon given therein, wee have taken such effectuall courses in every respecte, that wee dare ingage ourselves that our tobacco shall bee very good and marchantable much exceeding the tobacco w^{ch} hath formerly gon from hence, And wee have alsoe ordered that there shall bee s^worne men appoynted to bee Tryors to that purpose, after the curing of the same and before it bee laden aboard the Shippes, w^{ch} orders heretofore wee have not taken, because wee could not compell the planter to paie the Marchant principall Tobacco when as often tymes the Comodities hee received were rotten and unusefull, and allwaies sould at most exceffive rates, w^{ch} wee could not moderate: And therefore concerning the Tobacco this yeare gon home wee are not ignorant, how that much of it is of noe good condition, of w^{ch} as wee desire to bee excused, soe wee hope there shall bee noe such occasion hereafter to complaine Wee have alsoe ordered that a Proclamaçon bee made through the Colony, that all plants shall bee sett fower foote and a halfe asunder at least, and that there should bee gathered but twelve leaves of from a plant, Whereas it hath bene the Custome heretofore, from that sort of long tobacco now in use to gather five and twenty or thirty leaves and wee are of opinion that if wee should suffer but six leaves to growe uppon a plant, that the nature of tobacco will not beare it, and it would bee nevertheles very dangerous to prime away the leaves soe high in regard that then it is subiecte to bee spoyled and torne wth gufts and stormes, at that tyme ufually happening, and the ftalke to bee parched and withered by the heate of the funn, And wee certainly Knowe that although wee doe tend twelve leaves on every plant as aforefaid yett by reafon of dyvers cafualties as the wormes, the extraordinary raynes w^{ch} drowne many plants wee fhall not gather above eight or tenn generally and wee wonder why any fuch thing fhould bee enjoyned unto us.

Concerning the ftripping out the ftalke wee doe thinke it will bee much hurt unto it, and the handling in that Kind will deface and fpoyle it, at that feafon of the yeare, the windes being exceeding peircing and drying, And for that whilft the ftalke is in it, it is a good prefervative to the fame, Whereas it is certaine that if wee fhould bee tyed to ftripp out the ftalke the Planters would thereuppon take advantage and ftripp it before it bee fully cured, and being fomewhat moyft it will bee fubjecte to rott and mould: And further it would bee a greate hinderance unto our other workes of conſequence and profitt for the good and advancem^t of the Plantaçon, as cleering of new grounds, planting of gardens and orchards, the erecting of Coñodious buildinges, the extirpaçon of the Indians and the rayfing of all ftaple Coñodities &^c

Touching the moderating of the quantity, wee defire that it may bee confidered that this Coñodity of tobacco is the only meanes for our prefent fupportaçon and fubſiſtance to the w^{ch} nevertheles wee are not foe much wedded and adicted as wholly to negleçte all other courſes that fhall bee thought conducing to the rayfing of ftaple Coñodities as aforefaid, and the planting of greate ftore of corne, the breeding and encreafing of Cattell &^c And in this poynt wee have this yeare leſſened and ftinted our ufuall proporçon in gathering but halfe foe many leaves as heretofore was ordinary And wee being now in greate foñes indebted to the Marchant it cannott bee admitted foe ftrictly, for that our bargaines & Contracts for the fucceeding Cropp are already paſſed and concluded on betwixt us, and wee muſt eyther fhutt upp our Courtes and deny Juſtice to thoſe that fhall require it or elſe permitt thoſe that are engaged in that Kinde to imploy themſelves and ſervants for the performance of their condiçons, Not wthſtanding for the fucceeding yeares, notice beeing given aforehand, the number of people in this Colony encreafed and the Markett of Tobacco gluttes, wee fhall bee willing to condeſcend thereunto, and concerning the quantity of two hundred pound for a Maſter of a family and one hundred and a quarter for every ſervant, The Colony now conſiſting of neere three thouſand perfons or ſhortly being likely to attaine to that number, every weake Judgment w^{ch} hath beene converſant wth us, or hath ſeene the Accounts of our affaires, can judge that quantity not to bee ſufficient for our mainteynance, And the laſt yeare wee Knowe there was more ſent hence, yett that proporçon, allowing that there are five hundred freemen and Maſters of families will amount unto 412,500.£

Laſtly to demonſtrate that the Condiçons for the paym^t of our mony halfe in hand and the reſt at three monethes are of foe abſolute neceſſity unto all the Planters, wee ſaid that to accept of one third in hand and the reſt at five and five monethes, the firſt paym^t will little more then defray the freight and other chardges, and the expectaçon of the reſt will not only put them to many ftreights for prefent mainteynance, but detain them in England foe longe untill their meanes waſting wth their tymes, they bee utterly diſabled to tranſport themſelves, much leſſe ſervants or coñodities for the augmentation & reliefe of the Colony and looſe one whole yeares tyme.

For Pitch and Tarr wee are of opinion, that his Ma^{tie} may bee affured that there are materialls here plentifully for the making thereof, and wee have by theſe ſhipps ſent home enſamples of the ordinary Pine Trees growing in this Country, that there may bee noe doubt made in that poynt, but wee find that our weake abilities will not enable us to bee at foe greate charges as will neceſſarily bee required before hand to the full accompliſhm^t of that worke, eſpecially it being a Coñodity of foe ſmall a value and the want of meanes to carry the wood to the kilnes where it is burned, there being neyther horſes nor Afinicoes proper for that purpoſe and the danger that the workmen bee in uppon all incurſions of our Enemies the Indians, will make it not bee wthout ſome difficulty and muſt neceſſarily bee provided for, if that buſines bee proſeçuted.

For

For Potashes wee knowe that in former tymes there have bene some made heere and sent into England for a tryall, but the worth thereof wee doe not knowe, and have noe man in the Country that knoweth how to make them.

For pipestaves, barrell boords and Clapboords there hath formerly bene sent home of all sortes and wee have now both sent home enamples thereof and in these Shippes there are many hundred Caske gon into England from all partes of the Country made of our Tymber heere, whereby those of experience may bee able to judge thereof, this requireth greate labour, and the freight of soe meane a Comoditie will bee too deare to encourage any man to goe in hand wth it.

Concerning Iron wee have sent you home some of the Myne of w^{ch} by their report that were employed therein there is plenty and the tryalls that have been heere made have caused a good reputacon of the Iron that hath been sent into England, but this worke especially requireth an exceffive charge and expence of mony to bring it to perfecōn w^{ch} wee cannott disburse in expectacōn of the profitt thereof w^{ch} will not bee soe foudaine as our necessities doe require and wee thinke that it must necessarily bee provided that the men labouring about it bee furnished continewally wth plenty of cloathing good victualls and drinke, the w^{ch} in this Country are not sufficiently to bee had: The Materialls formerly sent over, are almost totally waisted and consumed and at the Massacre thrown into the River by the Indians, and little to bee found that is serviceable, soe that in that case there will neede a supply of all thinges both of workemen and other necessaries, It is certaine that the place chosen for the same at the falling Creeke was very Comodious and advantageous & the furnace in some good forwardnes at the Massacre.

For Mynes of Gould, Silver, Copper &c. wee conceive that there is greate hope of the ritchnes of the Mountaines, and there was a discovery made formerly nynteene yeares since in the w^{ch} some of us were, and about fower daies Journey above the falls of this Ryver as wee are informed certaine assurance of a silver Myne, but wee shall hereafter uppon all occasions send home such samples as wee shall meete wth any where yet wanting the meanes of beasts of Carriage for the transport of Victualls and Munitiōn, it will bee almost impossible.

For the planting of Vines wee conceive greate hopes that it will prove a Comoditie both beneficiall and profitable, but wee are none of us skillfull therein, The Vignerons that have bene sent over have spent their tyme heere to small purpose, and eyther purposely neglected it or concealed from us the skill w^{ch} hath generally disheartened all men from undertaking it, but wee have this yeare planted many and pruned others and by further experience thereof wee should thinke ourselves happy to bring this Comodity to perfecōn and would bee glad to defray the charges of skillfull men to bee sent over for that purpose.

For Bay salt wee conceive greate likelines of the certainty of that Comodity and fuerly the benefitt that will accrew to the Colony of the same will bee of greate consequence and wee shall bee willing to assist M^r Capps to make the experiment thereof w^{ch} being brought to perfecōn will drawe a certaine trade unto us, And wee hope that the fishing uppon our Coasts will bee very neere as good as that of Canada whereof some tryall hath bene already made.

To the Kinges most excellent Ma^{ty}

The humble Petition of the Governo^r and Councell together wth y^e Burgeffes assembled in Virginia. Most humbly sheweth,

THAT whereas yo^r highnes hath ben gratioously pleased to extend yo^r princely care for the establisment of this Colony and to make y^e Comodity of tobaccoe yo^r owne marchandize for the better reputatioⁿ thereof, w^{ch} by yo^r Royall favo^r in the prohibitioⁿ and suppreffing of Spannish and English tobaccoe is much advanced, wee have according to yo^r Ma^{ties} Comand assembled our selves, and in all humblenes of duty returned ou^r answ^r unto yo^r highnes that we shalbe willing to accept for the same delivered heere three shillings six pence y^e pound and in England foure shillings, the one halfe to be payd att ten dayes fight, the other att 3 monthes, humbly desiring y^t yo^r Ma^{ty} will be pleased to take from this Colony in certaynty 500 thousand waight yeerly, and if wee shall make more, having this yeere in great part tinted our selves, (the better to follow yo^r Ma^{ty}s direction for other staple Comodities) wee are alsoe contented to deliver the same, but if that shalbe to much for the Kingdome of England, we humbly desire that we may export itt into other parts, the Custome being payd, as we have in o^r generall declaration both concerning this & the other Instruction from yo^r highnes touched more lardgly.

Wherefore wee most humbly implore yo^r Ma^{ty} gratioously to comiferat o^r poore estates, in yo^r favo^r to o^r just petitions, having continually for these six yeers groned under the oppressioⁿ of unconfcionable and cruell Merchants by the exceffive rates of their Comodities, caused for the most parte by unreasonable & unjust contracts made wholly wthout o^r consents, in w^{ch} wee have exceedingly ben turmoyled and o^r affayres perplexed, to the unspeakable prejudice of this Colony, that otherwise would have ben able if not hindred by our poverty, to have produced better effects & manifested that wee want the meanes & not the wills to rayse those staple Comodities proper for this plantation, w^{ch} now we hope by the beames of yo^r Ma^{ties} favor reflected upon us, will recover a new life and receive perfection by yo^r Royall hand, unto the w^{ch} itt hath ben reserved by the Divine Providence. And wee o^r wives and poore children as is o^r duty shall ever pray to God to give you in this world all increase of happines and to crowne you in the world to come wth immortall Glorie.

To the Right Hono^{ble} the Lords of his Ma^{ties} moste hono^{ble} Privy Councell.

The humble Petticion of y^e Governo^r Councell and the Burgeffes assembled by order from his Ma^{ties} in Virginia.

SHEWETH, That whereas itt hath pleased his most excellent Ma^{tie} by his Royall letters directed to yo^r Pet^{rs} to signifie his pleasure concerning the comoditie of tobaccoe to be to his owne imēadiate use, requiring that we should contract for the same upon such prices, condicions as are therein mencioned, and we accordingly in all humblenes of duty by o^r generall declarations have returned o^r answ^r unto his highnes, most humbly complayning that formerly by the finester suggestions and projects of unconfcionable men, to make a contract on o^r goods wthout o^r consents, we have a long time suffered much damage, and the Colony greatly prejudiced by the generall feare and discouragm^t w^{ch} all men have received to settell their estates heere, or to endeavo^r the rayfing of any staple Comodities for the difanulling whereof we have often times by o^r letters and Pettic^o to yo^r hono^{rs} solicted this board, and yo^r Lo^{pps} have ben hono^{ble} pleased from time to time to relieve us and to dissolve those contracts w^{ch} otherwise would have tended to the overthrowe of this plantation, for w^{ch} we returne o^r humblest thanks unto yo^r Lo^{pps}.

Yo^r

Yo^r Pet^{rs} conceiving that his Ma^{ty} hath now ben pleased to take the affayres of this Plantation into his more neere regard and princely care wherby all factions silenced, and the projects of vaine men suppressed this languishing Colony may att length receive a new life and overcome those difficulties w^{ch} have hitherto hindred the growth of it, and being rather desirous that the Commoditie of our labours should redowne to his Ma^{ty}'s use whose servants wee are, then to any that should under hand contracte for the same, doe most humbly implore the continuance of yo^r Lo^{pps} favo^r towards us, and o^r cause, beseeching that o^r relations may eather obtayne creditt then the informations of such men as respect only their private ends & inordinate lucre and gaine. And we humbly desire yo^r Lo^{ps} to conceive that our Petitions & demands are just and necessary for the subsistence of this Colony being such as may stand wth his Ma^{ty}'s profit, And that yo^r Lo^{pps} will be pleased to continue yo^r Patronage that by yo^r mediations and Councils his Ma^{ty}'s Royall intentions may be confirmed towards us for the confirmation of this great work and the perfect establishment thereof

And wee as our duty bindeth us shall always pray.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

Holden the 16th day of October, 1629.

THE oathes of fupremacy and alleidgeance were adminiftered to the governor and counsell and afterwards to all the burgeffes.

After debate of many matters, it was thought a bufinefs of great benefitt and good confequence to fend and maintaine a company of men to plant corne at Kiskyacke, the charges of building to be borne equally by all that fhould bee the adventurers, and to bee there feated by the 15th of November next. Whereuppon voluntarily the Governor offered to find 3 men.

Capt Mathewes	4

M ^r Thorowgood	4
M ^r Englifh	2
M ^r fflint	4
M ^r Rowlfton	2
Capt. Baffe	1
M ^r Harwood	1
M ^r Bennett	1

Tho. Seely	1
Capt. Peirce	2

It was ordered they fhould have fhaires of land to them and their heirs.

It is ordered that every commander of the feverall plantations appointed by commiffion from the governor fhall have power and authoritie to levy a partie of men out of the inhabitants of that place foe many as may well be fpared without too much weakening of the plantations and to imploy thofe men againft the Indians, when they fhall affault us neere unto our habitations, or when they in their difcretion fhall deeme it convenient to cleare the woods and the parts neere adioyning when the Indians fhall bee a hunting or when they have any certaine knowledge of the Indian's aboad in thofe places. And if there fhall be caufe that the commander in perfon can not attend thefe fervices, then in fuch cafes, and in his abfence hee is to appoint his deputie.

It was the opinion of the whole bodie of the affembly that we fhould go three feverall marches upon the Indians, at three feverall times of the yeare, viz. firft in November, fecondly in March, thirdly in July. To effect this the collony and inhabitants are to bee divided into fower divifions. The plantations of the upper parts as farr downewards as Weanoacke Marfh, and fflowerdieu hundred creek on both fides the river to cleare thofe parts and territoryes, and to doe all manner of fpoile and offence to the Indians that may poffibly bee effected. The fecond divifion to extend from fflowerdieu hundred creeke and Weanoacke Marfh, as farr downewards as the creeke belowe Hogg Ifland, and to include the whole corporation of James Cittie and Martin's Hundred, and the plantations of Mulbury Ifland under the command of capt. Smyth. The third divifion to be the plantation of Warofquoyacke, and thofe inhabitants to cleare the grounds and lands betweene Hogg Ifland creeke and Nanfamunge river.

There remaine for a fourth divifion Elizabeth Cittie, Warwicke River, Nuttmeegg Quarter, Accawmacke, the plantation at Kiskyacke and the places adioyning; to goe twife upon the Indians in Pamunky river, viz. once before the froft of Chriftmas, & the other in June, July or Auguft, as alfoe upon thofe lands, between Nanfamunge river and the river of Chefepeyacke. And it is concluded that the plantations of Accawmacke fhall affift them againft the Pamunky Indians in the fummer time with every fift man out of the inhabitants.

It was putt to the queftion whether all new comers fhall bee refrained from planting tobacco the firft yeare and they to bee exempted from all taxes, and marches for that yeare. The maior part would have no reftreint made to new comers.

It was put to the queftion whether for this yeare there fhould be an ordinance made and eftablifhed for the ftinting of the planting of tobacco. To this the opinion of the moft voices was, that noe perfons workeing the ground, which are all to be thithable, fhould plant above 3000 plants upon an head.

An exception is made where the familie confifteth of children and woemen which doe not worke in the ground, and they to plant not above 1000 plants per pol. In cafe any family fhall be aggrieved by this order confifting of fome number of woemen and children, It is thought fitt that in fpeciall cafes the Governor and Councill to order them a further proportion.

Thefe charges following were allowed by the General Affembly, viz.

Imprimis. To M ^r Marfhartt for 16 carriadges for ordinance, there is allowed for his account of £. 208 04s 02d. fowre thowfand five hundred weight of tobacco, foe that the remainder that was not paid unto him laft yeare fhall be fully paid and delivered unto him this yeare, or his affignes, lbs.	4500
Item. Six barrells of powder, bought of Capt. Crampton , and yet unfpent,	0900
Item. One hhd. of wyne, fpent in the march,	0255
Item. One ancor loft in the march out of Lieut. Thompson his boate ffor fhott which Sr. George Yeardley bought of M ^r Mayhow and provifion to fett out his fhip,	0050 0428
ffor 300 of fifh bought of M ^r Menefie ,	0090
ffor one barrell of peafe fpent in the fhipp,	0050
To M ^r Claybourne for fhott fpent in the marches in Sr. George his time, and this yeare 1629	0500
ffor one hundred of fhott more, bought of M ^r Barrington , & 1-2 of bifeuite for Chickahominy ,	0047
For Ct. Poole 's entertainement this yeare,	1200

[The lines following the above, are fo obliterated as not to be legible till we come to the words "his legg which hee received in the country's fervice;" from which we may infer that the above item is on account of a wound received by Capt. Poole.]

It is alfo ordered that the three Indians here refiding fhall be maintained by the general charge of the whole colony.

To defray all the charges above faid the whole Affembly concluded that there fhould be five pounds of tobacco per pol levied through the colony.

It is further concluded and ordered that every mafter of a family, and every freeman that is to pay five pounds of tobacco per pol as aforefaid for the defraying of publique charges, fhall bring the fame unto the Houfes of the Burgeffes of the plantations within two dayes after notice thereof given unto them. And if any fhall faile to bring in the fame, it is thought fitt that by virtue of this order the faid Burgeffes fhall have power to levy the fame by diftreffe, upon the goods of the delinquents, and to make fale of the faid goods, and to detaine fuch tobacco which fhall be due by this order, and for their fees in making this diftreffe, reftoring to the owner of the faid goods the refidue and remainder. And if the Burgeffes fhall make negleete herein they fhall be fined by the Governor and Councill.

The Burgeffes doe undertake to provide caske to putt upp the fame and if any damadge fhall befall unto the tobacco, it fhall not light upon the Burgeffes, unleffe they fhall be faulty therein.

All

All the Burgeffes are with all convenient fpeed to fend to the Governor a lift of the tithable perfons within their plantations, that thereby the Governor may appoint thofe that are the creditors for this tobacco to receive it and that he take order to have an account kept of the fame.

At this time the matter of ffortification was taken into confideration and there was longe debate had concerning the place where the fforte fhould be erected. Efpecially Point Comfort was fpoken of and was thought the moft convenient place, but the great and many difficultyes therein, and the want of meanes and materials for effecting thereof doe almoft make it impoffible for our weake abilityes to bring to perfection: therefore [the lines of the original not legible.] both the affiftance of their perfons and eftates to accomplifh fo good a worke as to raife fortifications which will be both a fafetie and reputation unto this colony.

It is ordered that there bee an efpeciall care taken by all commanders and others that the people doe repaire to their churches on the Saboth day, and to fee that the penalty of one pound of tobacco for every time of abfence and 50 pounds for every months abfence fett downe in the aët of the General Affembly 1623, be levyed and the delinquents to pay the fame, as alfoe to fee that the Saboth day be not ordinarily profaned by workeing in any employments or by iourneyeing from place to place.

It is thought fitt that all thofe that worke in the ground of what qualitie or condition foever, fhall pay tithes to the minifters.

[Petition of the House of Burgeffes to the Privy Council Drawn up at the 1631/32 Seffion.]

Right Hon^{rs}

MAY it please yo^r Lorppes wee the Burgiffes of this Plantation haue wth great * * * received the happie newes of his Ma^{ties} gracious Intentions toward this Colony grauntinge his royall Comiffion to yo^r hono^{rs} who have bene pleased to undertake the fame and patronage thereof, after foe long and languifhing a consumption Wee have therefore deemed it our duties to p^{re}sent vnto yo^r hono^{rs} the voice of our Acts and proceedings in this last Affembly, And wee beseech yo^r Lorppes that yo^u in yo^r graue Judgm^{ts} will be pleased to interprett our intentions in all those Acts, to be wholly for the welfare of the Colony, and such as wee, by large experience in the place are affured to be most p^{ro}per for the advancement thereof; And wee become humble suite^{rs}, that now when these affayres shall agayne be established all former graunts liberties and priviledges may be confirmed unto us accordinge to his Mat^{ies} gracious lres Patents since the diffolution of the late Company, And in p^{ar}ticular wee recom^{en}d unto yo^r hono^{rs} Consideration, that wee may haue all free trade, to those p^{ar}tes and marquetts where such Comodities as wee by our industry shall rayse will be * * * and that the lymitts of our Plantation, both to the Northward & the Southward may be p^{re}served agaynst all * * * undertakers * * * * * That we may have confirmation of all our lands, and dividents, and that they which haue arived since the 24th of June 1625 to w^{ch} tyme all co^{rn}ers were to have fifty acres of land, may likewise have apportion graunted vnto them w^{ch} wee desire may be 25 acres, And for encouragem^{ts} to after co^{rn}ers wee wish also that 12 acres may be graunted vnto all such as shall come duringe the terme of 7 years next ensuinge, Wee doe also give our humble advise that a Current Coyne debased to 25 per centm, may be sent vnto vs then w^{ch} nothinge will be more usefull, The ffort at Poynt Comfort hath wth incredible labour to the vntaker, and excesfiv^e chardge to the whole Colony bene brought to good perfection, And because we finde the continuall maynteynance thereof, will arife to an insupportable burden, yf it be wholly * * * at the planters hands, who haue endeavored themselves to this work above their abilities Wee humbly pray that the lands adioyning to poynt Comfort iland and now leas^{ed} to severall men may wholly be converted to that purpose and receaue yo^r Lo^{ppes} Confirmation, w^{ch} will in part defray the chardge, Wee the poore planters, of this Colony haue a long tyme groaned vnder the cruell dealings vnconfcionable marchaunts, who have by needlesse and vnprofitable Comodities * * * ingaged the inhabitants in debts of Tobacco, to the value almost of their ensuinge crophe whereby wee haue necessarilly bene tyed to the plantinge of that bad comoditie, from w^{ch} otherwise wee had willinglie declyned Wherefore in contemplation of our miserie and findinge noe better way to restrayne the imoderate plantinge of it; wee haue made that Act not to lett it passe from vs vnder the price of 6^d per lb. w^{ch} will either enable us to pay our engagem^{ts}, and foe set free our hands for other workes of better consequence, or yf they will deale wth vs at that price, we shall in good part be Impployed, neither doe wee foe much feare, that all marchaunts will be beaten of, as wee may iustlie dispayre, if it should goe at those contemptable rates, w^{ch} they haue now brought it vnto, Howeuer we had rather want, then labour as slaves to other mens purfes; amonge

amonge whome we haue good caufe to complayne of Captayne Tucker, who hath farr exceeded all other marchaunts in the prizes of theire goods, wee doe alfo become humble fuito^{rs} that if any doe adventure hither, they will in the firft fupply us with armes and munition, efpecially wee doe efteeme quilted cotton Coates moft beneficiall, wee are refolued to plant ftore of Corne, wherefore wee defire, that none that are not refident heere may receave Comiffion to trade in our Bay, whereby the benefitt that might accrew to the planter or difcouerer will be frufrated by thofe that bear no fhare in any publique chardge, yo^r Lor^{ps} may be pleased to conceive how great our expenfe is for publique occafions, wherefore wee moft humbly referr to yo^r Lor^{ps} confideration, that great charge and burthen, w^{ch} lyet vpon the gouerno^r more efpecially, there beinge left no fuch meanes to fupport him, as p^{re}cedinge gouerno^{rs} formerlie haue had hee haueinge now about fiue yeares beene refident here, And by the pouertie of the tymes left wholly to vndergoe thofe expences w^{ch} the Concourse of much people and other occafions will drawe vppon him, Neither is the condicon of the Counfell, in theire * * * to be weighed, and in regard the low declencion of Tobacco will make our * * * to Capt Mathewes of leffe value, then his expenfes, in buildinge the ffort at Comfort, he haueinge almoft fpent his fortunes and eftate therevppon, and this * * * in Tobacco the cheifft ftay of his fubfiftance, wee doe alfo become humble * * * the Cufomes therevppon may be graunted, vnto him, And wee beefeech yr * * * to p^{re}sent ou^r humble peticone to his Sacred Ma^{tie} both in this behalfe and in behalfe of the Gouerno^r and Counfell and wee ou^r wyves and poore children as ou^r dutie is fhall euer pray for his Ma^{ties} long life and encrease of hono^r * * * Yo^r Lor^{ps} wee refte and remayne

[King Charles I's Propositions to the Assembly of Virginia, February 1637/8.]

THE Kinges Ma^{ty} Comands are in these followeing Propositions. Viz^t
1 That y^u confider and resolve what quantyies of good and merchantable tobacco y^u will undertake to send yearely to the porte of London haveinge relaçon to more staple and honorable comodityes wherein his Ma^{ty} has resolved to give y^u all encouragem^t.

2. Next if any ftock or some of mony should bee provided to take of at reasonable dayes of payment the said quantity foe resolved on, yo^u will confider and resolve what prife and value preemtorily to sett thereupon.

3 Next that y^u confider of some conven^t place to bringe yo^r tobaccoc to, as to one or more appoynted Warehoufes.

4 Next his Ma^{ty} beinge informed of manie oppreffions brought upon his Subjects by many Merchants & Maisters of Shippes that in the tymes of their neecessityes take advantage to sell cloathes and provions for their supplies at greate and excessive rates and covenanted to receive payment in tobacco accordinge to the poore and lowe value thereof & at that tyme w^{ch} they exacte from them in the same proporçons his Ma^{ty} therefore out of his princely care and confideraçon of his subjects have thought fitt that the Planters set downe howe farre they have engaged themselves and upon what debts and to whome and the tyme when the debts were made, and what thereof is discharged and payed, that upon retourne thereof to the Lord Treasurer some order may bee taken for such satisfacçon as shall bee found juft and reasonable to the Creditors.

5. Lastly the Kinges will and pleasure is that those farthinges authorized to passe betweene man and man for rechaunge w^{thin} his Ma^{ty} realme of England shall bee made currant to passe in payment betweene man and man in their comerce & trade w^{thin} the Colony. And therefore that y^u take into confideraçon what quantyies thereof may bee usefull and fitt to bee vented here that notice may bee given thereof to the right hon^{ble} Henry Lord Matravers whoe is one of his Ma^{ty} Patentees for the makeinge and ventinge them in England and who (his Ma^{ty} will and pleasure is) shall furnish this Colony wth such quantyies as shall bee required by way of truck or exchange for comodityes vendible in England.

[The Burgeffes' Answer to the King's Propositions.]

To the right Worspll the Governor and Counsell of State.

The humble aunfwere of the Burgeffes of this p^rntie grand Assembly to His Ma^{ty} Comaunds.

WHEREAS or most graçous Sovereigne the Kings Ma^{ty} out of his Princely care of us his people, and this his Colony of Virginia, hath beene pleased to take into his royall confideraçon the weake and meane estates of us his poore Subjects here inhabitinge occaçoned partely through the vast quantity of tobaccoe by us here made as allfoe by the boundles desire of gayne in those w^{ch} yearely supply us, and to that purpose hath pleased to signifie his sacred comaunds unto us both for betteringe the quality and lesseninge the quantity of our tobaccoe, And that wee shoud signifie unto His Ma^{ty} what quantyies wee would yearely send home, and to sett an exact price thereupon.

1 First in obedience of w^{ch} comaunds wee the Burgeffes of this Grand Assembly doe upon the Bended knees of our harts prostrate ourselves at the feete of his most sacred facred Ma^{ty} humbly intreatinge his highnes to bee pleased to admitt us the free benefitt and use of our comodity and to add unto us the continuance of his Princely assistance in conforminge all his Ma^{ty} people upon Plantacons plantinge tobaccoe, to confyne themselves to the iust proporcon of one thousand five hundred plants per poll yearely prohibitinge all ratoones and second cropps. Onely for this presente yeare in regard wee stand doubtfull of the conformity of other plantacons w^{ch} will much prejudice the advaunce of the price of our comodity together wth respecte unto our ingagem^{ts} and taxes. Wee humbly intreate yt may bee lawfull for us to have the full use and benefitt of plantinge Tobaccoe not neglectinge the plantinge store of corne, the propagating gardens and orchards, and the breedinge of cattle Hogges and powltry. And that noe tobaccoe may passe But such as shall be found good and merchantable Wee desire that twoe men or more may bee appoynted and sworne in every parish to veiwe the tobaccoe of each cropp and what they shall find good to bee sealed wth the seale appoynted for measuringe Barrells, and all other tobaccoe to bee Burnte.

2 Secondly wth the like submission unto his Sacred Ma^{ty} wee answere that wee conceive yt would much tend to the advance of the comodity of tobaccoe that a certen rate of 12^d Ⓕ^{1b} for some fewe yeares may bee set upon all the tobaccoes of this Colony and all other His Ma^{ty} plantacons and that a penalty may bee imposed upon the planters not to parte wth yt at anie under rate, and that noe tobaccoe of this Colony Bee putt a Board anie Shipp or anie parcell of anie planters cropp Bee payed or received Before the first day of February yearely Before w^{ch} tyme wee conceive that all tobaccoes will have endured the hazard of spoyleinge whereby the glutt and vast quantyities of our tobaccoes will bee much lessened, and His Ma^{ty} duties and customes much advaunced, when as noe pretence can bee made for the garblinge of tobaccoe in England. But such as shall bee damnified by the insufficiency of Shippinge. This course beinge begun may continue twoe or three yeares, by w^{ch} tyme respectinge the goodnes of the comodity wee may againe joyntely conclude to lessen the quantity and raise the price, And if yt shall bee deemed His Ma^{ty} losse in fallinge from soe greate to a farre lesser quantity of tobaccoe, our desire is His Ma^{ty} profitts may bee raised wth ours. This wee conceive to bee the onely way to advaunce our comodity wherein at present consistis our cheefest releefe and subsistance. And to enable us for the indeavouringe and undertakeinge of other comodities of more worthie consequence, and wthout this course yt is impossible for us to abate or lessen ought of our indeavour from Tobaccoe more then the garblinge of yt heere w^{ch} will much lessen the quantity in regard of the goodnes.

3 Thirdly wth the like obedience unto our dread Sovereigne, Wee answere that the erectinge and buildinge of Stores and the Bringeinge of every man's tobaccoe unto them would bee very chargeable and burthenfome to the whole Colony w^{ch} at present wee are very unable to undergoe, besides much hazard & the damadge and losse in spoyleinge greate parte of our Tobaccoes. The casuallty of wynd and weather beinge considered in respect of the remoatenes of our Plantacons one from another. And wee haveinge noe other meanes to export our tobaccoes but by Boatinge wee humbly intreate that Convenient shippinge may bee licensed to come into every County where they will find every man's howse a store convenient enough for their ladinge Wee Beinge all seated by the Riverside.

4. Fowerthly, Whereas His Ma^{ty} hath taken into his princely care and consideration the unconscyonable dealinges of Merchants and Seamen exactinge the prizes of their goods accordinge to the necessity of the Colony whereby wee are brought into very greate ingagem^{ts} unto them. In all humblenes and thankfulnes unto His Sacred Ma^{ty} Wee answere that our resolucons and indeavours are fully Bent to free our selves from that thraldom and to give the Merchants such good and tymely satisfaccon as that they shall noe way bee discouraged from adventureing hither as formerly (although the price of our tobaccoe be raised w^{ch} in respect of lesseninge the quantity and betteringe the Condiçon the Merchants will the sooner yeald unto) For the life of our beinge and subsistance principally consistis in our yearely supplies, and our freedoms in the trade thereof thereof, w^{ch} gives greate comfote unto us His Ma^{ty} poore Subject^s, But many and unspcakable are the miseryes of the Contract.

5. Lastly, whereas His Ma^{ty} hath taken into his Royall confideraçon our want of a Currant coyne for the encouragem^t of trademen to followe their severall profesfions and hath bene gracoufely pleased to signifie unto us that the farthinge tokens that paffe for currant rechaunge wthin his highnes kingdome of England fhall bee made allfoe currant heere. Wee wth the like obedience unto his Sacred Ma^{ty} doe anfwere that in regard the faid farthinges are very much under the value of them in copper and therefore subjecte to bee altered, that all trademen and others will bee alltogether difhartened to take them in fatisfacon for their labours or in exchange for Comodityes. Wee therefore humbly desire his highnes that the value of five thousand pound sterlinge may bee yearely ymported unto us untill wee bee fufficyently furnished therewth, whereby Artificers may be encouraged to use their trades Workemen ymployed in more honorable ymploym^{ts} then plantinge tobacoe, and thereby the quantity thereof much lessened by our severall Indeavours in buildinge shippinge Erectinge of townes fishinge gardeninge and raiseinge of hogges and other Cattle Both for shippinge and trade w^{ch} are the mayne sinewes of all flowrishinge comon Weales. The w^{ch} may not well bee accomplished wthout a Coyne. And that y^t may bee the more porteaible, Wee in all humility implore his sacred Ma^{ty} to furnish us wth such currant coyne of silver, under the values, for w^{ch} allowance of 10^d ꝑ Centum for the benefitt and Incuragem^t of such Merchants or others whome wee shall approve of that fhall ingage themselves by way of Banke or otherwife by exchange to fatisfie all the exchange and engagem^{ts} fully accordinge to condiçons.

All w^{ch} that wee may the better obteyne, Wee most humbly intreate the right Wor^{pl} the Governor & Counsell to affiste us in and Wee fhall ever (as in duty bound) Pray &c

(Indorfed)

The Burgeffes their First Anfwere to the Kinges Proposiçons.

[The Reasons of the Burgeffes' Anfwer—Virginia.]

To the right Wor^{ps} the Governor and Counsell of State

THE reasons to bee annexed to the anfwere of the Burgeffes w^{ch} they have already presented.

1. First wee humbly intreate your Wor^{ps} to conceive that wee cannot resolve what quantityes of o^r tobacoe will bee yearely made in the Collony in respect of the uncerten number of people yearely comeinge and the mortallity of people here farre greater some yeares then others. Soe that wee are not at anie tyme certain of the number of our Inhabitants. And whereas wee desire by our anfwere the free benefitt & use of our comodity the reason induceinge thus there unto is, that thereby people may bee encouraged to come out of England to plant and inhabite here, whereby the Collony will bee the better strengthened and secured from anie trecherous practises of the Natives contrary to w^{ch} the retraynte of our liberty of plantinge will not onely disharten all men from comeinge hither except such as are inforced through wante & poverty But allfoe will cause many of the Inhabitants here to leave this Colony, and purchase the free use of their labour in other plantaçons soe that the Colony would bee thereby much weakned and in shorte tyme, in regard of our yearely mortallity wee should bee disabled to defend ourselves, Cattle and Plantaçons from the tyranny of the Indyans.

Further the limitaçon of a certain number of plants ꝑ poll hath already caused diverse of the Inhabitants to forsake their Plantaçons and to neglecte the fencinge of grounds, the plantinge of corne, orchards and gardens, the makeinge inclosures, and pasture for cattle and other uses, Beinge necessitated for their presente releefe and subsistence to remove and plant upon such grounds as would yeald most Tobacoe upon a Plante allthough they have suffered all other inconveniences thereby and such as are not able to remove from their old and over worn grounds are kept by the limitation of a certain number of plants $\text{\textcircled{P}}$ poll in perpetuall poverty and ingagem^t, in regard their labour upon few many plants will not produce half so much tobaccoe as others. And further in that we have desired that there might be conformity in all his Ma^{ty} plantations for the quantity of planting, Wee conceive that the vast and excessive quantities of tobaccoe w^{ch} are yearly made in the Cariba Islands being generally twice as much $\text{\textcircled{P}}$ poll at the least as we wth the uttermost of our endeavors can make, hath beene the onely meanes to beate downe the price of all tobaccos, for that w^{thout} a conformity of planting in all his Ma^{ty} plantations there is very little hopes eyther by the lesseninge or betteringe our quantitye in this Colony to advance the price.

2. Secondly, Wee humbly intreate Your Worps to consider howe prejudiciall y^t will be to the Settlem^t of this Colony for us to propound a some or stock of monie to be yearly provided to take of our tobaccos at a certain price, for we conceive that the free use and benefitt of the trade of our comodity will much encourage persons of quality to adventure themselves and their Estates hither when they shall have free correspondence wth their freinds and other adventurers in England to be furnished wth yearly supplies, and to make the best proffitt in the sale of their tobaccos, and animate the most industrious men in this Colony whoe have partely freed themselves from the greedy exactions of the Merchants here by exportinge of their tobaccos yearly for England to be sold, for their best advantage and returned in necessary comodities and fyndeinge themselves in few good course have hitherto resolved to settle their Estates here for posterity, and are thereby enabled in their resolutions to erect good buildings, planting & propagatinge gardens and orchards, fenceinge and Inclosures for Cattle w^{ch} are the onely motives causeinge every man to accompte that place to be his settled habitacion where hee hath few voluntarily spent his endeavors. W^{ch} on the contrary if we shall be denied the free comerce of our owne comodity, most men of ability and industry will converte their whole Estates into tobaccoe & so resolve to leave and forsake the Colony and take the oportunity of a present price for feare of future alteration therein, whose examples y^t is to be doubted, that all men that can will followe, for prooffe where of we can instance divers in this Colony whoe fearinge the abridgm^t of their former libertyes begin to repent their severall disbursements some in good buildinge and others in purchaseinge plantations and buyeing of Cattle. Wherefore y^t is much to be feared that unles His Ma^{ty} will be pleased to continue us in our free endeavors the future hopes of this Colony will be utterly subverted.

3. Thirdly wee humbly intreate yo^r worps to consider howe inconvenient and prejudiciall y^t will be to build warehowses and to bringe our Tobaccoe to them, the reasons wee have in parte sett downe in our answers already presented And further the greatest parte of the Inhabitants are in wante of Boates and not able to procure them few that they must be forced to imparte wth a greate parte of their croppes for the transportation of the rest unto a store and when all the Tobaccos of a County shall be brought into one store the casualty of fyreinge the same w^{ch} may be accidentally done eyther by the Indyans or other wise besids other danger of spoyleinge will cause diverse persons to be in continuall feare of utter undoeing haveinge no other meanes for the releefe & cloathing of themselves, their wives, children and families, then their present cropp. All w^{ch} hazard will be prevented by every man's keeping his owne comodity and deliveringe y^t from his house.

4. Wee humbly entreate Your Worps to consider howe unpossibile y^t is for us to give a generall accompte of the present engam^{ts} of every perticular man and the tyme when the debts were made and what thereof is unpayed, when wee conceive that the third parte of the Countreys debts at the least were made by persons deceased and nowe remainc to be payed by their Executors or Administrators whoe can give no other informaçon of them then that they are foe much indebted but for what confideration the laid debts were made they are altogether ignorant. For further fatisfacçon concerninge the fowerth propofition, wee humbly referre y^u to our anfwere allready prefented.

5. Lafily wee humbly intreate Your worfps to conceive that wee are noe wayes doubtfull of the Lord Matravers or anie other whome His Ma^{ty} fhall bee pleafed to appoynte for fupplyeing us wth a coyne, Onely wee defire that our coyne may bee fomewhat neere the value, leaft upon anie future alteraçon yt fhould bee a meanes to undoe the whole Colony. And wee conceive that the fome of five thoufand pounds Sterlinge yearely (as is expreffed in our former anfwere) will bee fufficyent for the payment of artificers and workmen.

[The Governor's Reply to the Burgefes' Anfwer.]

The Reply of the Governor and Counfell to the Anfwere of the Burgefes.

1. UPON perufall of your anfwere wee find you have rather ftudied to ferve your owne ends then His Ma^{tes} comaunds, and that y^u have rendred your felves uncapeable of treaty by denyeing what your owne free confents had formerly figned for inftance whereof the laft yeares acte concerninge the plantinge of tobaccoe as fufficyent by w^{ch} yt appeareth that inftead of a peremptory anfwere w^{ch} is required from you to what quantity y^u will fubfcribe, You ftrive and capitulate to enlarge the quantity your felves had formerly moderated Let former Affemblyes judge y^u wherein 1500 plants per poll was the then ftint. And indeed foe empty of fatisfaccon or civility is this your anfwere to the firft propoficon that whereas the kinge affures y^u that all other plantaçons fhall bee regulated in their quantity y^u feeme to keepe diftance in your obedience from a prefumptuous doubt of his Ma^{ty} royall promife Soe that wee conceive y^u have not yet touched the poynte nor indeavoured at all to approach his Ma^{tes} commands for the leffeninge your quantity.

2. The fecond is of the fame ftrayne wth the former, nor doe y^u feeme defirous to meete his Ma^{tes} pleafure, But as men in love wth their owne wayes ftudy propoficons inftead of anfweres.

3. The prooffe is very pregnant howe unftable a foundacon y^u build upon in maynteninge the exceffe of this comodity of Tobaccoe when by pretendinge difability to build ftores y^u intimate howe fick and languifhing a comon wealth y^u have yo^r poverty and difability to undertakeinges of confequence yearely increafeinge upon y^u for howe otherwife could former Affemblyes voluntarily aëtuate that w^{ch} nowe the Kinges comaunds receive repulfe in.

4. Wee ftill find y^u in love and league wth your owne humors and in a refolute croffenes to his Ma^{tes} propoficons and therefore wee fynd yt fitt to retourne yo^r anfwere as altogether infufficyent as allfoe full tyme to give y^u caution to call to confideracon the laft claufe of his Ma^{tes} royall lres, whereby y^u may find his Ma^{ty} refolved in cafe of your perversenes to advife of fome other courfe wth the Lords of his Ma^{tes} moft honorable privy Counfell concerninge your future regulatige.

5. Whereas the Kinges pleafure is that the right honorable Henry Lord Matravers fhall have the rent of a Coyne hither wth a prefumptuous contradiccon and retortinge you would infit upon fuch perfons whoe fhall ftand wth your owne pleafure and approbacion w^{ch} wee muft not admitt for anfwere. And for yo^r laft claufe wherein y^u begge our affiftance our reply is thus pofitive Wee cannot foe forgett our dutyes to that Maifter and Kinge wee ferve. And therefore if your anfwere ftand upon thefe termes wee muft diffolve yo^r meetinge and retourne your difobedyence

To the right worpll the Governor and Counsell of State.

The humble answere of the Burgeffes of this grand Affembly to the second Reply.

WEE have accordinge to your Woꝛps propoficon wth our beft indeavo^{rs} compofed our former anfweres and reafons together and wee humbly intreate your woꝛps to conceive that the limittacon of planting hath cheefely hindred the fettinge ploughes to work and other good undertakeinges, for thereby divers perfons of good ability have beene forced from their ould plantaçons w^{ch} are the onely grounds ufefull for the plough, and are ftill deterred from makeinge anie refolved fettlem^t in refpect they have beene compelled by their then prefente occaçons to feeke out and plant upon thofe grounds w^{ch} would yeald moft tobaccoe upon a plant. W^{ch} if liberty of plantinge had beene permitted they would not have done. And further wee humbly intreate your Woꝛps to conceive that the cheefeft meanes to leffen the quantity and better the quality of tobaccoe will be to take an exacte and carefull courfe in veiweinge all tobaccoe and burninge that w^{ch} is bad. For by the due execucon thereof all men will defist from their vaft quantityes and endeavour to excell in the goodnes w^{ch} hath allwayes beene helpfull to the price Whereas for fome fewe yeares pafte the reftraynt and limitaçon hath beene very prejudiciall to the goodnes of moft tobaccoes in the Colony by the gatheringe of leaves neare the ground wantinge fubftance and of an earthie fent and taft and the makeinge of fecond croppes. The planters for their prefent fubftitance ftriveinge to make the moft tobaccoe of foe manie plants & poll although they have thereby hazarded the fpoyleinge of their whole croppes. Neither hath former limittacons ought leffened the quantity of tobaccoe for at leaft twoe thirds of the Inhabitants have thereby had liberty in refpect of their families to plant as much or more then their Workers in the ground could compaffe to tend foe that the reftraynte hath beene onely prejudicyall to fome fewe men w^{ch} for the moft parte have neither cattle nor anie other fubftitance but their labours further wee humbly intreate your woꝛps to conceive that moft of the Inhabitants of this Colony are fenfible of the neceffary helpe and benefitt of draught oxen and ploughes that all men of ability haveinge the meanes for fuch undertakeinges will endeavour as foone as they can to obteyne and ymploy them.

[The Burgeffes' Answer.]

To the right Worpll the Governo^r and Captayne Generall of Virginia and the Counsell of State.

The humble anfwere of the Burgeffes of this prefent Grand Affembly unto the Kinges Ma^{ty} Comaunds.

WHEREAS o^r moft graçous Sovereigne the Kinges Ma^{ty} out of his princely care of us his people and this his Colony of Virginia hath beene pleafed to take into his Royall confideraçon the weake and meane eftate of us his poore Subjects, occafiond partely through the vaft quantityes of tobaccoes by us here made, as allfoe by the boundles defire of gayne in thofe w^{ch} yearely fupply us, and to that purpofe hath beene pleafed to fignifie his facred comaunds unto us both for betteringe the quality & leffening the quantity of our tobaccoes and that wee fhould fignifie unto his facred Ma^{ty} what quantityes wee could yearely fend home, and to fett an exact price thereupon. Firft in obedience to w^{ch} comaunds Wee the Burgeffes of this prefent Grand Affembly upon the bended knees of our harts, doe proftrate our felves at the feete of his moft facred Ma^{ty} humblie intreatinge his highnes will bee gracoufelic pleafed to conceive that in refpecte of the uncerten number of people yearely comeinge hither and the mortality here, being some yeares farre greater then others wee are unable to resolve what quantities of tobaccos will bee yearly made in this Colony, And wee further implore his sacred Ma^{tie} to admitt us the free use and benefitt of our comodity to encourage other people yearly to transport themselves hither to inhabitt, w^{ch} will the better strengthen and secure us against the trecherous practises of the Natives, the restraynte and abridgment of w^{ch} liberty will not onely disharten all men from cominge hither (except such as are inforced through wante and poverty) but will cause many of the Inhabitants here to leave the colony and purchase the free use of their labour in some other plantacon soe that the Colony in short tyme in respect of our yearly mortality will bee brought into soe meane and miserable estate as that wee shall not bee able to defend ourselves, cattle and plantacons from the tyranny of the Natives And further wee humbly intreate his Ma^{ty} will bee pleased to add unto us the continuance of his princely assistance, in conformeing all his highnes Subjects of other Plantacons plantinge Tobaccoe to confyne themselves to the just proporcon of 1500 plants ℥ poll prohibitinge all ratoones and second cropps and for some fewe yeares to set the certen rate of twelve pence ℥ pound upon all tobaccoe wth a penalty to bee layed upon the planter to parte wth yt at anie under rate in regard the wast and exceffive quantities of tobaccos w^{ch} are yearly made in the Southerne parts of America beinge twice soe much at the least ℥ poll (as wee wth the uttermost of our indeavours can make) hath bene the cheefest meanes to beate downe the price of all Tobaccos. This course beinge begun may continue twoe or three yeares, by w^{ch} tyme wee may againe joyntly conclude to lessen the quantity and raise the price and if yt shall bee deemed his Ma^{ty} losse in his customes by fallinge from soe greate to a farre lesse quantity of tobaccoe Wee humbly desire that his Ma^{ty} profitts may bee raised wth the price, this wee conceive to bee the onely way to advance the comodity of Tobaccoe wherein at present consistts our cheefest releefe and subsistance and to enable us for the undertakeinge of other comodities of more worthie consequence.

In the meane tyme wee humbly intreate to have the free use and benefitt in the trade of our tobaccoe w^{ch} will much incourage persons of quality to adventure themselves and estates hither, when they shall have free correspondance wth their freinds and other Adventurers in England to bee furnished wth yearly supplies. And to make the best profit in the sale of their owne comodities and animate the most indutrious men of this Colony whoe have partely freed themselves from the greedy exaccons of Merchants here by exporting their tobaccoe yearly for England to bee sold for the best advantage and returned in necessarie comodities whoe fyndeinge themselves in soe good course have hitherto resolved to settle their estates here for posterity and thereby are inabled in their resolucons to erect good buildinges plantinge and propagatinge gardens and orchards fenceinge and inclosures for cattle w^{ch} are the greatest motives causeinge every man to accompt that place to bee his settled home Wherein hee hath soe voluntarilie spent his indeavours the restraynte of w^{ch} free comerce of our comodity will bee a meanes to cause most men of ability and industry to converte their whole estates into tobaccoe and soe forsake the Colonie and take the oportunity of a present price for feare of future alteracon therein whose examples yt is doubtfull all men that can will followe, for prooffe whereof wee can instance diverse in the Colony whoe fearinge the abridgem^t of their former libertyes begin to repent their severall disbursem^{ts} some in good buildinge others in purchaseinge plantacons and buyeinge of cattle wherefore yt is much to bee feared that unles his Sacred Ma^{tie} will bee pleased to continue us in our free indeavours, the future hopes of this Colony will bee utterly subverted.

And in the meane tyme untill wee shall have certen assurance of all other his Ma^{ties} Plantacons in respect of our present ingagem^{ts} and in that the former limitacon of 1500 plants ℥ poll hath already caused diverse of the Inhabitants here to forsake their plantacons, and to neglect the fenceinge of ground the plantinge of corne orchards and gardens the makeinge of pastures for cattle and other inclosures whoe have bene necessitated for their presente releefe and subsistance to remove and plant upon such ground as will yeald most tobaccoe upon a plante allthough they have suffered all other inconveniences inconveniencies thereby And such as have not beene able to remove from their old and overworne plantacons have beene kept by that limittacon in continuall poverty and ingagem^{ts}. In regard their labour upon foe manie plants would not produce halfe foe much tobaccoe as others upon newe ground. Wee humbly intreate that wee may have the free liberty of plantinge tobaccoe as well as thofe his Ma^{ty} Subjects upon other plantacons untill there bee a generall conformity and that noe tobaccoe may paffe but such as shall bee founde good and merchantable. Wee humbly desire that twoe men or more in every parish bee appoynted and fworne to veiwe the tobaccoe of each man's cropp and what they shall find good to bee fealed wth the feale appoynted for measures, and all other tobaccoe to bee burnt. And further that noe tobaccoe shall bee payed or received out of anie man's cropp or putt on board anie Shipp before the first day of January yearely before w^{ch} tyme wee conceive all tobaccoe will have endured the hazard of spoyleinge foe that the glutt and vast quantity of our tobaccoe will bee much lessened and his Ma^{ty} duties and customes much advaunced. When as noe presence can bee made for the garblinge of tobaccoe, But such as shall bee damnified by the insufficiency of shippinge.

With the like obedience unto our dread Sovereigne wee humbly answere that the erectinge and buildinge of generall warehowfes and bringeinge our tobaccoe unto them will bee very chargeable and burthenfome to the Colony w^{ch} at present wee are very unable to undergoe Besides much hazard of the damadge and spoyleinge our tobaccoes by boatinge in respecte of the remoutenes of our plantacons one from another, the casuallty of wynd and weather beinge considered and the greate charge to most of the Inhabitants whoe for want of sufficyent boates and meanes to procure them will bee continually inforced to pay for the transportacon of their tobaccoes unto the said Stores or Warehowfes, allfoe the continuall danger of fyreinge such stores eyther by the Indyans or otherwise, W^{ch} accident happeninge would bee the utter undoeinge of diverse of his Ma^{ty} poore subjectes whose yearely cropps are the onely meanes for the relefe of themselves their Wives, Children and Familyes wth cloathing and other neccessaryes. Wherefore wee humbly intreate that convenient shippinge may bee licensed to come into every County where they will find every man's howfe stores convenient for their ladinge, Wee beinge all feated by the rivers side.

And whereas his Ma^{ty} hath taken into his Princely care and confideracon the unconfcyonable dealinges of Merchants and Seamen exactinge the prices of their goods accordinge to the neccessity of the Colony whereby wee are brought into very great ingagements Wee humbly intreate your wo^{rps} to consider howe unpossibile yt is for us to give a generall accompt of the present ingagem^{ts} of every particular man and the tyme when the debts were made and what thereof is unpayde when wee conceive that the third parte of the Countryes debts at the least were made by partyes deceased and nowe remayne. to bee payde by their Executors and Administrators whoe can give noe other informacōn then that they are foe much indebted But for what confideracon the said debts were made they are altogether ignorant. Further wth all submissiōn and thankfullnes unto our gracious Sovereigne Wee answere that our resolucons and indeavours are fully bent to free our selves from the thraldome of debtes and to give the Merchants such good and tymely fatisfaccon as that they shall noe way bee discouraged from adventuringe hither as formerly although the price of our Tobaccoe bee raised w^{ch} in respect of lesseninge the quantity and betteringe the condicon thereof the Merchants will the sooner yeald unto, for the life of our beinge and subsistence principally confists in our yearely supplies. And our freedoms in the trade thereof w^{ch} gives great comfort to us his Ma^{ty} poore Subjects But many and unspeakeable are the miseryes of contracte.

Laftely Whereas his Ma^{tie} hath taken into his royall Confideraçon the wante of a Coyne for the encouragem^t of tradefmen in the Colony to followe their feveral professions and hath bene gracoufely pleased to fignifie that the farthinge tokens that paffe for currant rechange wthin his highnes Kingdome of England fhall bee made currant heere, Wee wth the like obedience unto his facred Ma^{tie} doe anfwere that in regard the faid farthinges are very much under value of them in copper and therefore fubject to future alteraçons all tradefmen and others will bee difhartened to take them in fatisfaccon for their labour or in exchange for comodities. Wee therefore humbly intreate our gracious Sovereigne that the value of £5000 sterlinge may bee yearely tranfported into the Collony untill wee fhall fufficyently bee furnifhed therewth, W^{ch} forme wee conceive to bee fufficyent for the paym^t of Artificers and Workemen for fome fewe yeares, And will caufe them and diverfe others to defift from plantinge tobaccoe to followe other more worthie ymployments as erectinge of Townes, buildinge of fhippinge fifhing and gardeninge and breedinge of cattle and hogges both for the provifion of fhippinge and trade in the Colony w^{ch} are the mayne fynewes of all flourifhing comon Weales, And further wee humbly intreate his facred Ma^{tie} that the faid yearely fomme of £5000 sterlinge may bee a currant coyne of filver fome what under the value wth the allowance of tenne $\frac{7}{8}$ centum for the encouragem^t of the undertakers whome his Ma^{ty} fhall appoynt to ingage themfelves by way of Banck or otherwife by Exchange. And wee humbly intreate your Worps to affifte us in thefe our fubmiffive requests, and wee, as in duty bound, fhall ever pray &c

“The laft Anfwere of the Burgefles”

[Two Papers of the 1641/42 Assembly.]

The Declaration against the Company to be entered as the twenty-first act.

TO all christian people to whom these presents shall come to be read, heard or understood, We the Governor, Council and Burgeses of the Grand Assembly in Virginia send greeting in our Lord God Everlasting: Whereas George Sandis, Esq. being appointed agent for the colony by an Assembly 1639 hath exhibited a petition in the name of the adventurers and planters in Virginia to the Honourable House of Commons in Parliament in England for the restoring of the letters patents of incorporation to the late Treasurer and Company—mistaking his advice and instructions from the said Assembly; for his so doing it being neither the meaning nor intent of the said Assembly or inhabitants here for to give way for the introducing of the said company or any other.

To which intent and purpose this Grand Assembly having fully debated and maturely considered the reasons on both sides as well arguing for as against a company and looking back into the condition of the times under the company as also upon the present state of the colony under his majesties government they find the late company in their government intollerable the present comparatively happy and that the old corporation cannot with any possibility be again introduced without absolute ruin and dissolution to the colony for these reasons following, vizt.

1st. The intollerable calamity of the colony we find proved by many illegal proceedings and barbarous torments inflicted upon divers of his majesties subjects in the time of the said companies government all which appear per depositions taken at a Grand Assembly anno 1632 and is known to divers now living in the colony.

Also we find the whole trade of the colony to the general grievance and complaint of the inhabitants then and now appearing to us monopolized by the said company inso-much that upon the going home of any person for his country it was not free for him to carry with him the fruits of his labour for his own comfort and relief but was forced to bring it to the magazine of the company and there to exchange it for useles and unprofitable wares.

2dly. The present happiness is exemplified to us by the freedom of yearly assemblies warranted unto us by his majesties gracious instructions and the legal trial per juries in all criminal and civil causes where it shall be demanded. And above all by his majesties royal encouragement unto us upon all occasions to address ourselves unto him by our humble petitions which doth so much distinguish our happiness from that of the former times that private letters to friends were rarely admitted passage.

To the third for introducing the old corporation without ruin and dissolution to the colony at present as a thing not possible we conceive we have these just grounds.

1st. There can be no right or property introduced for them without proving the illegality of the King's proceedings so that all grants since upon such a foundation must of consequence be * * * and tending to displeasure, we the present planters enjoy our lands by immediate grant from his majesty if (as it is argued in their petition) the King had no power to grant our possessions must give place to their claim which is one invincible argument (as we conceive) of the ruin and dissolution to the colony at present; when if their pretences take place we must be outed of all, And whereas it is alledged that the charter of orders from the Treasurer and Company anno 1618, gives us claim and right right to be members of the corporation quatenus planters we find the company by the said charter where members planters and adventurers are considered by themselves and distinguished in privileges from planters and adventurers not being members and we further find ourselves (being the King's grantees) in the said charter condemned, the clause plainly pronouncing in these words (we do ordaine that all such persons as of their own voluntary will and authority shall remove into Virginia without any grant from us in a great and general quarter court in writing under our seals shall be deemed, as they are, occupiers of our land that is to say of the common land of us the said Treasurer and Company) much more such grantees as have their right from an erroneous judgment as they pretend.

2dly. That if the Company be renewed by which means they as aforesaid have leave and the strength of their own charter of orders publicly in this colony to displant us the wifer world we hope will excuse us if we be wary to depart with what (next our lives) nearest concerns us (which are our estates being the livelihood of ourselves, wives and children) to the courtesy and will of such taskmasters from whom we have already experimented so much oppression.

3dly. We may not admit of so unnatural a distance as a company will interpose between his sacred majesty and us his subjects from whose immediate protection we have received so many royal favours and gracious blessings

For by such admission

1st. We shall degenerate from the condition of our birth being naturalized under a monarchical government and not a popular and tumultuary government depending upon greatest number of votes of persons of several humours and dispositions as this of a company must be granted to be from whose general quarter courts all laws binding the planters here did and would again issue.

2dly. We cannot without breach of natural duty and religion give up and resign the lands which we had granted and hold from the king upon certain annual rents (fitter as we humbly conceive if his majesty shall so please, for a branch of his own royal stem then for a company) to the claim of a corporation; for besides our births our possessions enjoin us as a fealty without a salvasde aliis dominis.

We conceive by admission to a company the freedom of our trade (which is the blood and life of a commonwealth) is impeached; for they who with most secret reservation and most subtlety argue for a company tho' they pretend to submit the government to the King yet they reserve to the corporation propriety to the land and power of managing the trade, which word managing in any sense taken we can no ways interpret, then a convertible to monopolizing; for whether in this sense that all the commodities raised in the colony shall be parted with, exchanged or vended at such rates and prices as they set down or such wares and merchandize as they shall import or be disposed into their magazine or such bottoms as shall from time to time be licensed or ordered by them, or whether in this sense that the planters [obtain?] only such commodities and in such proportions as by advice and determination of their quarter courts shall be directed, still the terms and condition of the planters are subjected to a monopoly that is to their sole guidance governing and managing with what reason we leave to the world to judge; for tho' we submit in depth of judgment and understanding to such as shall sit at the helm there, yet it is very possible and indeed most probable that at this distance wiser men may mistake and there is more likelihood that such as are acquainted with the climate and the accidents thereof may upon better grounds prescribe our advantages both for quantity and quality of commodities which by the bounty of his majesty we now enjoy by our Grand Assembly and in any other way will be destructive unto us according to our possession.

Though

Though we may admit the pretence that the government shall be made good to the King that is that the King shall nominate and appoint the Governor. First we find it directly (besides the scope of the part which insists upon the restoring of the company in all formalities next we take it at best but for a falacie and trap not of capacity enough to catch men with eyes and foresight for upon a supposition that a governor shall be named and appointed by his majesty yet his dependance (so far forth as continuing or displacing) will by reason of their power and interest in great men there rest in them which necessarily brings with it conformity to their wills in whatsoever shall be commanded, which how pernicious it will be to the colony according to our assertion in this head we leave to the ablest judgments.

We the Governor, Council and Burgeses of this present Grand Assembly having taken into serious consideration these and many other dangerous effects which must be concomitant in and from a company or corporation have thought fit to declare and hereby do declare from ourselves and all the commonalty of this colony that it was never desired, sought after or endeavoured to be sought for either directly or indirectly by the consent of any Grand Assembly or the common consent of the people. And we do hereby further declare and testify to all the world that we will never admit the restoring of the said company or any for or in their behalfs saving ourselves herein a most faithful and loyal obedience to his sacred majesty our dread soverain, whose royal and gracious protection and allowance and maintenance of this our just declaration and protestation we doubt not according to his accustomed clemency and benignity to his subjects to find. And we do further enact and be it hereby enacted and manifested per authority aforesaid that what person or persons soever either is or hereafter shall be any planter or adventurer shall go about by any way or means either directly or indirectly to sue for advice, assist, abet countenance or contrive the reducing of this colony to a company or corporation or to introduce a contract or monopoly upon our persons, lands or commodities upon due proof or conviction of any of the premises, (to wit) by going about by any way or means to sue for, advise, assist, abet, countenance or contrive the reducing of this colony to a company or corporation, or to introduce a contract or monopoly as aforesaid, upon the due conviction as aforesaid shall be held and deemed an enemy to the colony and shall forfeit his or their whole estate or estates that shall be found within the limits of the colony the one half shall be and come to public uses the other moiety or half to the informer. This act to be in force and the penalty therein contained to extend to all the adventurers and planters now residing in the colony upon the publication at James City and to all adventurers and planters now in England or elsewhere out of the limits the colony within five days after the arrival of this our said declaration, protestation and act within the kingdom of England, signed under our hands and sealed with our seal of the colony at James City the first day of April in the year of our Lord 1642 and in the eighteenth year of the reign of our soverain Lord Charles over England, &c.

The Governor, Council and Burgeses of this present Grand Assembly taking into serious consideration the many and weighty business begun in this present Grand Assembly and which yet do remain unfinished and to prevent all doubts whether the passing of the acts already agreed upon will not be a determination of this Assembly do hereby enact and by the authority of this present Grand Assembly be it enacted that notwithstanding the passing and enacting of divers acts already agreed upon this present Assembly shall left be determined but that it be adjourned to the Thursday in Whitson week being the second day of June next coming at which time and day the whole body of this present Assembly consisting of the Governor, Council and Burgeses shall repair to James City then and there to determine and finish all such matters as shall be found necessary to be concluded concluded and enacted whether in matters already begun or other buifnefs that fhall then begin or be propofed that may redound to the glory of God, the honour of his majefty and the good of the Colony.

A Remonfrance¹ of the Grand Affembly.

WHEREAS the natural and moft wifhed effects of Affemblys may fummarily be comprehended and [in] the ordering and enacting of good and wholefome laws and ratifying and relieving of fuch diforders and grievances which are incident to all ftates and republic[s] in which confiderations this Affembly may feem to have declined and fwerved from thofe true intents of fo happy conftitutions if their endeavours and declarations be apprehended either by a bare view of the laws few in number and therefore not anfwering the expectation of a meeting exceeding cuftomary limits of time in this place ufed or by comparing the payments and levies now impofed much more free and in refpect that in them the grievance of the inhabitants were principally ftated,

It is therefore thought fit by them to prefent and remonfrate to the colony the weighty confequence and benefits redounding thereto by their late confultations.

1^{ft}. The firft is intanced by repealing the act of four pound per poll yearly to the Gov. which is a benefit defcending unto us and our pofterity which we acknowledge contributed to us by our prefent Gov.

Next by abolifhing condemnations and cenfures (prefidential from the time of the corporation) of the inhabitants from colonies fervice wherein we may not likewise filence the bounty of our prefent Governor in preferring the public freedom before his particular profit in which act alfo we may pronounce the inhabitants abfolutely to have recorded the birthright of their mother nation and the remains of the late companys oppreffion to be quite extinguifhed.

3^{dly}. The near approach which we have made to the laws and cuftoms of England in proceedings of the court and trials of caufes.

4^{thly}. The rules and formes fet down for deciding of differencies and debates concerning titles of land and otherwife.

5^{thly}. The appropriating and accomodating of parifhes with metes and bounds that God Almighty may be the more duly ferved.

6^{thly}.

6thly. The treaties and overtures with the Gov. of the province of Mariland requiring much time for maturing and very successful in opening a trade in the Bay of Chesapeake.

7thly. The settling of peace with friendship with the Indians by mutual capitulation and articles agreed and concluded on in writing by many messages and interruptions lengthened.

8thly. The Common grievances relieved and removed in assentments proportioning in some measure payments according to mens abilities and estates augmented unto the wealthier sort by the number of the milk kind and in that relief afforded to the poorer sort of the inhabitants which course through the strangeness thereof could not but require much time of controverting and debating.

9thly. Lastly the gracious inclination of his majesty ever ready to our protection and now more particularly assured to us together with the concurrence of a happy parliament in England were the greater motives to us to take the opportunity of establishing our liberties and privileges and settling our estates often heretofore assaulted and threatened and was lately invaded by the late corporation and of preventing the future designs of monopolizers contractors and preemptors ever hitherto incessant upon us not only bereaving us of all cheerfulness and alacrity but usurping the benefit and disposition of our labours and we apprehended no time could be mispent or labour misplaced in gaining a firm peace to ourselves and posterity and a future immunity and ease from taxes and impositions which we expect to be the fruits of our endeavours and to which end we have thought it seasonable for us liberally and freely to open our purses not doubting but all well affected persons will with all zeal and good affection embrace the purchase and pray to Almighty God for the success.— Given at a Grand Assembly at James City the first of July 1642.

[King Charles I. to the Governor Council & Assembly of Virginia.]

C. R.

5 July 1642.

TRUSTY and Wellbeloved. Wee greet you well, Whereas Wee have received a Petition from you, Our Governor Council and Burgeesses of the Grand Assembly in Virginia, together with a Declaration & Protestation of the first of April against a Petition presented in yo^r names to our House of Commons in this our Kingdome for restoring of the Letters Patents for the Incorporacion of the late Treas^r and Company contrary to our intent and meaning, And against all such as shall so go about to alienate you from Our immediate Protection.

And Whereas you desire by yo^r Petition that Wee should confirm this yo^r Declaration and Protestacion under Our Royall Signet, & transmit it to that our Colony. These are to signify that yo^r acknowledgment of our great bounty and favour towards you, and yo^r so earnest desire to continue under our immediate Protection is very acceptable to us; And that as Wee had not before the least intention to consent to the introduction of any Comp^a over that our Colony So Wee are by it much confirmed in our former resolucons, as thinking it unfitt to change a forme of Government wherein (besides many other reasons given and to be given) Our Subjects there (having had so long experience of it) receive so much contentment and satisfaction. And this our approbacion of yo^r Petition and Protestacion, Wee have thought fit to transmitt unto you under our Roy^{ll} Signet, Given at our Court at Yorke the 5th day of July 1642. To Our Trusty and Wellbeloved Our Governor Councill and Burgeesses of the Grand Assembly in Virginia.

[Orders Passed at the 1643/44 Session.]

June 3^d 1644:

It is ordered by the Authority aforesaid that the last yeares Sherriffes throughout this Collony respectively doe at the next session of Asssembly bring in all their Accoumpts of the last yeare. It is ordered by the Authority aforesaid that whereas by the late bloody Maffacre divers bufyneffes have wanted their present dispatch and especially the Adminiftration of the Oath a matter of noe meane Consequence in these dangerous tymes. It is therefore ordered that the Com^{rs} of each County fortwth doe see the due execution thereof according to the former order to that purpose provided.

Whereas New Matters of Importance hath nowe most unexpectedly interposed itself, as allsoe the deplorable estate of this afflicted Country being unable to Mannadg the affaires that doth contynually aryse by reason of this present Warre. being noe wayes furnished wth a fitt $\text{\textcircled{P}}$ porcion of Armes. and Amunition, for the preservation and safety thereof. But that in all likelyhood may declyne to a sodaine Ruine and Defolation. It is therefore ordered by this p^{rs}ent Grand Asssembly that the Governo^r bee entreated to repaire for England. and Implore his Ma^{ty}s gracious assistance for our Releife w^{ch} Motion and desires of our he having willingly embraced. It is thought fitt this present Asssembly having used their best endeavo^{rs} for the Countrys defence & preservation. that it bee ordered that there bee an adiournm^t untill the 15th day of November next at w^{ch} tyme all Bufyneffes nowe depending may then receive a finall determination. And that the Sherriff of each County bee hereby authorized and Comnded to give Notice to the Burgeffes of each County to make their Repaire to James Citty at the tyme aforesaid. hereof they may not faile as they will answere the Contrary at their $\text{\textcircled{P}}$ ill.

It is ordered by this p^{rs}ent Grand Asssembly that M^r Cornelius Loyd bee employed to the Dutch Plantacon the Sweeds and New England. as agent for the Country. and that he have Commiffion granted him for that purpose. Whoe hath freely proffered for the expedition of the voyage besides his owne service to Lend the Country thirty barrells of Corne and Sixe hogheads of Tob^o And what Amunition shall bee brought in to bee disposed of by the Governo^r & Counsaile.

[Order Passed at the October 1644 Session.]

October 2^d A^o 1644.

IN respect of the present Inability of divers peoples wthin this Collony by the late Maffacre. It is therefore thought fitt and accordingly ordered. by the authority of this present grand Assembly. That all servants Armes Amunition and Corne w^{ch} is for every ones provision for the present, bee free & exempted from the Rigour of execution. And this to contynue till the next Assembly.

[Orders Passed at the March 1645/46 Session.]

WHEREAS the Yeare was farre spent, before the Levyes were appoynted and p^rporcioned: w^{ch} hath occasioned very badd paym^t to the great detriment of the Creditors to the publique Levy. W^{ch} was not in the possible power of the late sherriffes to prevent; It is therefore thought fitt that the said Sherr: vizt of the last yeare bee and are hereby authorized to demand and receive specialties, wth security and forbearance for all arreares due to the publique, eyther in their owne names, or in the names of the Creditors, yf they shall see desire it, for paym^t at the next Cropp; wth power to the said sherriffes in case the debtors shall deny eyther paym^t or security and forbearance as aforesaid. That then the said sherriffes shall have power to diftrayne. And that the new elected sherriffes in case of non paym^t y^e nexte yeare, of such specialties see taken as aforesaid, shall have power to diftrayne of the Goods or bodyes of such debtors.

Upon the Intercession of the house of Commons. The Governor and Councill doe thinke fitt to mitigate the height of punishment w^{ch} might bee iustly inflicted upon all Offendors, in the Petitioners Condition: It is therefore thought fitt & accordingly ordered by this Grand Assembly. That Christopher Burroughs shall make a publique acknowledgment of his offence, upon his Knees, before this grand Assembly. And likewise in the two parish Churches, in the County of Lower Norfolk, in the tyme of divine service: And at the County Court. And bee disabled forbearing any publique office, eyther in Church or Commonwealth, for seaven yeares after yett to come: And put in security for his good behaviour at the said County Court.

[By the Governor, Counsell, & Burgeffes of the Grand Affembly in Virginia,
Aprill the 5th 1647.]

WHEREAS many & moft abfolute neceffities have given Caufe to feverall late grand Affemblyes to eftablifh fundry folemne Acts & publifh declarations thereupon to invite & encourage the Dutch nation to a Trade & Commerce with the Inhabitants of the Collony, w^{ch} now for fome few yeares they have Inioyed with fuch Content, Comfort & releife that they efteeme the continuance thereof, of noe leffe confequence then as a relative to their being & fubfiftence.

Now for as much as rumours & reports are rayfed and fpread abroad, that by a late ordenance of the Parliament of England, all ftrangers are p^hibited trade wth any of the Englifh plantacons, w^{ch} wee conceive to bee the invention of fome Englifh Merchants on purpose to affright & expell the Dutch, and make way for themfelves to Monopolize not onely our labours and fortunes, but even our p^hifons, w^{ch} wee may with foe much fence of fmart deliver, in that with the cofidence of truth wee may averre, that the Monopolize, contracts & of p^hiects of our commodity defigned upon & againft us by the Englifh Merchants for falfe ends, & to our ruine have coft us more in charges of Affemblyes, then would have fufficiently fortified the Country with the advantage of many a p^hitable nurfurye for Manufactures:

In w^{ch} report wee have Caufe to feare the hand that hath allready bin foe heavy upon us & with Charity enough to doubt a pra^htife from thofe whofe heads have been over bufily & reftlefly employed to gaine their ends upon us:

ffor wee may not p^hfume on fuch a thought that the moft hono^{ble} houfes of Parliament would conclude us in a Cafe of right & priviledge granted unto us by ancient Chart^r. (Vidzt) that it fhould be lawfull for the Planters to entertaine trade with any nation or people in amitye with his Ma^{tie} efpecially without hearing of the p^hties principally interefted, w^{ch} infringeth noe leffe the libertye of the Collony & a right of deare efteeme to free borne p^hifons: (Vidzt) that noe lawe fhould bee eftablifhed within the kingdome of England concerninge us without the confent of a grand Affembly here.

Or in Cafe the moft hon^{ble} houfes have bin abufed & by the wylie & fpetious p^htences of Merchants, or Seamen trading to the Collony bin circumvented to the paffing of fuch an Ordinance, wee are affured the Juftnes of our Caufe will finde admittance & vindication from y^t hono^{ble} Counfell: The rights, immunities & priviledges of our Charter by as due a Clayme belonginge to us, as is the wages of an hirelinge that hath laboured for it, for they only gave us Invitacon & were the Condi^honall reward & guerdon p^hpounded for our Undertakeings in thofe rugged paths of Plantacon.

But haveing neyther received p^hhibition or Intimacon concerning the fayd trade, wee can interprett noeother thing from the report, then a forgerye of avaritious p^hifons, whofe fickle hath bin ever long in our harveft allreadye.

Howfoever if the Act were illegall (though on the contrary wee are warranted by right & therefore by lawe) wee muft like Creatures even of fence p^hvide for our owne fafeties & fubfiftance.

In Order whereupon, wee doe againe invite the Dutch Nation, & againe publifh & declare all ffredome & libertie to them to trade within the Collony. And doe oblige ourfelves & the whole Collony to defend them with our uttermoft power & abilitye, in the peaceable fruition thereof eyther by reparacon from the eftates of thofe who fhall offer them any violence or caufe them any difturbance or otherwife; & fhall p^hceede gainft them as Oppugners of our undoubted rights & priviledges.

[Speech of Sir Wm. Berkeley, and Declaration of the Assembly, March 1651 (1650/51)].

GENTLEMEN you perceave by the Declaration that the men of Westminster have fet out, which I beleeve you have all seene, how they meane to deale with you hereafter, who in the time of their wooing and courting you propound such hard Conditions to be performed on your parts, & on their owne nothing but a benigne acceptance of your duties to them.

Indeed me thinks they might have proposed something to us which might have strengthened us to beare those heavy chaines they are making ready for us, though it were but an assurance that we shall eat the bread for which our owne Oxen plow, and with our owne sweate we reape; but this assurance (it seemes) were a franchise beyond the Condition they have resolu'd on the Question we ought to be in: For the reason why they talke so Magisterially to us in this, we are forsooth their worships slaves, bought with their money and by consequence ought not to buy, or sell but with those they shall Authorize with a few trifles to Cofzen us of all for which we toile and labour.

If the whole Current of their reasoning were not as ridiculous, as their actions have been Tyrannicall and bloody; we might wonder with what browes they could sustaine such impertinent assertions: For if you looke into it, the strength of their argument runs onely thus: we have laid violent hands on your Land-Lord, possess'd his Manner house where you used to pay your rents, therefore now tender your respects to the same house you once revered: I call my conscience to witnes, I lie not, I cannot in all their Declaration perceave a stronger argument for what they would impose on us, then this which I have now told you: They talke indeed of money laid out on this Country in its infancy: I will not say how little, nor how Centuply repaid, but will onely aske, was it theirs? They who in the beginning of this warr were so poore, & indigent, that the wealth and rapines of three Kingdomes & their Churches too, cannot yet make rich, but are faine to seeke out new Territories and impositions to sustaine their Luxury amongst themselves. Surely Gentlemen we are more slaves by nature, then their power can make us if we suffer our selves to be shaken with these paper bullets, & those on my life are the heaviest they either can or will send us.

'Tis true with us they have long threatned the Barbados, yet not a ship goes thither but to beg trade, nor will they do to us, if we dare Honourably resist their Imperious Ordinance. Assuredly Gentlemen you have heard under what heavy burthens, the afflicted English Nation now groanes, and calls to heaven for relief: how new and formerly unheard of impositions make the wives pray for barrenness and their husbands deafnes to exclude the cries of their succourles, starving children: And I am confident you do believe, none would long endure this slavery, if the sword at their throats Did not Compell them to Languish under the misery they howrely suffer. Looke on their sufferings with the eyes of understanding, and that will prevent all your teares but those of Compassion. Consider with what prisons and Axes they have paid those that have served them to the hazard of their soules: Consider your selves how happy you are and have been, how the Gates of wealth and Honour are shut on no man, and that there is not here an Arbitrary hand that dares to touch the substance of either poore or rich: But that which I woud have you chiefly consider with thankfullnes is: That God hath seperated you from the guilt of the crying blood of our Pious Souveraigne of ever blessed memory:

But

But mistake not Gentlemen part of it will yet ftaine your garments if you willingly fubmit to thofe murderers hands that fhed it: I tremble to thinke how the oathes they will impofe will make thofe guilty of it, that have long abhor'd the traiteroufneffe of the act: But I confeffe having had fo frequent testimonies of your truths and courages, I cannot have a reasonable fufpition of any cowardly falling of from the former refolutions, and have onely mentioned this laft, as a part of my duty and care of you, not of my reall doubts and fears: or if with untryed men we were to argue on this fubject, what is it can be hoped for in a change, which we have not allready? Is it liberty? The fun looks not on a people more free then we are from all oppreffion. Is it wealth? Hundreds of examples fhew us that Induftry & Thrift in a fhort time may bring us to as high a degree of it, as the Country and our Conditions are yet capable of: Is it feccurety to enjoy this wealth when gotten? With out blufhing I will fpeake it, I am confident theare lives not that perfon can accufe me of attempting the leaft act againft any mans property? Is it peace? The Indians, God be bleffed round about us are fubdued; we can onely feare the Londoners, who would faine bring us to the fame poverty, where-in the Dutch found and relieved us; would take away the liberty of our confciences, and tongues, and our right of giving and felling our goods to whom we please. But Gentlemen by the Grace of God we will not fo tamely part with our King, and all thefe bleffings we enjoy under him; and if they oppofe us, do but follow me, I will either lead you to victory, or loofe a life which I cannot more gloriously facrifice then for my loyalty, and your feccurity.

Cler: Dom: Commons.

This fpeech being ended the pretended Act of Parliament was publicquely read in the Affembly where upon (at the motion of the Houfe of Commons to the Governour and Councell) this following vindication was unanimoſly agreed on.

We The Governour Councell and Burgeſſes of Virginea, have feene a printed paper bearing date at London the 3. of October. 1651. wherein (with other Plantations of America) we are prohibited trade and Commerce with all but ſuch as the preſent power ſhall allow of: We likewiſe ſee our ſelves branded in it with the ignominious names of Rebels and Traitors, which we ſo much abhor, that we would deteſt our ſelves if we thought they were deſervedly impoſed on us: And ſhall take leave to thinke we are unworthily flandered, till ſtronger proofes then we yet find, are brought againſt us to convince our judgments and Conſciences that we are guilty of thoſe Horrid Crimes. Therefore though we profeſſe that our judgments and induftry, have been long ſolely and neceſſarily employed in providing againſt the neceſſities of our poore families, and by Conſequence ſhould not preſume that any Act or Tranſaction of ours could be worthy the publique view: Yet ſince the plaineſt vindication of innocencie is accepted, we ſhall intimate the reaſons of ours, imploring charitable and abler judgments to perfect what we ſhall hint to them in our anſweares, to the Aſperſions we find Authoriſed againſt us.

And Fiſt whereas they ſay, That the Plantations in America were ſeated at the Coſt and eſtabliſhed by the Authority of ſome in England, and therefore ought to be governed by the Lawes of England.

We conceive we may ſafely confeſſe all this, and yet not run the Hazard of any miſpriſion of guilt, nay we thinke, this only testimony of theirs were ſufficient to cleere us from the Aſperſions of Rebels, and Traitors, if we had no other markes of innocency left us: For we ſay, we were ſome of us ſent, others permitted to come hither by the gracious favour of our Pious Kings, ſworne to governe, and be governed (as farr as poſſible the place was Capable of) by the Lawes of England; which lawes we have inviolably and ſacredly kept as farr as our abilityes to execute and our Capacities to judge would permit us, and with reaſon; for theſe lawes onely in ſuch times of tumults, ſtormes, and tempeſts, can humanely prevent our ruines: Theſe lawes often enjoyed us the

Oathes

Oathes of Allegiance and Supremacy, and they tell us, that no power on earth can absolve or manumit us from our obedience to our Prince, and his lawfull successors: These lawes tell us that when we have don all we can to avoyd it, we may resist violence with force, and in a lawfull defence of our selves, destroy any that shall endeavour to take away our lives or substance: These lawes we professe are our guides and do beleewe we deserve punishment and infamy if we willingly, or willfully deviate from them.

Secondly suppose we were such slaves by nature as to be awed with the iron rods held over us, in what hand soever found; would not then themselves thinke we deserved the worst usage could be inflicted on us. For what assurance could we give of our new Loyalty, after having so childishly, and impiously, relinquisht our old Allegance? Could we reasonably repine to pay with our owne sweat and blood, those Garrisons which must be kept among us, to fix such volatile obedience as ours would appear to be? For as the Question is stated to us, we ought to yield to whosoever possesse themselves of Westminster Hall: Where we experimentally have found, the heads of divers factions and pretensions, have presided and excluded one the other; and we have no Oraculous assurance, but it may be so againe; therefore in a Condition so dubious and uncertaine, as ours would be (wherein no lesse then our soules are concern'd) we desire them to permit us simple men to take leave to follow the perspicuous and plaine pathes of God and our lawes, & that they would be pleas'd to remember that good charitable Axiome in them, That none should be condemned till they were first Heard.

Thirdly we are told of Great summes of money laid out on this Country: For all we have receav'd we are most thankfull: But surely it will be no evidence of ingratitude to say to whom we owe most, & this must needs be acknowledg'd to our Kings, who gave liberally themselves and permitted Lotteries to be erected for us: We confesse private adventurers added much, and might have enjoyed the fruit of it, If the first blow to the Colony, had not taken from them all hopes or desires of prosecuting that, which they so earnestly begun; But certainly what ever their liberality was, we should have avoided it more then our Rattle snakes, if it had inevitably made slaves, our selves, our wives, children, and Posterity. Since the Massacre onely private Marchants have adventured hither for private gaines, and we confesse have supplied us with that, which we could not well have wanted, but this we suppose would be no convincing argument to France, Spaine, or the Low Countries, for their subjection to England because these severall places have been thus furnish't by her. If then we owe any thing, it is to our Kings liberality, care, and protection, and we beseech you give us leave to pay our acknowledgement to them.

Fourthly we are told of usurping a Government to our selves. We wish we could transmit our recordes to the view of our accusers; By them it would appear how little we deserve this imputation. For since the beginning of the Colony we have never innovated nor altered any thing in the maine of the Government: But in case we had done it, what more likely Patrons could we chuse, to protect us then those who accuse us? Grant we had banish'd, confin'd, imprison'd, condemn'd, and executed those that refuse to obey the lawes confirm'd by many consummated free Parliaments: would not those pardon and absolve us who have done the same to others that have refused to obey their edicts, whom they in their consciences beleewe they ought not to acknowledge to be a Parliament? Yet the truth is, we have done none of these things, no man here ever suffer'd in his person or estate: Concerning the differences in England, our lawes keepe them in better awe then to dare to speak against the Protector of them: 'Tis true indeed Two Factionous clergy men, chose rather to leave the Country then to take the Oathes of Allegance, and Supremacy, and we acknowledge that we gladly parted with them.

Having answered these accusations, we appeale even to their owne judgments that produced them whether we deserve those hatefull names of Rebels and Traitors: But we believe they will still use them to us and others because those Lucky Bugbeares of Rebels, and Malignants, have frighted divers to the desertion of honest causes: Yet being

being (as we suppose in their owne consciences) free from these imputed crimes, (though very short fought in such subtile matters) we thinke we can easely find out the cause of this excluding us the society of Nations, which bring us necessaries for what our Country produces: And that is the Avarice of a few interested persons, who endeavour to rob us of all we sweate and labour for: Therefore on the whole matter we Conclude: We are resolv'd to Continue our Allegiance to our most Gracious King, yet as long as his gracious favour permits us, we will peaceably (as formerly) trade with the Londoners, and all other Nations in amity with our Sovereigne: Protect all forraigne Merchants with our utmost force from injury in the rivers: Give letters of Reprifall to any injured within our Capes: Allwaies pray for the happy reftauration of our King, and repentance in them, who to the hazard of their foules have opposed him.

This is unammoufly consented to by the Governor, Councill and Burgeffes

[Some of the Proceedings of the Grand Affembly, April-May, 1652.]

The oath administred to the Burgeffes:

YOU and every of you shall swear vpon the holy Evangelist, and in the sight of God to deliver your opinions faithfully and honestly, according to your best vnderstanding and conscience, for the generall good and prosperitie of this country and every perticular member thereof, and to do your vtmost endeavor to profecute that without mingling with it any perticular interest of any person or persons whatsoever.

John Corker, Cl. Dom. Com.

James Citty, the 30th April, 1652.

AFTER long and serious debate and advice taken for the settling and governing of Virginia, It was vnanimously voted and concluded, by the commiffioners appointed here by authority of parliament and by all the Burgeffes of the severall countys and plantations respectively, vntill the further pleasures of the states be knowne: That M^r Richard Bennett, Esq. be Governour for this ensuinge yeare, or vntill the next meeting of the Affembly, with all the iust powers and authorities that may belong to that place lawfully: And likewise that Collo. William Claiborne be Secretarie of State, with all belonging to that office, and is to be next in place to the Governour, next that the Councill of State be as followeth, (vizt.) Capt. John West, Col. Sam. Mathewes, Coll. Nathaniel Littleton, Coll. Argoll Yearly, Coll. Tho. Pettus, Coll. Humph. Higgifon, Coll. George Ludlow; Coll. Wm. Barnett, Capt. Bridges ffreeman, Capt. Tho. Harwood, Major Wm. Taylor, Capt. ffrancis Epps, and Leiv'tt. Coll. John Cheesman, and they shall have power to execute and do right and equall justice to all the people and inhabitants of this collony according to such instructions as they have or shall receive from the Parliament of England and according to the knowne lawe of England; And the acts of Affembly here establihed; And the said Governour, Secretary and Council of State are to have such power and authorities and to act from time to time, as by the Grand Affembly shall be appointed and granted to their severall places respectively for the time abovesaid: of which all the people which inhabit or be in this country are hereby required to take notice and accordingly conforme themselves therevnto. God save the Common-Wealth of England and this cuntry of Virginia.

May 2d, 1652.

IT IS resolved That the commiffioners of the severall counties be chosen by the House with this proviso, That if any iust complaint be proved against any chosen they shall be suspended the next session of Affembly.

May 5th, 1652.

IT IS agreed and thought best for the government of this country by the Governor, Council and Burgeffes that the right of election of all officers of this colony be and appertain to the Burgeffes the representative of the people, and it is further agreed for the present by the Burgeffes in remonstrance of the confidence that they have in the said comm'rs. that the present election of all officers not already constituted be referred to the said Governor and commiffioners and that this their election be not precidental to any succeeding Affembly.

[Resolutions of the Grand Assembly beginning the 25th of November, 1652.]

THE voats of the whole Assembly in the business follow:

It is ordered by the authoritie aforesaid, That the fourth side of Ocquhanocke Creeke in the county of Northampton and so upwards be a peculiar parish and called by the name of Ocquhanocke Parish.

It is ordered that M^r George Fletcher shall have to himself, his heirs, ex'rs. and adm'rs. liberty to distill and brew in wooden vessels which none have experience in but himself for 14 years, and it is further ordered that no person or persons whatsoever shall make use thereof within this colony without agreeing with the said M^r Fletcher under the penalty of 100 pounds sterl.

Wee find M^r John Hammod returned a Burgesse for the lower parish of the Isle of Wight, to be notoriously knowne a scandalous person, and a frequent disturber of the peace of the country, by libell and other illegall practices, and conceive it fitt he be expelled the house, and that a warrant issue to the sherriffe of the said county, for the election of another Burgesse in his roome.

Wee conceive it fitt, that M^r James Pyland, returned Burgesse for the vpper parish of the Isle of Wight, be removed out of the house, And that he stand committed to answer such things as shall be objected against him, as an abettor of M^r Thomas Woodward in his mutinous and rebellious declaration, And concerning his the said M^r Pyland blasphemous catechisme.

It is ordered by the Grand Assembly, that the plantation of M^r Thomas Stagg scituate on the Old man's Creek shall be within the bounds of Westover parish and pay all duties there that are now due and de futuro.

Whereas Chr: Boyse by appeale from the Governour and Councill the last court impleaded Coll. Hugh Gwinne before this Grand Assembly about certain land in Pyan-catannk River, The Assembly vpon pervfall of their severall pattents and grants, doe finde prioritie of title for the said Gwinne, according to former orders in the government of S^r William Berkeley, Knt. and the last quarter court, And the plt. & defendant to beare their owne charges.

In the difference between M^r Peter Ranson, plt. and John Hewett and Wm. Holder, defend'ts. It is ordered by this Grand Assembly that M^r Peter Ranson's patent shall stand good for 1100 acres of land in Mock-Jack bay, And that Hewett and Holder be outed and decline the possession till it be made appeare void by some that shall make better right appeare, It now appearing that none pretending to it in the right of Dawber have power to question his title; 100 lb. of tob'o. being allowed him for costs from each of them (vizt.) 100 lb. of tobacco from Holder, and 100 lb. of tobacco from Hewett, alias execution.

It is ordered by the Grand Assembly, that M^r Peter Ranson shall have and enjoy 1100 acres of Land in Mock-Jacks bay of the North River of Mock-Jacks bay on the easterne side thereof, and the other 500 acres being granted to M^r Wm. Whitby being the first grantees by this Assembly.

It is ordered by the Assembly that all those that are in actual possession of the 2400 acres of the land claymed by Edmund Dawber shall not be dispossessed of the land they so hold by any, except by the said Dawber if he proove his title to bee justest the said 2400 acres being granted to M^r William Daymes, if M^r Dawber enjoy it not.

It is ordered by the Affembly, That the inhabitants of Appamattock River fhall have power to keep courts according to the fence of the Act of Affembly for courts in the like nature, to hear and determine all differences within the faid parifh, which faid court is to be kept by the commiffioners refideing in the faid parifh of Briftoll, and they to take place refpectively as by act of Affembly they are nominated; appeals lying from this court to either Henrico county or Charles Citty county court, as alfo to have power to treat with the Indians according to act.

It is ordered with the vnanimous opinion of this houfe, That the Governour and councill fhall appoint commiffioners in each county refpectively vpon the recommendation of the perfons from the commiffioners of the feverall county courts, as they fee caufe to allow fuch recommendations.

It is ordered by the Grand Affembly, That the comiffioners of the feverall counties refpectively have power to examine the lifts of the tythables of the faid countyes, and where they find them not to be fully taken, to lay a fine vpon the fheriff or them that took the lifts, as they fhall think fitt, and fuch further punifhment as by the Affembly is provided.

Whereas an act was made in the Affembly, 1642, ffor Encouragement of difcoveries to the weftward and fouthward of this country, granting them all profitts arifing thereby for 14 years, which act is fince difcontinued and made void; It is by this Affembly ordered, That Coll. Wm. Clayborne, Efq. & Capt. Henry Fleet, they and their affociats with them either joyntly or feverally, May difcover and fhall enjoy fuch benefitts, profitts, and trades, for 14 years as they fhall find out in places where no English ever have bin and difcovered, nor have had perticular trade, and to take vp fuch lands by pattents proveing their rights as they fhall think good: Neverthelefs not excluding others after their choice from takeing vp lands, and planting in thefe new difcovered places, as in Virginia is now vfed.

The like order is granted to Major Abra. Wood and his affociates.

[Some of the Proceedings of the 1653 session.]

Gentlemen,

NOT to intrench vpon the right of Affsemblies in the free choice of a fpeaker, nor to vndervalue Left. Coll. Chiles, but onely by way of advice, It is my opinion, the Council likewise concerning [concurring] therein, That it is not fo proper nor fo convenient att this time to make choice of him for that there is something to be agitated in this Affsembly concerning a fhipp lately arrived, in which Left. Coll. Chiles hath fome intereft, for which and fome other reafons we conceive it better at prefent to make choice of fome other perfon amongst you whom you fhall agree vpon.

Your reall fervant

Rich. Bennett.

July the 5th, 1653.

Vera copia,

John Corker, Cl. to the Burgefles.

The oath adminiftred to the Burgefles for this prefent Affsembly.

You fhall fwear to aēt as a Burgefle for the place you ferve for in this Affsembly, with the beft of your judgment and advice, for the generall good, not mingling with it any perticular or private intereft.

This oath was taken by the Burgefles in the prefence of Coll. Thomas Pettus and Coll. Humphrey Higgifon, this 5th July, 1653.

Teftē

Robert Huberd, Cl. Confilii.

It is ordered, that Lev'tt. Coll. Edward Major, Lev't. Coll. Geo. ffletcher, M^r William Hockaday and M^r William Whittby, attend the Governor and Councill, to requelt of them their reafons, wherefore they cannot joyne with vs the Burgefles in the bufines of this Affsembly, about the election of Lev't. Coll. Walter Chiles for Speaker of this Affsembly.

Lev't. Coll. Walter Chiles haveing by plurality of votes been chofen Speaker of this Affsembly: And this day representing to the houfe his extraordinarie occafions in regard of the difpatch of fome fhipping now in the country in which he is much interefted and concerned, The houfe vpon his defire have given him leave to follow his private affairs notwithstanding the election aforefaid.

It is ordered by this prefent Grand Affsembly, That M^r Robert Bracewell, Clarke, be fufpended, and is not in a capacitie of ferving as a Burgefle, fince it is vnpreſidentiall, and may produce bad confequence.

[From the Virginia Magazine of Hiftory and Biograpy, XVII, 121-127.]

ACHARGE * * * againſt Captain Abraham Read [words illegible]. Since his laſt Arrival in Virginia hath behaved himſelf Contemptuouſly to the diſturbance of the peace of the Governor and Government of this Colony fettled by Authority of Parliament.

That the ſaid Read ſaid that he could and would by his own Commiſſion command Lieut. Coll. Cornelius Loyd and not only him but his General meaning the Governor who is ſtiled Captain General of Virginia.

That

That the said Abraham Read taxed the Governor that he had done so much [words illegible] the Spanish Flemmings meaning the two Ships lately arrived from Dunkirk Ostend and that he would be called home into England and there they would deal well enough with him.

That the said Abraham Read contemptuously vaunted that if he had been below he would have shot too against the Ship wherein the Governor was as the other three Ships did and would have sunk her for wearing the Spanish Colours in the main top notwithstanding the Governor's being there or else she should have sunk him.

That the said Read falsely and injuriously taxed the Government with supplying the Utter Enemies of the Commonwealth of England and that he could make it appear with many other Agitations to that purpose.

That the said Read said that if he had been below he would have disobeyed the Governor's Warrant as he heard Captain Pott had done.

That the said Read hath injuriously uttered in Discourse that no foreigners ought to have trade in Virginia Which [illegible] is Contrary to Act of Parliament for the Increase of Navigation and the Articles granted upon the Surrender of this Colony to the Obedience of the Parliament.

That the said Read being told that the Captain & Merchant of the Dunkirk Ship had carried their Commissions and Coquets to the Governor Said what have they to do to carry them to the Governor they should have brought them unto us Captain Gunnell being then in Company and saying the Same.

That Charge and everything therein contained according to the several Articles is acknowledged by me Abraham Read to be true and Just. I confessing myself guilty of them Do humbly refer myself to the merciful censure of this Assembly.

Abraham Read.

This Acknowledgment made in Open Assembly this 7th July, 1653.

Whereas Captain Abraham Read has since his last arrival in this Colony behaved himself very Contemptuously to the Disturbance of the peace of the Government and Governor of this Colony Settled by Authority of Parliament and being brought to answer his Charge read unto him having Confessed himself Guilty in every particular and acknowledged under his hand. It is therefore Ordered that the said Captain Abraham Read Do forthwith pay as a fine for his Contempt and misdemeanor ten thousand pounds of Tobacco and cask and put in good Security for his good Behaviour in this Colony and untill the performance of this Order to stand Committed to the Sheriff of James City County.

To the Honourable Governor, Council and Burgeffes Asssembled, &c. Abraham Read humbly presenteth.

That Whereas the petitioner was imprisoned and fined for some Offences, by your Honour and Worships which he hath Already Ingenuously acknowledged before you & to the perpetrating whereof he was only moved with the Languages of others and not with the least thoughts of Malignity intents in himself.

Wherefore having heretofore humbly acknowledged Submitted and desired Your Honour and Worships free. He Yet humbly reimplores your Clear Considerations of the great Meekness of Humanity how that Passion is or Man be Stirred up which your petitioner is now sorry for and that your honours and Worships would also be pleased to look upon more Clemency the Rigour in regard to the Petitioner and his Wife and Children are now fitter Objects of Pity than Punishment and be pleased to remit the fine imposed on the Petitioner.

And he shall pray &c.

To the Right Honourable Richard Bennett Esq'r Governor and Captain General with the Honourable Council of State.

The Humble petition of Edward Gunnell Presenteth—

That Whereas your Honours have been informed that Something hath been said and Acted by your humble Petitioner that hath been taken as high Disobedience to the just

just power of this Government and whereas your Honours have been graciously pleased to afford your petitioner both Means and time to answer the said Delinquents he now presenteth his humble Adresses to your Honor's feet, publicly declaring that whatsoever hath been said or Done in Offence to your Honours of the Government here Established your Petitioner confesseth himself to be heartily and penitently Sorry for and doth in all humility crave your Honour's Pardon Your Petitioner faithfully promising and obliging himself never hereafter to Abuse nor Offend any person from the highest to the lowest within this Government.

He therefore craveth in your Christian and Gracious Mercies that he may be released from the aforesaid Charge and he shall ever pray &c.

Edw'd Gunnell.

The Deposition of Samuel Taylor, aged 38 Years or thereabouts Examined and Sworn. Saith—

That this Deponent by Warrant Arresting Captain Thomas Wilson Captain Hugh Wilson and Captain John Pegro to answer to such Objections as should be asked against them before the Governor and Council which power they rejected deriding it with Laughter and Scorn Saying who could fetch them out of their Ships Whereupon this Deponent demanded of the said Parties being Masters of Ships the Cattle duties they answered they would not pay any for they knew not any that had Power to demand it for they had orders from their owners to the Contrary.

[From Hening's Statutes at Large, I, 380-385.]

WHEREAS the paper subscribed by name of the inhabitants of Northampton countie is scandalous and feditious and hath caused much disturbance in the peace and government of that county, It is therefore ordered by this present Grand Asssembly, That all the subscribers of the said paper bee disabled from bearing any office in this countrey, and that Leift. Edmund Scarbrough who hath been an assistant and instrument concerning the subscribing of the same bee also disabled from bearing any office vntill he hath answered therevnto, and the honourable Governour & Secretarie be intreated to go over to Accomack with such assistants as the house shall think fitt, for the settlement of the peace of that countie, and punishinge delinquents. [This order reverfed by an order of Asssembly, 26th March, 1658.]

The order of the last Asssembly in the busines relateing to land in York River desired by Tottopotomoy, as information by some perticular members of this Asssembly is now represented, is ordered to be and remaine in force as formerly, Provided he lives on the same; but if he leaves it then to devolve to Coll. William Clayborne, according to former orders which gave him libertie to make his choice, whether he would have Ramomak, or the land where now he is seated, and that he appear in person before the Governor and Council to make his choice the next quarter courte which of the two seates he will hold, and Capt. John West, and M^r William Hockaday are enabled to give a safe conduct to the said Tottopotomoy and his Indians for their coming to towne and his returne home, And the commiffioners of York are required that such persons as are seated vpon the land of Pamunkey or Chickahominy Indians be removed according to a late act of Asssembly made to that purpose, And Coll. John Fludd to go to Tottopotomoy to examine the proceedings of busines and to deliver it vpon his oath.

Vpon the petition of Roger Green, clarke, on the behalfe of himselfe, and inhabitants of Nansemund river, It is ordered by this present Grand Asssembly that tenn thousand acres of land be granted vnto one hundred such persons who shall first seate on Moratuck or Roanoake river and the land lying vpon the south side of Choan river and the branches thereof, Provided that such seaters settle advantageously for security, and be sufficiently furnished with amunition and strength, And it is further ordered by the authority aforesaid, That there be granted to the said Roger Green, the rights of one thousand acres of land, and choice to take the same where it shall seem most convenient to him, next to those persons who have had a former grant in reward of his charge, hazard and trouble of first discovery, and encouragement of others for seating those southern parts of Virginia.

Whereas diverse gentlemen have a voluntarie desire to discover the Mountains and supplicated for lycence to this Asssembly, It is ordered by this Asssembly, That order be granted vnto any for soe doing, Provided they go with a considerable partie and strength both of men and amunition.

It is ordered by this present Grand Asssembly that the bounds of the county of Westmorland be as followeth (vizt.) from Machoa cloke river where M^r Cole lives: And so upwards to the falls of the great river of Pawtomake above the Necoftins towne.

Vpon the humble petition of John Claxfonn an old Virginian, and the testimony of the commiffioners of the countie of Yorke where hee lived of the great los he sustained by fire to his vtter vndoeing, not able to maintain himselfe and five children, The Grand Asssembly duely weighing his distressed estate hath granted him the said Claxfonn, an order as a brieve to gather the charitable benevolence of well disposed persons. The like also is granted vnto Thomas Bagwell of the Isle of Wight county and to Richard New of James Cittie county.

It is ordered by this Grand Asssembly that the comiffioners of Gloster and Lancaster countys are strictly required forthwith to proportion the Indians inhabiting in the said counties their severall tracts of land according to an act of the last Asssembly in that case made, and to sett and assigne them such places and bounds to hunt in as may be convenient, both for the inhabitants and the Indians, whereby the severall stocks of the Englilh may be preserved.

An act of indemnity is granted for all such as have lent gunns to the Indians, and if any person shall hereafter offend and justly proved against him, he or they so offending shall suffer severly according to act in that case provided, other counties to have the same priviledge.

It is ordered by this present Grand Assembly that the castle duties shall be recovered by any refractory person's denying the payment thereof as hath formerly bin accustomed by way of action in any court or attachment of their goods and estates to that value.

It is ordered by this present Grand Assembly upon the petition of Paulus Maeshouck, fervant to Abraham Van Susteren, merchant of Dunkirk, that part of the goods forfeited belonging to his said master is remitted.

Upon the petition of Leuit. Coll. Walter Chiles, It is ordered by this present Grand Assembly that the ship Leopaldus now adjudged forfeited and consigned unto him that he the said Chiles should have the said ship according as she hath been appraised being £400 sterling.

Upon petition of the comm'rs. of the Isle of Wight county concerning the recovery of diverse arrears of country and county levies yet unsatisfied since 1644 and the lists not recorded through the delinquency of the Clk. of that county, It is ordered by this present Grand Assembly that such persons as have been sheriffs or collectors of the said levies since 1644 and are now living forthwith bring in their sev'ill. lists and accounts respectively unto the said county court, and that such persons as have been delinquent in paying the said arrears or detaining of them in their hands be responsible for the same and upon default or denial to be recovered by distress and the parties that have paid the same be discharged from further molestation. And as for those sheriffs or collectors that are dead their estates are to be responsible for what shall appear due from them under their hands.

It is ordered that Nath. Battson stand committed into the custody of the sheriff of James City until he hath satisfied Dep: Webster eight beaver skins and an otter skin for a gun which he bought a board the ship Duke Byren.

According to an order of this Assembly, upon the petition of Coll. Nathaniel Littleton, Coll. Argoll Yarley, Major William Andrews, and some other commissioners of Northampton county, Master Speaker, Left. Coll. Edward Major, Left. Coll. Geo. Fletcher, Coll. Thomas Dew and Left. Coll. Rob't Pitt are nominated as assistants to attend the Governour and Secretarie for the settlement of the peace of that county, and the punishment of delinquents there according to their demerits, the appointment of all officers both for peace and warr, the division of that county, and the hearing and determining of the business of damages between Capt. Daniel How and Left. Coll. Edm'd. Scarbrough, As also between Capt. John Jacob and the said Edmund Scarbrough, with all other matters and things necessary and incident for the preservation of the peace of that place, for which this shall be their commission, The charges which the said commissioners shall be at, both in going staying there & returneing, to be levied upon those persons that occasioned their repair thither.

Whereas Sr William Berkeley, Kn't. upon the deliverie vp of the countrey to the government of the Comon-Wealth of England, had granted unto him by articles, that he should have a shipp to transport him to England or Holland, and whereas the present warr with the United Provinces hath hindred the confirmation of the said articles in England, or the coming of a shipp out of Holland: And the said Sr William Berkeley desiring longer time (vizt.) eight monthes from the date hereof to procure the said shipp out of fflanders in respect of the warrs with Holland, and that she may be custom free for such tobacco as he shall lade in her; After debate thereof in the Assembly, It is condescended that his said request shall be granted, and he may accordingly within eight months procure a shipp out of fflanders for the purpose in his said articles expressed.

Whereas the ship Leopoldus of Dunkirk, for the importation of prohibited goods contrary to the act of Parliament, for the encrease of navigation, has been adjudged

fforfeited, with her tackle, apparel, and ffurniture to this country, ffor the ufe of the Comon-Wealth of England, and appraifed at four hundred pounds fterling, This Affembly upon confideration thereof had her difpofed of the fame as ffolloweth, (vizt.) two hundred and ffifty pounds to our agent Coll. Sam. Mathews and one hundred pounds to Coll. William Clayborne, fec. thirty pounds to the fpeaker, ten pounds to Coll. Cornelius Loyd, and ten pounds to Major Billingsley for their feverall fervices done to the country in the faid bufinefs.

It is ordered by this prefent Grand Affembly that Nathaniel Battfon for many mifdemeanors & a common defame apparantly true fhall receive forthwith fifteen ftripes on the bear back and for ever hereafter not to go or trade amongft the Indians and in cafe of default to receive further punifhment by whipping and perpetuall banifhment.

[Some of the Proceedings of the 1654 Session.]

WHEREAS Coll. Edward Hill vnanimouſly choſen ſpeaker of this houſe was afterwards maliciously reported by William Hatcher to be an atheiſt and blaſphemer according to an information exhibitted againſt him the laſt quarter court, from which the honourable Governour and Council then cleered the ſaid Coll. Edward Hill and now certified the ſame vnto the houſe: And for aſmuch as the ſaid Wm. Hatcher, notwithstanding he had notice given him of the Governour and Councils pleaſure therein and of the ſaid Coll. Hill's being cleered as aforeſaid, hath alſo reported, That the mouth of this houſe was a Devil, nominateing and meaning thereby the ſaid Right Worp'll. Coll. Edward Hill, It is therefore ordered by this houſe, that the ſaid William Hatcher, vpon his knees, make an humble acknowledgement of his offence vnto the ſaid Coll. Edward Hill and Burgeſſes of this Aſſembly; which accordingly was performed and then he the ſaid Hatcher diſmiſt paying his fees.

It is ordered by the Aſſembly that the comiſſioners of the militia and the comiſſioners of the reſpective counties ſhall at the next ſeſſions of this Aſſembly in March give in an account of the 6 lb. of tobacco per pole lately levied for powder and ſhott for the uſe of each county, and what other powder and ſhott ſhall be in their cuſtody belonging to the county.

It is ordered that the vpper part of Yorke county ſhall be a diſtinct county called New Kent, from the weſt ſide of Scimino creek to the heads of Pomunkey and Mattaponie river, and downe to the head of the weſt ſide of Poropotanke Creeke.

From the head of the north ſide of Queen's creeke as high as to the head of Scimino creeke is made a diſtinct pariſh named Marſton ordered by this Grand Aſſembly.

Whereas certaine arrears by overchargeing of tithable perſons in ſome counties are now in queſtion, It is ordered that ſuch errors as are alledged to be comitted ſhall be certified vnder the com'rs. hands att the Aſſembly in March next, and for the future that all liſts ſhall be taken and certified vnder the hands of the com'rs. and not otherwiſe, and ſo preſented to the Aſſembly.

It is ordered by this Grand Aſſembly in the difference between Ma^r George Fawden & Capt. George Hardy that the 3 grants of Ma^r Fawdens (the firſt Cont^a 2400 acres upon the Mayne River, the 2nd Cont. 1050 acres dat: Sept. 15, A^o 1636; the third Cont. 850 acres dat: Oct. 4, 1639) ſhall have (as of right formerly they had) priority of Capt. Hardyes pattent & that it be referred to an able jury to be impannelled upon oath by the ſheriff of the Iſle of Wight County, with a ſurveyor to lay out the ſaid pattents according to theſe bounds upon the place & the ſheriff to give poſſeſſion according to their Verdict, and Convenient Time to be appointed by the Sheriffe.

It is ordered that Ma^r Thomas Cely ſhall continue his poſſeſſion in the land in difference between him & John Slater, who claymeth by a pattent dated Anno. 1653, which was obtained contrary to an act made in A^o 1652, & y^t 800 lbs. of tobacco Coſts be allowed the ſaid Cely.

It is ordered that the Salarye appointed for agency, is by ye ſeverall Sheriffs & Collectors reſpectively to be paid to Leu^t Coll^o Samuell Mathewes or his aſſignes.

The names of the Committee for the above written private Cauſes are as followeth:

Coll. Tho. Dew, Lef^t Coll. Robert Pitt, M^r Wm. Whitbye, Ma^r Peter Walker, M^r Samuel Stoughton, M^r William Whitaker, M^r Henry Soane, Ma^r Abra. Wood, Ma^r Worliech.—November 29, 1654.

Coll.

Coll. William Clayborne, Coll. William Taylor, Edward Diggs, Esq^r, were added to the Committee.

The Governour and Council have thought good to call M^r Edward Diggs, Esq. to be one of the Councill, if the Affembly shall like thereof, and signifie their approbation and concurrence therein, Novem. 22, 1654.

Orders of Affembly

Concerning the March against the Rappa'. Indians.

Whereas divers complaints have bin made by the inhabitants of the counties of Lancafter, Northumberland and Westmoreland concerning divers injuries and infolencyes offered and done by the Rappahannock Indians, vnto them the said inhabitants, and have refused to give satisfation though often demanded by the comissioners of the said countyes, which gives iust occasions of jealousies and fears of an intended warr: It is therefore ordered by this present Grand Affembly, that the said counties bee associated and joyned together in and concerning the affaires of their neighbouring Indians, and that for this present expedition there be raised in the county of Lancafter one hundred men sufficiently furnished with armes, amunition and provisions, with boates and other necessaries for their voyage to the said Rappahannock townes, likewise the county of Northumberland 40 men qualified as afore said, Also in the county of Westmerland thirty men qualified as afore said, and that the said men be raised and pressed in such manner as the first man in commission in each county with the assistance of the comissioners of the respective countyes direct and think fitt for the most easie accomplishment of this employment, and that the nomination of the leaders of the said men in the counties of Northumberland and Westmerland be att the appointment of their severall courts respectively, all which said men so raised and pressed in the said three counties are hereby required to repaire on the first Wednesday in February next to the house of Thoms Meades in Rappahannock river which is thought the most convenient place of generall rendezvouz, and from thence Ma'r. John Carter who is hereby appointed commander in cheife is hereby required and authorized to march with all the afore said men to the afore said Indian towne and demand and receive such satisfation as he shall thinke fitt for the severall injuries done vnto the said inhabitants not vsing any acts of hostility but defensive in case of assault, And it is further ordered that the said Major John Carter give account of his proceedings vnto the hono'ble the Governour who is hereby authorized with the advice of his council to determine of peace or warr in this and all other emergent occasions concerning the said Indians. And it is further ordered, That Capt. Henry Fleet and David Wheatliff attend the said service as interpreters, the charge of the service afore said to [be] born by the three countyes above specified.

[From Hening's Statutes at Large, I, 392, 393.]

THIS Affembly is adjourned till the twentieth day of March at James Cittie, the quarter court is also adjourned till the twentieth of March.

² This paragraph appears neither in the Statutes at Large nor in the Virginia Magazine of History & Biography.

Vpon the petition of the Ifle of Wight Burgeffes in behalfe of the inhabitants of that county, it is ordered, That 3 of the comifs'rs. of each county, (that is to fay) of Nanzemund and the Ifle of Wight county fhall meet att a fett time before the next Affembly to lay out the bounds of each county, and in cafe of difference to render account thereof to the next Affembly that it might be determined.

Ordered that Collo. Francis Morrifon take affurance of Sr Wm. Berkeley, Knt., of the middle brick houfe in James Citty bought of him the faid Sr Will^m Berkeley, as alfo that he give M^r Tho. Woodhoufe Livery & Seizen of the late State houfe.

In the cafe of John Bromfeild, plt. and widdow Crumpe defendant, It being found that the will of Richard Buck, from whence the land defcends to the orphant, there does not appeare any eftate paff to Bridget Bromfeild, late wife of John Burrowes otherwife then for terme of life onely: there being not mention in the faid will of heires, affignes for ever, nor in fee fimple, &c. Likewise it being found, that this very cafe in November 29, 1642, was adjudged by the Governour and Council to be but an eftate for tearme of life and foe thrice voted in this Grand Affembly: Likewise it being further found that there were 5 other guardians of the faid Buck's children by the faid will and that they never claimed an eftate in fee fimple but onely for tearme of life: It is therefore ordered that the faid Elizabeth Crumpe continue her poffeffion without any further moleftation in the premisses, it being voted and concluded as aforefaid.

In the difference between Capt. Streeter, who married Mrs. Burbage, the reliēt of Capt. Thomas Burbage, It is ordered, That the plantation of the faid Burbage att Nanfemund be equally devided in quantity and quality both land and houfeing, and all other lands of the faid Burbage be divided according to quantity and quality as aforefaid into thirds by a jury vpon the place: of both which being foe devided the faid Streeter's wife is to chufe which halfe of the plantation att Nanfemund and which thirds of the other land ſhe pleafeth to enjoy; the fame only for her life: And Wm. Burbage to take the remainder as heire att lawe, the charges of thofe divifions to be bearen according to each others proportions.

In the difference between Carbery Kyggan and Wm. Norwood, It is ordered, That Kyggan pay the charge of the jury and what was incident therevnto: but that Norwood fatisfie the faid Kyggan 700 lb. of tobacco for damages the faid Kyggan fuftained in the houfe, orchard and the ffence belonging to the corne ffieild, and that each partye ſince the faid jury bear their own charges, And that Norwood deliver vp Kyggan's bill, it appearing alreadye fatisfied, and make a firme conveyance of the land bought of him by Kyggan to his heires and affigns for ever.

Ordered that M^r Henry Hendrick be acquitted from ye payment of 900 lbs. of tobo. demanded by M^r Thomas Ballard the Collector for the County of Yorke.¹

Whereas Leift. Coll. Tho. Swann at a feffions holden by commiffion from the Governour the fecond day of July laft, in Surry County, accused & impeached for the death of his fervant one Elizabeth Buck, The fact found by the jury homicide per misadventure whereby he is by law of England to fue out his pardon of courfe vnder the broad feale from the chancellor, ffor obteyning of which he hath now humbly addreffed himfelfe to the Governour and Council—Vpon confideration thereof had

Whereas this collony is not as yet fettled with fuch officers as belong to paffing fuch pardons and noe publick feale being in the countrey, The Governour, Council and Burgeffes of this prefent Grand Affembly conceive it fufficient to declare, That the faid Thomas Swan be difcharged from further trouble, and be reftored to the like condition he was in before the faid homicide per misadventure comitted by him, and that he may fafely acquieffe herein as if his pardon had bin fued out formally. And as concerning his goods and chattles to be forfeited thereby, they likewise conceive and declare that the rigor and forfeiture hereof fhall not be taken, and that he fhall be acquitted for the fame.

Whereas by a former act of Affembly priviledge was granted to any parish to send one or two Burgeffes, and severall disputations ariseing therevpon, how the charges of the said parochiall Burgeffes should be defrayed, It is ordered that everie county shall pay the Burgeffes usually sent from the respective counties as formerly, and if any parish shall return a Burgeffe for their perticular occasion, then the charge of the said Burgeffe to be levied in and by the parish that elected him.

Committee appointed for Review of the Acts.

Capt. Francis Willis, Chairman.

Leift. Coll. Abraham Wood,

Coll: Geo: Reade,

M^r John Wilcox,

For private Causes.

Major Holt, Chairman.

M^r Peter Afhton,

Capt. Ro: Ellifon,

Capt. Ralph Langley,

M^r Anth Wyatt,

Capt. Moore ffantleroy,

Capt. Wm. Harris,

Capt. Wm. Whittaker.

Whereas the Governour and Councill in respect of some emergent necessitie had made choice of Leift. Coll. Walker and M^r Nathaniel Bacon to be added to the Councill during the intervall of the Affembly, this Affembly takeing the reasons into consideration confirme their election and accordingly have consented.

Vpon the petition of Coll. Thomas Dew to be impowered to make a discoverie of the navigable rivers to the southward between Cape Hatterras and Cape Feare with such gentlemen and planters as would voluntarily and att their owne charge accompanie him, It is ordered that the said Coll. Thomas Dew be hereby authorized and impowered to make the said discoverie. Provided it be done at the proper charge of the vndertakers, and not at the cost of the publique, and in the absence or in case of the mortality of Coll. Thomas Dew, Capt. Thomas Francis is hereby invested with the like power.

Debate and consideration of the charge and defence of Coll. Edward Hill by the general and unanimous assent and vote of both houses without any contradiction hath been found guilty of those crimes and weakneses there alleaged against him and for the the vindicating themselves from any imputation of his crimes and deficiencies have ordered that his present suspension from all offices military and civil that he hath had or may have continue & be made incapable of restitution but by an Assembly, and that he be at the charge of what's already expended in procuring a peace with the Richarians and if the Governour or Council shall find any nearer way to effecting thereof that it shall be acted at the said Coll. Hills proper cost and charge.

Whereas a petition was presented to the hon'ble Assembly by the Burgeses of the Isle of Wight countie in behalfe of the inhabitants of Terrafcoe neck and the Ragged Islands subscribed by divers of the said inhabitants expressing their desires to be taken out of the county of Vpper Norfolke and adjoynd to the countie of the Isle of Wight for their greater conveniency, It is ordered that the Governour be desired to nominate a councellor who is to appoint a precise time and place for the com'rs. of each countie to meet him, and in case the said com'rs. cannot agree about fixing the bounds of each county, Then the said councellor as an umpire to putt a period to their differences and the bounds by him or them then sett for the severall counties to remaine for the future unalterable, It being the opinion of the house that naturall bounds will be fittest for that purpose.

It is ordered by this Grand Assembly that there be levied by the pub: annually the sume of twenty thousand pounds of tobacco, which is to be allowed for the accomodation of the Governour and Councill att James Cittie during quarter courts and Assemblies.

It is ordered by the Assembly that twenty-five thousand pounds of tobacco per annum be conferred on the Governour which from time to time shall succeed in the government of this countrey towards his maintenance in the said place, which is to be yearly levied out of the publique, And also that the dutys which shippes were formerly vsed to pay to the Capt. of the Castell be from henceforth paid to the Governour of this country, to be by them converted to their maintenance in the government as afore-said, And that lycenses for marriages and all other priviledges and comodities enjoyed by the precedent Governours, be confirmed to the present Governour with reservation of the castle duties to Coll. Clayborne of what shippes are already entered or shall enter before the expiration of this present thirteenth day of December.

for encouragement of the ministers in this countrey and that they may be the better enabled to attend both publick commands and their private cures, It is ordered, That from henceforth each minister, in his owne person with six other servants of his family shall be free from publique levies, Allwaies provided they be examined by M^r Phillip Mallory and M^r John Green, and they to certifye their abilities to the Governour and Councill, who are to proceed according to their judgement.

It is ordered that the parish of Bristoll have power to keep courts within their said parish and to heare and determine all differences herein as at county courts which courts are to be kept by the commissioners dwelling in the said parish, but either plt. or defendant if they crave it shall have licence to appeale to Charles Cittie or Henrico county courts.

It is ordered that six thousand pounds of tobacco be allowed to Coll. Francis Morrison, speaker of this house, for his loss of time and great care and pains taken about the publick busines.

It is ordered that Major Charles Norwood, heretofore clerk to the Assembly, be allowed two thousand pounds of tobacco in full of all his arrears of salary; and the clk. place of the Assembly henceforth to be conferred on M^r Henry Randolph to officiate therein as Major Norwood hath done and to have the same salary.

It is ordered that for this present year the com'rs. of the militia in every county endeavour to provide four barrels of powder with shot proportionable for each regiment which shall be allowed the next year out of the severall county levies; that Rob't. Hubbard for the care in attendance on the committee for review of the acts have two thousand five hundred pounds of tobacco out of the levies of James City or York county, Provided he write out the acts and orders at large and compleat them according to the direction of the committee and get them ready by the first of March next.

That

That Thomas Woodhouse for the quarter courts setting at his house two courts and for the committee's accommodation have two thousand five hundred pounds of tobacco granted him by the publick.

That letters be sent unto Coll. Sam'l. Mathews and M^r Bennet that in respect the difference between us and the Lord Baltimore concerning our bounds is as far from determination as at first, they desist in that particular until further order from this country.

That George the Armenian for his encouragement in the trade of silk and to stay in the country to follow the same have four thousand pounds of tobacco allowed him by the Assembly.

Whereas a petition was presented to the honourable Grand Assembly by Capt. Thomas Pritchard in behalfe of the inhabitants of Nuttmege Quarters intimating their desire by reason of their small number not longer to continue a parish of themselves, but to be united to the parish of Denbigh, It is ordered that the commissioners the next county court make enquire of the desires of the inhabitants, and if the major part agree vnto it, then they to be accepted and be members of the parish of Denbigh aforesaid otherwise to remaine a parish of themselves as at present.

This day Coll. Francis Morrison was desired by the house to write two letters, one to his highness, the other to the Secretary of State, and Capt. Willis to draw up a testimonial for the Gov^r.

It is ordered, that Coll. Abraham Wood be appointed and made Coll. over the regiment of Charles City and Henrico countys in the room of Coll. Hill by this present Assembly suspended, and Capt. William Harris made Major of the said regiment being his due as the first Capt. according to the desire of the said Coll. Abraham Wood.

Ordered that Edward Digges, Esquire, being at present Governour, be requested to continue his office, and retaine the reins of government in his hands during his abode in the country, and in the interim Coll. Samuel Mathews, Governour elect to take place next him in the councill.

Ordered that Edward Diggs, Esq. Gov^r. after the expiration of his government do in the Council take place next unto Coll. John West, Esq.

Vpon the petition of Coll. Abraham Wood and M^r Anthony Wyatt in behalfe of the inhabitants on the south side of Charles Cittie county, shewing the greates inconveniencies accruing to them by reason of the courts being kept on the north side of the river, It is ordered that the place of keeping courts for the said county shall be on the south side of the river, at such place as the commissioners or the major part of them shall find most convenient for the ease and benefit of the inhabitants.

Whereas a review of the lawes hath been made by this Grand Assembly, it is ordered therevpon that they be all digested into one volume, and that the same be presented to Lieft. Coll. Walker, Coll. Abra: Wood, and Capt. Francis Willis, who are desired as a committee to compare the same with the originall by March court next, and vpon their signing it publication to follow, And it is further ordered that M^r Robert Hubert may have license to carry the originall booke of records home to his owne house to copie them out by.

Whereas by petition of the inhabitants of the lower part of Lancaster county shewing their vast distance from the countie courts was presented to the honourable Assembly by Capt. Moore ffanteroy and their desire of having the county divided, It is ordered that according to an order of court deviding the said countie at present into parishes, be for the future the bounds of the two counties, vizt. The vpper part of M^r Bennetts land knowne by the name of Naemhock on the south side of the eastermost branch of Moratticock Creeke on the north side the river be the lower most bounds of the vpper county; The lower county to retaine the name of Lancaster, and the vpper county to be named Rappahannock county and notwithstanding this division both counties to be liable to the Burgeses charge of this present assembly.

[From

[From the Virginia Magazine of History and Biography, XVII, 128-132.]

WHEREAS John Fipps by his petition shewed that there was due to him from the Country by former Order One Thousand one hundred pounds of Tobacco but Ommitted in Casting up the laft levy, It is therefore Ordered that payment be made him of the said sum the next Asssembly.

Whereas Thomas Loving High Sheriff of James City County by petition requested the Opinion of the house whether Coll. Higginson having been so long absent out of the Country should enjoy the Privilege of Councillor by exempting certain persons out of the Levies, It is resolved that in Respect of his long Absence he being in no Publick Employment shall not have any Persons belonging to him Exempted.

Whereas there was an order 1650 Granted for three thousand six hundred and Ninety Pounds of Tobacco to be paid out of the Levy of the County of Lancaster to be paid unto Coll. Samuel Mathews which yet remains unsatisfied, It is ordered that the Collectors of the said County make present thereof and in case of their failing their Security to pay it.

Upon the petitions and Articles of Mr James Crewes Exhibited against Capt. Philip We having heard and seen all the proofs and Arguments that the said Crewes could produce for the Confirmation of them as also the defence and Reply of Capt. Peibles to the same Do unanimously Conceive that the said petition and charge of Crewes is malicious and Scandalous for neither the taking away of the Neat nor tearing the Book mentioned in the first Article was anyways prejudicious to the said Crewes nor more than Peibles might lawfully do and for the Stuff mentioned in the second Article it was no cheat (as Charged) but might be disposed of by Capt. Peibles as he pleased and that Capt. Crewes had received Satisfaction for the same by account and for the Stabs and Blows mentioned in the third and fourth Articles they were occasioned by Crewes unworthy and uncivil provocation for which Notwithstanding Peibles hath Given Satisfaction according to the order of the County Court. And to the fifth Article no just proof appears on Crewes's part whereas we humbly conceive that the said Crewes ought to be made Example for such foul Base and unworthy Defamations against Capt. Peibles—by paying Cofts of Suit and a fine to Capt. Peibles for two Thousand Pounds of Tobacco and that this be a final Determination of the Differences between them this Report being by the Unanimous Vote of both Houses. Ordered to be confirmed.

Upon a full hearing a Serious and mature consideration of Mr Harlowe's Petition having weighed his Objections to the bond which by several proofs appears to us to be Authentick, We conceive that Mrs. Whitby's Quietus est hath been Legally and Justly obtained and that there are no Affets discovered by Us in her Hands to give any other Satisfaction to the said Harlow than what are mentioned in an Order of the Governor and Council of the Ninth of October, 1655, which according to the proviso therein Expressed (viz) (not infringing the Right and precedency of any former Judgment) we Conceive may be performed towards Satisfactions of the said Harlow it appearing to us that the Order was grounded upon and according to Mr Harlow's own proposition which said Order Mrs. Whitbey never refusing to perform we conceive Mr Harlow had no Cause to put her to this great Charge and Molestation and therefore have Ordered that the said Mr Harlow pay three thousand pounds of Tobacco for cofts and damages upon thrice Voting of which Report in the House on Saturday and Confirming it by another upon Monday at the petition of Mr Harlow for taking off his damages It is ordered by this Grand Asssembly that the Estate mentioned in the Deed be confirmed to the said Mrs. Whitbey their proper Estate and Remain free and discharged from the Claim of any person or persons that may pretend any title or Interest therein as Creditor to her Late Husband Mr Whitby.

Upon the Petition of Major John Bond Sheriff of the Ile of Wight County and the petition of Mr Theophilus Hone Sheriff of Elizabeth County Complaining that their Counties have been over Rated in the List of Tithables (viz) the Ile of Wight by 38 persons fons amounting to twelve hundred Ninety and two pounds of Tobacco and Elizabeth City 32 perfons amounting to one Thoufand Eighty and Eight pounds of Tobacco, It is Ordered that the faid Sums be taken off the faid Counties refpectively and Laid upon Lancafter County where they are Increased fince the laft Year's Lift 152 perfons.

Upon The Petition of M^r John Page It is ordered that he be allowed five hundred pounds of Tobacco more for a Horfe loft in the laft Expedition having formerly had two Thoufand pounds of Tobacco allowed him by the Governor and Council which we conceive too little.

Upon the petition of Mrs. Margaret Skinnar It is Ordered that the Schedule annexed to her petition for the making Good of her Articles to her Children out of M^r Skinnar's Eftate done by Order of the Ifle of Wight Courts as very Reafonable and Juft be fo confirmed by this Affembly.

Upon the Motion of Coll. Flood againft M^r Will Batt for tending of Seconds and being found guilty of the Breach of the faid Act, It is Ordered that the Seconds be deftroyed and the faid Batts to pay two thoufand pounds of Tobacco according to the faid Act.

It is Ordered that Thomas Woodward Clerk to the Committee of private Caufes this Affembly being [be] allowed out of the next Year's Levies fifteen hundred pounds of Tobacco.

Upon The petition of Richard Nicholas It is Ordered that the County pay unto the faid Nicholas Sixteen hundred pounds of Tobacco to be placed in Charles City County towards the Charge and Cofts he hath been in recovering and finding a Horfe which was carried away of the faid Nicholas which Horfe was upon the Service in the fecond Expedition.

Upon The petition of Robert Ellifon whereas in the former Sefions of this Affembly difference between him and Lieut. Coll. Swan appeareth to have been debated at the Committee for private Caufes and a Report thereof made to the Affembly but not determined by reafon of M^r Ellifon's fudden departure out of Town this Affembly finding that former Report juft and reafonable have Ordered the fame to be ratified and confirmed.

In the Bufinefs between Nicholas Seabrill and Capt. Giles Brent by confent of both parties it was agreed that an inqueft of the Old Neighbours (viz't) M^r Nicholas Brook Ralph Simkin and M^r Richard Daines fhould to the beft of their Knowledge Lay forth the faid Land and after it is laid out that the Sheriff poffefs the faid Seabrill therewith and this to be a final Determination of the Bufinefs the faid Brent paying Seabrill fifteen hundred pounds of Tobacco for cofts and Damages (viz't) five hundred pounds of Tobacco this Year and one Thoufand pounds of Tobacco the next Year which is Ordered and Confirmed Accordingly.

Upon the petition of Thomas Dipual It is Ordered that he be allowed five hundred pounds of Tobacco for Damages done to his Boat in carrying Soldiers provifions up to the Fort.

M^r Anthony Langfton's petition is reverfed to further proof.

Upon the Petition of Ralph Langley concerning Damage fuftained by a Boat of his prefft for the Service of the Country It is Ordered that he be allowed five hundred pounds of Tobacco.

Upon the petition of Mafter Anthony Wyat for Satisfaction concerning a Boat bulged in the Country Service, It is Ordered that he be allowed five hundred pounds of Tobacco.

Upon the Petition of M^r Bannifter it is Ordered that he be allowed four hundred pounds of Tobacco for the ufe of his Boat and two hundred Seventy and Seven pounds of Tobacco for provifions that he furnifhed Coll. Hill withall for the ufe of the Soldiers.

Upon the Petition of Coll. Edward Hill It is Ordered that he be Satisfied Six Thoufand pound of Tobacco for Ammunition and other provifions procured by him for the ufe of the Army.

Upon the Petition of Walter Cooper It is Ordered that fifteen hundred pounds of Tobacco be allowed him for his Attendance and Service done to the laft Affembly and this.

Upon

Upon the Petition of Thomas Hunt It is Ordered That three hundred and twenty pounds of Tobacco be allowed to the four Men for their Service done to the Publick mentioned in his Petition.

Upon the Petition of Henry Walker It is Ordered that he have four hundred pounds of Tobacco for his pains of finding a Horfe of Wm. Jupons and four Hundred pounds of Tobacco more when he fhall bring in the Other Stray Horfe fuppofed to be Rich'd Egles-ton's.

It is Ordered that Sir William Berkeley be allowed four Thoufand five hundred pounds of Tobacco and Cask with the Tobacco upon the Sale of his Houfe It being according to the Agreement tho' Omitted by the Clerk and that it be placed upon James City County.

Upon the Petition of Thos. Loving Sheriff of James City County We think fit that he fhould be allowed two thoufand three hundred pounds of Tobacco.

Edw'd Diggs.

Francis Moryfon, Speaker.

[From Hening's Statutes at Large, I, 427, 428.]

IT is ordered that Sir Wm. Berkeley be allowed four thous'd. five hundred pounds of tobacco for cask with the tobaccos upon the fale of his houfe, It being according to the agreement though omitted by the clerk and that it be placed upon James City county.

[From Burk's History of Virginia, II, 116, 117.]

May it please your highness,

WE could not find a fitter means to represent the condition of this country to your highness, than this worthy person, Mr Digges, our late governor, whose occasions calling him into England, we have intrusted him with the ftate of this place as he left it; we shall beseech your highness to give credit to his relations, which we assure ourselves will be faithful, having had many experiences of his candor in the time of his government, which he hath managed under your highness, with so much moderation, prudence, and justice, that we should be much larger in expressing this truth, but that we fear to have already too much trespassed, by interrupting your highness's most serious thoughts in greater affairs than what can concern your highness's most humble, most devoted servants.—Dated from the assembly of Virginia, 15th December, 1656.

Superfcribed,

For his Highness the Lord Protector.

Right honorable,

Though we are persons so remote from you, we have heard so honorable a character of your worth, that we cannot make a second choice, without erring, of one so fit and proper as yourself, to make our addressees to his highness the lord protector. Our desires we have intrusted to that worthy gentleman Mr Digges, our late governor; we shall desire you would please to give him access to you, and by your highness. And as we promise, you will find nothing but worth in him, so we are confident he will undertake for us, that we are a people not altogether ungrateful, but will find shortly a nearer way than by saying so, to express really how much we esteem the honor of your patronage, which is both the hopes and ambition of your very humble, and then obliged servants.

From the assembly of Virginia, 15th Dec. 1656.

Superfcribed,

To the right honorable John Thurlow,

Honored fir,

I am commanded by this present affembly, now fitting, to certify you, that they having taken into their confideration that the difference of bounds between Virginia and Maryland, hath been in long difpute, and yet as far from determination as at firft: It is therefore their unanimous defire, that you defift from all manner of farther proceeding in the fame, until further order from the country. This, fir, is the fum of what I am enjoined from them to let you know, befides their thanks and my obligation in particular, which obliges me to fubfcribe myfelf, your very humble fervant,

Francis Morryfon.

Superfcribed,

To Colonel Samuel Matthews.

Inftructions for the Honorable Edward Digges.

Upon your firft arrival, you are defired to make your firft addreffes to the right honorable John Thurlow, fecretary of ftate, and after delivery of the country's letters, by his means to get addrefs to his royal highnefs the lord Protector. You are to affure his highnefs, that according to his letter we have not interefted ourfelves in the bufinefs betwixt Maryland—and have been unconcerned in their quarrel from the beginning until this time, and fo fhall continue according to his highnefs's direction in that letter. You are defired to join yourfelf with our friends colonel Matthews and mr. Bennett, and to treat with the moft confiderable merchants that ufe this trade, and to let them know how much this affembly hath endeavored to leffen the quantity and mend the quality of tobacco; to fee what they will do towards it, therefore without the endeavor be reciprocal, we fhall hardly mend the commodities without they mend the price, for if we once find that good and bad is all one as in refpect to us, we fhall certainly make that which is made with moft eafe. Of thefe tranfactions and the fuccefs of them, you are defired to give the country an account by the firft fhips next year.

March 24, 1657.

WHEREAS Major William Lewis preferred a petition to the house therein requesting that a Commission might be granted unto them, Mr Anthony Langston and Major William Harris, to discover the Mountaines & Westward parts of the Country & to endeavour the finding out of any Commodities that might probably tend to the benefit of this Country.

It is ordered for encouragement to them & others that shall be of the like publique and Generous Spiritts that a Commission shall be granted them to authorize their Undertakings and all such Gentlemen as shall voluntarily accompany them in the said discoverie.

March, 25th, 1658.

PROPOSED, Whether the committee should draw up a reply to the answer of the Governour and Council of the 23d instant, concerning the proposition about lawyers.

Resolved, An answer should be drawn vpp by the committee.

The humble reply of the Burgeses to the Governour and Council.

1. Concerning Lawyers. 2. Concerning the manner of proceedings in law.

To the first wee have considered Magna Charta and wee cannot discern any prohibition contained therein but that these propositions may pass into lawes.

It was resolved in two former Assemblies that it was not onely necessary but that they had power to make lawes for that purpose, as appears by two acts of Assembly now upon record.

The first whereof stood in force above ten years and the later addition was added in 1647, which acts stood in force vntill the last Assembly, And soe we humbly conceive that wee have no less power nor cause to make the like lawes.

The Report of the Committee nominated for vindication and manifestation of the Affemblyes Power.

Wee have considered the present constitution of the government of Virginia and do propose, That wee find by the records, The present power of government to reside in such persons as shall be empowered by the Burgeffes (the representatives of the people) who are not diffolvable by any power now extant in Virginia, but the Houfe of Burgeffes They humbly think fitt that the Houfe do propose,

Samuel Mathewes, Elquire, to remaine Governour and Capt. Gen'll. of Virginia, with the full powers of that trust, And that a Councill be nominated, appointed and confirmed by the present Burgeffes convened, with the assistance of the Governour for his advice.

Vpon which Report was drawne up this Declaration.

The Burgeffes taking into consideration the many letts and obstructions in the affaires of this Affembly and conceiving that some persons of the present councill endeavour by setting vp their own power to destroy the apparent power resident only in the burgeffes, representative of the people, as is manifest by the records of the Affembly:

Wee the said Burgeffes do declare, That we have in our selves the full power of the election and appointment of all officers in this country vntill such time as wee shall have order to the contrary from the supreme power in England, All which is evident vpon the Affembly records.

And for the better manifestation thereof and the present dispatch of the affaires of this cuntry we declare as followeth:

That wee are not diffolvable by any power yet extant in Virginia but our owne, That all former election of Governour and Council be void and null; That the power of governour for the future shall be conferred on Coll. Samuel Mathewes, Esq. who by vs shall be invested with all the just rights and priviledges belonging to the Governour and Capt. Generall of Virginia and that a councill shall be nominated, appointed and confirmed, by the present burgeffes convened (with the advice of the Governour, for his assistance,) And that for the future none bee admitted a councillor but such who shall be nominated, appointed and confirmed by the houfe of Burgeffes as aforesaid, vntill further order from the supreme power in England.

Gentlemen, His late Highnesse the Lord Protector, from that generall respect which he had to the good and safety of all the people of his dominion, Whether in these nations or in the English plantations abroad did extend his care to his collony in Virginia, The present condition and affaires whereof appearing vnder some vnsettlednes through the looseness of the government, The supplying of that defect hath been taken into serious consideration and some resolutions past in order therevnto which we suppose would have been brought into act by this time if the Lord had continued life and health to his said Highnesse; but it hath pleased the Lord on ffriday the third of this moneth to take him out of the world, his said highnesse having in his life time according to the humble petition and advise appointed and declared the most noble and illustrious Lord, the Lord Richard, eldest sonne to his late Highnesse to be his successour, who hath been accordingly with generall consent and applause of all proclaimed protector of this Comon-Wealth of England, Scotland and Ireland and the dominions and territories therevnto belonging, And therefore wee have thought fitt to signifie the same vnto you, whom wee require according to your duty that you cause his said highnesse Richard, Lord Protector, forthwith to be proclaimed in all parts of your collony, And his Highnesse Council have thought fitt hereby to assure you that the settlement of that collony is not neglected and to lett you know that you may expect shortly to receive a more expresse testimony of his Highnes care in that behalfe; till the further perfecting whereof, their Lordships do will and require you the present Governour and Council there to apply yourselves with all serioufness, faithfullnesse and circumspection to the peaceable and orderly management of the affaires of that collony according to such good lawes and customes (not repugnant to the lawes of England) as have been heretofore vsed and exercised among you improveing your best endeavors, as for maintaining the civil peace, so for promoting the interest of religion, wherein you will receive from hence all just countenance and encouragement, And if any person shall presume by any vndue wayes to interrupt the quiet or hazard the safety of his Highnesse people there, Order will be taken (vpon the representation of such proceedings) to make further provision for securing of your peace in such a way as shall be found meet and necessary, and for calling those to a strict acco't, who shall endeavour to disturbe it.

[Law Against Improper Contracts of Marriage.]

WHEREAS to the great contempt of the Ma^{tie} of God and ill example to others, certain women within this Colony have of late contrary to the Lawes ecclesiasticall of the Realme of England contracted themselves to two severall men at one time, whereby much trouble doth growe betweene parties; and the Governo^r and Counsell of Estate, thereby much disquieted: To prevent the like offence in others hereafter, It is by the Governo^r & Counsell ordered in Court, that every Minister give notice in his Church to his parishoners, that what man or woman soever shall hereafter use any worde or speech tending to a contract of Mariage vnto two severall persons at one time (though not p^rise and legall yet so as may intangle and breed strugle in their Consciencies) shall for such their offence vnd^rgo either corporall punishm^t (as whippinge &c) or other punishm^t by fyne, or otherwise, according to the qualitie of the person so offending. [Memorial in Reference to Tobacco.]

First, that his Ma^{tie} would be graciou^sly pleased to cause some care to be had for the supplanting of English Tobacco, w^{ch} I conceive may best be effected by an Act of Parliam^t, seeing that notwthstanding his Ma^{ties} Proclama^{ti}ons forbidding the planting thereof, it is planted much more then formerlie in divers partes of this kingdome whereby his Ma^{ties} planta^{ti}ons abroad are like in short tyme to be deserted, and utterlie disabled from planting many usefull & advantageable comodities for the benefitt of England, as hemp & flax for cordage, linnen, iron, vines, silke, & other staple comodities w^{ch} the fertilenes of Virginia undoubtedlie in short tyme wth the care and industrie of his Ma^{ties} people there may produce. Besides the English Tobacco doth greatly hinder the sale of Virginia in theis partes, w^{ch} causeth his Ma^{ties} subjectes in Virginia & the adventurers thither, to seeke other forraine Marketes, whereby his Ma^{ties} customes from thence are like to be daylie impayred, this present yeare amounting to fifteene thousand pounds from Virginia onely in all likelihood the next yeare will hardlie render halfe the profit. This present yeare an estimate is made that three hundred thousand waight of tobacco hath been planted in England, and it is thought the next yeare will produce here as much more if it be not hindered by strong hand.

Next, whereas it was ordered by the Lords, that the Governo^r of Virginia should there take bond of all Masters of Shipps to bring into England all such comodities as they doe lade there, that England might be the onely staple of that place, that his Ma^{tie} might might not loofe his benefitt thereby: it were much better that bond might be taken here in England and alfoe in Ireland of all fuch fhipps as lade hence for thofe partes feing the Governour is not to permitt trade there wth any forrayners and by this meanes it will be manifefte by their Corkettes.

Right Hon^{ble}

Wee cannot but acknowledge the great goodnes of God, that hath ftirred vpp the hart of his moft excellent Ma^{tie} gratiouffie to reflect his royall Eye vppon this Colony to eftablifh it to a new life, from the lowe declention wherunto it was fallen, And wee earnestlie desire yo^r honors, to p^{re}sent our moft humble Thankes vnto his moft Sacred Ma^{tie} And wee cannot but acknowledge the hand of heauen alfo, that hath not fuffered, the zeale of this plantation, to die out of the bosoms of yo^w, Right Honorable, beinge the perfonages that foe nobly haue given, beginninge, Supportation & p^{ro}greffes vnto it, whereby wee hope after foe longe a tyme, wherein nothinge hath beene begotten, from hence, but one of the moft vnneceffarie Comodities, nowe at length to manifefte fome better fruites of foe great expence of men and money wafted and confumed on itt, wee haue latelie fumoned an affembly, wherein wee haue contineued longe togeather in Confultation of all fuch orders as wee haue thought moft neceffarye for the p^{re}sent Governm^t heere, of w^{ch} wee haue fent yo^w the Coppies befeechinge yo^r Lor^{pp}s approbation, and favorable interpretation, to our good intentions, efppecially to thofe thinges, wherein wee haue anythinge fayled, or p^{ro}ceeded to farr, to regulate thofe matters, w^{ch} wee would otherwife haue left vntouched, had not the neceffitie of the tyme required itt, that is, the ftate of the Church affayres, wee wilbe bould to informe yo^r Lor^{pp}s that wth a moft vnanimous Confent, both of the Governour, and Counfell & all the Burgiffes, thofe ordinances and lawes were firmelie eftablifhed, and wee hope that the publique fervice hath foe vnited our mynds that noe privat refpects will difioyne or divert o^r harts and intentions, yf any error haue ouertaken our weake abilities not Converfaunt in fuch affayres, wee desire nothinge more, then to be reftored, to the right pathes, but it was neceffarie to Comprehend in our bodie all fuch p^{ar}ticular orders, as this Colony requires, diverfified from the p^{re}fidet of other Comonwealthes, And wee desire that Act w^{ch} fetts the price of our Tobacco at 6^d p^{er} lb. may not be thought ftrange, of w^{ch} to give yo^w the motiues would make thefe tedious, And in part the Affemblye haue given yo^w the reafon, and fome of the Comiffioners can informe yo^w of former p^{re}fidets, heere in that kind, and wee are fure that no evils can enfue of foe great p^{re}judice, as the want of fuch an order hath now brought vppon vs, By the former fhipps, our letters haue p^{ar}ticularlie informed yo^r Lor^{pp}s, of the moft neceffarie poynts, w^{ch} wee now agayne befeech yo^w may rather obtayne Creditt then any finifter informations our p^{re}dicts fuggefsted vnto yo^w by vnexperienced men, Leade often tymes wth priuate refpects for o^r parts we fhall fubmitt to yo^r hon^{rs} direcons rather wifhing that the moft neceffarie workes, may be fixed on, And thofe w^{ch} are to be firft in order of tyme, then by imbraceinge many to fayle in all, Aboue all wee wifh that good and godlie mynifters would repayre vnto us, And that numbers of people may be fent, In multitudes of hands Confifts ftrength, And the difficultie of groffe workes will not otherwife be vanquifhed, They neede not doubt in p^{ro}vision of victualls efppecially yf any price be giuen vnto vs for our Corne, And wee will endeavour to receiue them wth all good accomodations, Tradefmen are wantinge, especially Shipwrites, Smythes, Carpenters, Tanners, Leatherdreffers, Hempdreffers, And Brick-makers, and Bricklayers for now wee intend our houfes for decencye and Comoditie This inclofed abstract of the mufter, will giue light to a generall vewe That there may be nothinge wantinge to yeald yo^r full fatisfaction. Of Iron Oare Capt. Tucker hath taken in some quantitie from a place adioyninge neere vnto vs, and as wee Conceaued fitt to sett vpp a worke, whereas helpe will be readie at hand, yf it proue good, but want of men that Can Judge of the myne, & instruct vs in digginge [for it?] is the Cause that there hath beene none p^rvided from the fallinge Creeke, yf any undertake this worke they fhall be fure of our Corne and hog flefh, and Beife at as Cheape rates as in England, wee haue sent the Tranfcript of our p^rceedinges, about S^r Samuell Argolls Catle, belonginge to M^r Woodall, And beefeech yo^r hon^{rs} finall decree in the Cause especially in the land called the Gouverno^rs land Southampton hundred Cattle now after the devision of S^r Samuell Argolls ftocke are about 120 head, and their numbers increafinge, It will be needfull, it will be needfull the owners fhould take order, how and where they fhould bee kept, Martins hundred Cattle wholly perteyneth to S^r Samuell Argoll, * * * * the small remaynes of them are reftored, Barkley hundred Catle are much encreafed, & the better part of them found belonginge to thofe adventurers * * *. [Letter from Secretary Richard Kemp to Sir Francis Windebanke, dated April 6, 1638.]

to

Right Hono^{bl}

Yo^u may please herewth to receive my humble tender of the Acts and the whole proceedings passed in writing this last Asssembly. When I first declared the Kings Propositions to them (according as my deuty enjoyned mee) I urged their deuty, together wth the necessitye of their yeilding to them, by instancing how farr their povertye had growen and increased upon them by the continuation of their excessive planting of their Tobaccos, having noe consideration eyther to Commodities of more worthy consequence, or what is greater in Providence to the meanes of subsistence, inferring from thence the benefitt of a Contract w^{ch} might afford them a larger proffitt, as allso more tyme and Vacancye to attend more noble Indeavors. What wee could winn upon them by all possible meanes wee could use, their Answer in its naturall colours wthowt alteration presented will informe.

Nor doe I conceive (under yo^r Hon^{rs} favour) a Contract will ever be brought to effect if it dependes upon the yeilding of an Asssembly. And if it passe otherwyse wthowt obliging all other Englisch Plantations I may justly allso feare the Ruine & unpeopling of the Colonye.

I beseech yo^r Hono^r to give me leave, owt of my deuty, to informe the more generall voyce of the people heere. They are of late more then heretofore given to affect good buildings, scarce any Inhabitant but hath his garden and Orchard planted.

Few there are but indeavour the raising of Stocks of Cattell or Hogs or both, wth much labour and paines, considering the neighbourhood of the Salvages, who are ever awake to mischeifs and injuries of spoile, even in the streightest time of peace.

Yf

Yf (fay they) ou^r Tobaccoe from whence wee yett fetch ou^r Maintenance muft fall into a Contract, all flipping will defert us, excepting fome few belonging to the Contractors, where is then the Incouragement to the breeding of Cattell or Hoggs when the meanes whereby to vent them is abridged us. A Letter prepared for the Governo^r and Generall Assembly of Virginia was now read and approved of.

To the Governo^r and Generall Assembly of the English Plantation of Virginia.

Gentlemen.

Colonell Mathews the Agent for Virginia, hath diligently attended the dispatch of some buinesses referring to the peace and settlement of that Colony, The perfecting whereof hath bene obstructed by the many publique affaires here depending. And now it haveing pleased God (who is the great disposer of all humane occurrences) in his great wisedome, and according to the Councell of his owne will, to alter the Government of this Comonwealth, by intrusting the same unto a Lord Protector and Successive Trienniall Parliaments. And Oliver Cromwell Captayne Generall of all the forces of this Comonwealth, being declared the present Lord Protector thereof, (as you may perceive by the platforme of government herewth sent you, and the proclamation thereunto annexed, which you are forthwith after receipt hereof, to Cause to be published) address hath been made unto his Highnes by Colonell Mathews petition, for the determining of those matters, which have so long depended. Whereupon his Highnes hath been pleased, to put into an effectually way the speedy resolution of those questions, betwixt the Lord Baltimore and the Inhabitants of Virginia, concerning the bounds by them respectively claymed, And hath also declared his Intention, with the most convenient speed to settle the government, and other Concernm^{ts} of that plantation, in Such a way as may be for the benefit and security of the Inhabitants, and render it most serviceable to the Comon interest, & honour of the Comonwealth, wherein you may receive his Highnes particular determination in due tyme. In the interim his Highnes hath thought fit to signifie to you by his Councell, (as he hereby doth) That the safety, protection and welfare, of that plantation, (as well as the rest) is under his serious thoughts, and Care. And to the intent it may not suffer any Inconvenience by the unfixtdnes of the governm^t His Highnes hath thought fitt to Continue Colonell Bennet (of whom his Highnes hath received a good Character) in execution of the place of Governo^r, till his Highnes shall further signifie his pleasure in that behalfe, which you may in probability expect by the next Ships. And till such his further pleasure be declared, his Highnes and the Councell recomend it to you, that the publique peace of the plantation be diligently attended. That Love be cherished, and the great Interest of Religion be owned and Countenanced, whereby you will ingage Gods Care over you, who alone can make yo^r affaires prosperous, and more oblige this State tenderly to improve their oportunityes for yo^r protection, and encouragement.

Signed in the Name and by order of his Highnes and the Councell.

GENERAL INDEX

General Index

[This index consists of the several volume indexes, somewhat revised, thrown into one alphabetical arrangement. The different volumes are indicated by the inclusive dates of their contents, printed in heavy type so as to catch the attention. Frequently one personal name represents more than one person. This is more likely than otherwise to be the case where references are given under any one name to the pages of two or more volumes.]
